USC Football Ticket Information

Season tickets for all 7 of the Trojans' 2017 home games start at $320. Individual reserved tickets for USC's home contests can be purchased from the USC Ticket Office and range from $40 to $200 depending on the game. Group rates (20 or more) are priced from $25 per ticket depending on the game.

USC season and individual home game tickets are on sale on-line at USCTrojans.com/tickets or by calling (213) 740-GO SC (4672).

The USC Ticket Office does not have tickets on sale for Troy's 5 road games.

The USC Ticket Office is located in Student Union 100 and is open between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Contact information: File No. 2235, Los Angeles, Calif. 90074-2235, (213) 740-GO SC (4672).

On the day of home games, remaining tickets are on sale at the Coliseum, starting 3 hours prior to kickoff.

JOHN McKAY CENTER

The Home Of USC Football

Directly west of Heritage Hall on the USC campus is the John McKay Center, a $70 million, 110,000-square foot facility that opened in the summer of 2012. It houses meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as the Stevens Academic Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes), a weight room, an athletic training room and a state-of-the-art digital media production facility for all of USC's sports.

USC Athletic Department Mission Statement

To recruit and develop student-athletes who will perform successfully in the classroom and compete at the championship level in every sport, in compliance with the letter and spirit of all applicable rules and under an administrative structure managed in an open and fiscally sound manner, supporting equitable opportunity for all students and staff, and committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct. Decision-making in the Athletic Department will follow 4 basic principles: (1) promoting the well-being of student participants; (2) attaining and maintaining competitive excellence; (3) administering clearly, openly and responsibly; and (4) supporting the overall goals of the USC community.

In a more specific context, the goals for USC Athletics include the following: (1) to compete successfully in every sport, striving to be in the Top 10 nationally, with the ultimate goal of winning national championships; (2) to graduate every student-athlete who completes athletics eligibility at USC; (3) to provide an environment conducive to positive growth and development of student-athletes and Athletic Department staff; (4) to provide adequate financial support within the department to ensure continuing development of the sports programs without university subsidization; and (5) to comply fully with all NCAA and Pac-12 regulations.

2017 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

USC has produced some of college football's most legendary players, coaches, games and moments.

There have been 11 national championships, 34 bowl victories, 166 All-Americans, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 43 College Football Hall of Famers, 22 Academic All-Americans, 494 NFL players and 15 Pro Football Hall of Famers.

The 2017 Trojans—the school's 125th football team—want to add to that legacy. They certainly are well equipped to do so.

After all, 79 squadmen return from the Rose Bowl champion 2016 team (50 of them saw action), including 14 starters (6 on offense, 7 on defense, 1 specialist). Among them are some of the top players at their positions in the country, including at quarterback, running back, linebacker and cornerback. They'll be joined by a consensus national Top 5 recruiting class of 24 newcomers, including 5 who already enrolled at USC and participated in spring drills.

USC enters 2017 riding a 9-game winning streak (its longest since 2008-09) that was capped with the instant-classic last-second 52-49 Rose Bowl victory over Penn State. That gave USC a 10-3 finish (7-2 in the Pac-12 South Division for second place) and a No. 3 final national ranking (its highest since 2008 and the highest ever of any 3-loss team). Troy did all this while playing a schedule ranked among the 10 most difficult in the nation.

USC's 2016 turnaround from a 1-3 start (the losses were to AP Top 25 teams away from home) can be attributed partly to Clay Helton, who stayed the course in his first full season as the Trojan head coach (he had served as interim head coach in 2 previous seasons). His steady and consistent hand guided USC to wins over traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame and in the Rose Bowl, just the 13th season that trifecta has happened in Trojan history. USC was perfect at home (6-0) for the first time since 2008 and undefeated in the greater Los Angeles area (8-0). The Trojans beat both teams (Washington and Colorado) that played in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

With the way USC closed out the 2016 season, expect the Trojans to enter 2017 highly ranked.

"We understand the expectations at USC are high, especially after the successful season we had last year," said Helton, who in 2016 was a finalist for the Bryant Coach of the Year Award and won the Football Writers First Year Co-Coach of the Year Award. "We welcome those expectations.

"Just like every year, we will enter the 2017 season expecting to win the Pac-12 championship. We have a group of players and coaches here that can do that. This is the 125th USC football team and we expect great things this season."

The 2017 Trojan offense, which last season piled up at least 400 total yards in each of its last 10 games and scored at least 40 points 7 times, will be led by quarterback Sam Darnold, now a leading Heisman Trophy candidate after a spectacular 2016 campaign in which he won the Archie Griffin Award, made Freshman All-American and was the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year as he hit 67.2% of his passes for 3,086 yards and 31 touchdowns, including a 453-yard, 5-TD outing that earned him Rose Bowl Offensive MVP honors. The other returning offensive starters are tailback Ronald Jones II, who ran for 1,082 yards and 12 TDs last season (he is over 2,000 career rushing yards), wide receiver Deontay Burnett, who had 56 receptions last fall (13 in the Rose Bowl with 3 scores, including the game-tying TD in the final minutes), linemen Viane Talamaivao at guard (he has started the past 3 years) and Nico Falah at center and tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe (4 TDs among his 17 catches in 2016). Others back with starting experience are wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr. and Jalen Greene, center-guard Toa Lobendahn, tackle Chuma Edoga, guard-tackle Chris Brown and tight end Tyler Petite.

USC's feature players on a defense that last fall held 7 opponents to season lows in points include inside linebacker Cameron Smith, a 2016 Sophomore All-American who already has notched 161 career tackles (with a team-high 83 last year), cornerback Iman Marshall (6 career interceptions), outside linebackers Porter Gustin (68 tackles in 2016, including a team-high 13 for losses) and Uchenna Nwosu, lineman Rasheem Green (a team-best 6 sacks in 2016) and safety Marvell Tell III. Safety Chris Hawkins and cornerbacks Ajene Harris and Jonathan Lockett also return after being part-time starters in 2016. Others returning with starts to their name are outside linebacker Olajuwon Tucker and tackles Malik Dorton and Josh Fatu.

USC's 2016 punter (Chris Tilbey, who saw only 8 runbacks among his 50 punts last season) returns in 2017, as does the holder on placement kicks, Wyatt Schmidt.

However, the Trojans do have a number of holes to fill. Gone from last season's offense are wide receivers JuJu Smith-Schuster (USC's No. 4 career pass catcher with 213 receptions for 3,092 yards and 25 TDs, including 70 grabs with 10 scores in 2016) and Darreus Rogers (127 career catches with 11 TDs, including 56 catches in 2016), plus both starting tackles (All-Americans and All-Pac-12 selectees Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler), tailback Justin Davis (2,465 career rushing yards with 19 TDs), 2-year starting tight end Taylor McNamara and 2-year starting guard Damien Mama, who like Smith-Schuster declared for the NFL Draft after his junior season.

Missing from last year's defense are cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, the 2016 Thorpe Award and Jet Award winner, consensus All-American first teamer and Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year who had 6 career interceptions, 15 touchdowns scored via kick return, punt return, interception and reception and set the USC career records for kick returns and yardage (he declared for the NFL Draft after his junior year), along with inside linebacker Michael Hutchings (118 career tackles, with 66 last fall), tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, and safety Leon McQuay III, who had 5 career picks, including one with 27 seconds to play in the Rose Bowl to set up Troy's game-winning field goal.

Placekicker Matt Boermeester, whose 18 field goals last year—including a 46-yarder at the gun to win the Rose Bowl—were 1 shy of the school record, won't return because of a student code of conduct issue. Also gone from last season is 4-year starting long snapper Zach Smith.

Helton's assistant coaching staff stayed nearly intact from 2016, with the only newcomer being running backs coach Deland McCullough, who joined USC after 6 seasons at Indiana, where the Hoosiers set 19 school rushing records and sent 3 runners to the NFL.

USC's 2017 schedule features 7 home games in the Coliseum, beginning with three straight to open the season. Overall, USC's 12-game slate features 5 teams that played in bowls last season and won at least 8 games. The Trojans will play 9 league foes in the 2017 regular season (all but Oregon and Washington). However, for the first time since the 1995 season, the Trojans will not have a regular-season bye week, only getting a week off on the final weekend of November should they advance to the Pac-12 Championship Game on Dec. 1.

Troy will open its 2017 slate with a 3-game homestand, as Western Michigan of the Mid-American Conference on Sept. 2 and the Big 12's Texas on Sept. 16 sandwich league foe Stanford's Sept. 9 appearance. The Broncos won 13 games in 2016 and played in the Cotton Bowl, while the Longhorns will be making their first L.A. visit versus Troy since 1967, and both teams will be guided by a new head coach (Tom Herman with Texas and Tim Lester with Western Michigan). The Cardinal clash marks the seventh year in a row that USC will play the Pac-12's first conference game of the year. After Texas, the Trojans take to the road for a pair of Pac-12 encounters, at California on Sept. 23 (led by former USC defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox) and then visiting Washington State for a Friday night game on Sept. 29. USC returns to the Coliseum for 2 league contests, hosting Oregon State on Oct. 7 (like WSU, the Beavers are back on the schedule after a 2-year hiatus) and Utah on Oct. 14. USC then goes back on the road for its traditional intersectional battle with Notre Dame on Oct. 21 before finishing with a stretch of 4 Pac-12 games, first playing at Arizona State on Oct. 28. Arizona comes to the Coliseum on Nov. 4, then USC goes to defending Pac-12 South Division champion Colorado on Nov. 11 before hosting crosstown rival UCLA on Nov. 18.

OFFENSE

Six starters return on offense from 2016: quarterback Sam Darnold, tailback Ronald Jones II, wide receiver Deontay Burnett, guard Viane Talamaivao, center Nico Falah and tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe. Other offensive players back with starting experience are wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr. and Jalen Greene, center-guard Toa Lobendahn, tackle Chuma Edoga, guard-tackle Chris Brown and tight end Tyler Petite.

USC returns its top rusher (in fact, 5 of its top 6 runners) and its top passer from 2016, and 9 of the 17 players who caught passes last fall are back. In 2016, Troy improved upon its offensive numbers from the previous season, averaging 200.7 yards on the ground (+32.5) and 276.4 yards through the air (+6.7) for 477.1 yards of total offense (+39.2) and 34.4 points (+0.5). The rushing and total offense figures were USC's best since 2005. The Trojans had at least 400 total yards in each of their final 10 games of 2016 and tallied 40-plus points 7 times. In its 10 victories last year (when it scored at least 35 points 8 times), USC's average victory margin was 19.8 points and the Trojans held the halftime lead in each contest. Last year, USC ranked sixth nationally in sacks allowed (0.9), seventh in tackles for loss allowed (4.4), ninth in completion percentage (.657), 11th in third down conversions (.478), 15th in first downs (322), 20th in total offense and 25th in both passing efficiency (149.6) and pass offense.

USC's offense, coordinated by wide receivers coach Tee Martin with quarterbacks coach Tyson Helton assisting as the pass game coordinator and new running backs coach Deland McCullough as the run game coordinator, features multiple formations, often with extra wideouts and no fullback.

"I loved how our offense progressed last year and that's a credit to Tee and our offensive coaches and players," said Helton. "I look forward to more of the same in 2017. We strive to be balanced on offense and take advantage of what the defense gives us. We have some very talented skill position players who can get yards on the ground or through the air, but we will have to develop our big men in a hurry this year if we want to win a conference championship."

QUARTERBACKS

In sophomore Sam Darnold (246-of-366, 67.2%, 3,086 yds, 31 TD, 9 int in 2016, plus 62 tcb, 250 yds, 4.0 avg, 2 TD), USC has one of the nation's elite quarterbacks. Despite his youth, he will enter 2017 as a leading contender for the Heisman Trophy. Known for his poise, accuracy and mobility, Darnold sparked the Trojans last year as just a redshirt freshman when he became the starter in the fourth game and led Troy to a 9-1 record. He won the Archie Griffin Award, was a finalist for the Manning Award, made Freshman All-American first team and was the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. He was second nationally in ESPN's Total Quarterback Rating (behind Oklahoma's Baker Mayfield) and led all freshman signalcallers in passing efficiency (161.1), completion percentage and TD passes. His 31 TD aerials was a USC freshman season record. He threw multiple scoring passes in 9 consecutive games, the most by a Trojan since Matt Leinart's 15 in 2003-04. Darnold threw 5 TDs in a game 3 times, including in his 453-yard passing performance in the Rose Bowl, when he set game records for TDs and total offense (473 yards) to earn Rose Bowl Offensive MVP honors, and back-to-back against Arizona and California (a USC first). He was the first USC freshman to throw for 300 yards in consecutive games (Arizona State and Colorado) since Todd Marinovich in 1989. Darnold's 250 rushing yards were the most in a season by a USC quarterback since 1991.

Backing Darnold are 4 untested underclassmen: redshirt freshman Matt Fink, first-year freshman Jack Sears (San Clemente High in San Clemente, Calif.), a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from Darnold's alma mater (he threw for 2,602 yards and 37 TDs last fall on the state champs) and participated in 2017 spring practice, and walk-ons Thomas Fitts, a sophomore, and redshirt freshman Holden Thomas.

"After a very successful freshman season, I'm looking forward to seeing how Sam progresses," said Helton. "No doubt, he is a special talent, performing well beyond his years. We need him to continue to develop and perform. We also need to develop the young quarterbacks behind him. That's very important."

RUNNING BACKS

Despite losing tailback Justin Davis, who ran for 2,465 yards and 19 touchdowns in his career along with catching 46 passes (he had 607 rushing yards in 2016), the 2017 Trojan backfield is deep. It features one of the game's most exciting and productive runners in junior Ronald Jones II (177 tcb, 1,082 yds, 6.1 avg, 12 TD in 2016, plus 11 rec, 76 yds, 6.9 avg, 1 TD). Jones already has run for 2,069 yards with 20 TDs in his USC career (an impressive 6.3 yards per carry), including eclipsing the 1,000-yard barrier last fall when he gained a team-leading 1,082 yards with 12 scores. His 223-yard rushing output versus California last year (averaging 12.4 yards per attempt) was the most by a Trojan since 2010 and the second most ever by a USC sophomore. He ran for a TD in each of the last 7 games of 2016.

Two other experienced junior tailbacks also return in 2017: Aca'Cedric Ware (78 tcb, 397 yds, 5.1 avg, 2 TD in 2016, plus 4 rec, 29 yds, 7.3 avg and 1 tac), who rushed for 397 yards last season (he had back-to-back 100-yard games versus Arizona and California), and speedy Dominic Davis (23 tcb, 132 yds, 5.7 avg in 2016, plus 4 rec, 19 yds, 4.8 avg), who picked up 132 rushing yards in 2016. Davis' 85-yard run at Arizona was the longest by a Trojan since 1996. Like Jones, Davis has sprinted for the USC track team.

Also in the tailback mix are senior James Toland IV (13 tcb, 69 yds, 5.3 avg in 2016, plus 3 tac) and promising redshirt freshman Vavae Malepeai, who was sidelined most of last year with a broken shoulder blade, along with walk-on redshirt freshman Chris Edmondson.

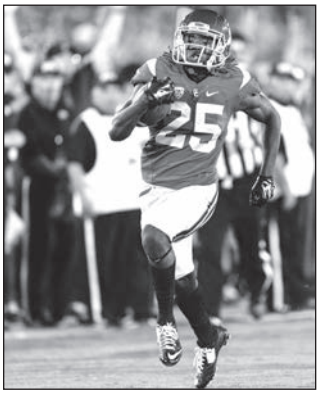
Joining the tailback corps in the fall as a freshman is prep All-American Stephen Carr (Summit High in Fontana, Calif.), a 210-pounder who had 2,123 rushing yards and another 466 receiving yards in 2016.

USC rarely employed a traditional fullback last year. The only one on the 2017 roster is junior Reuben Peters (1 tac in 2016), who like Toland came to USC as a walk-on but earned a scholarship last fall (he plays often on special teams).

SAM DARNOLD



RONALD JONES II

"We have a very potent and deep backfield, with some veteran, gifted runners in Ronald, Aca'Cedric and Dominic," said Helton. "Each can be a difference maker in a game. We also have some very talented youngsters who I am anxious to watch perform."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC lost a lot of wideout firepower from 2016, including its top 2 receivers: JuJu Smith-Schuster declared for the NFL after his junior campaign (he was a second round pick) and Darreus Rogers' eligibility expired. Smith-Schuster ended as Troy's No. 4 career pass catcher with 213 receptions for 3,092 yards and 25 TDs, including a team-best 70 grabs with 10 scores last season. He caught a pass in all 40 games in which he played as a Trojan and he had 12 100-yard performances. Rogers added 127 career catches with 11 TDs, including 56 catches for 696 yards in 2016.

Junior Deontay Burnett (56 rec, 622 yds, 11.1 avg, 7 TD in 2016, plus 3 tcb, 31 yds, 10.3 avg and 4 PR, 26 yds, 6.5 avg and 2 tac) had an eye-opening sophomore campaign last fall when he tied Rogers for the team's second-most receptions (56). Burnett's showing in the Rose Bowl was magical as he caught 13 passes for 164 yards and 3 scores, including the game-tying TD in the final minutes.

Three other experienced wide receivers return in 2017: senior Steven Mitchell Jr. (24 rec, 226 yds, 9.4 avg, 1 TD in 2016, plus 2 tcb, -3 yds, -1.5 avg and 5 KOR, 91 yds, 18.2 avg and 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg), junior Jalen Greene (8 rec, 116 yds, 14.5 avg in 2016, plus 4 tcb, 12 yds, 3.0 avg and 0-1 passing) and sophomore Michael Pittman Jr. (6 rec, 82 yds, 13.7 avg in 2016, plus 7 tac, 1 BLK P, 1 FF and 2 PR, 63 yds, 31.5 avg and 4 KOR, 31 yds, 7.8 avg). Mitchell, who has 68 career grabs and 7 TDs with 11 starts, caught 24 passes last year before a mid-season knee injury sidelined him. Greene, a one-time quarterback, has developed into an effective and often-employed wideout (with 18 career catches and 3 starts). Pittman had 6 catches as a rookie last fall and also made his mark on special teams with 7 tackles and a blocked punt.

Sophomore Keyshawn "Pie" Young, who converted this past spring from cornerback (he also might see some time there in 2017), will battle to get into the wide receiver playing rotation, as will 4 redshirt freshmen: Josh Imatorbhebhe, Velus Jones Jr., Trevon Sidney (he had 2016 post-season surgery on his hips) and Tyler Vaughns. There also is a trio of walk-ons in seniors Jackson Boyer and Milo Stewart and sophomore Jake Russell, but none have caught a pass.

Bolstering the wide receiver group as freshmen this fall is prep All-American Joseph Lewis IV (Hawkins High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who had 142 career receptions as a prepster, along with Randal Grimes (Desert Pines High in Las Vegas, Nev.), who like Greene has quarterback skills in his background.

"This is a group that will need to develop in a hurry because we lost some very productive wideouts from last season," said Helton. "We saw what kind of player Deontay is as he emerged throughout last season. Steven has proven to be very effective when he is healthy. This is a relatively young unit but has some exciting talent. They will be thrown into the fire quickly."

TIGHT ENDS

USC's tight end room will be without the dependable Taylor McNamara, who graduated along with his 24 Trojan career catches (with 5 TDs) in 15 starts.

But there is a wealth of talented tight ends in 2017. Sophomore Daniel Imatorbhebhe (17 rec, 250 yds, 14.7 avg, 4 TD in 2016), the older brother of USC wide receiver Josh Imatorbhebhe, showed his ability to be an impact pass catcher, especially down the field, as he had 4 scores among his 17 grabs last season while starting 5 times. The same can be said of junior Tyler Petite (10 rec, 156 yds, 15.6 avg, 2 TD in 2016), who has 25 career receptions.

Also available are developing redshirt freshman Cary Angeline and junior walk-ons Alec Hursh and Austin Applebee. Applebee joined the Trojans this past spring after transferring from Arizona Western Junior College (the NJCAA national runner-up) following a 2-year stint at NCAA Division II McKendree.

Coming aboard in the fall as freshmen is prep All-American Josh Falo (Inderkum High in Sacramento, Calif.), who caught 8 TDs in his senior year, along with Erik Krommenhoek (Monte Vista High in Danville, Calif.), who also had 8 scoring catches last year. Falo has 2 brothers who have played collegiately.

"This is one of our deepest and strongest positions," said Helton. "Daniel and Tyler really emerged last year into effective blockers and pass catchers. And there are some promising young players pushing behind them."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's offensive line, a strong point in 2016 (Troy averaged 200 rushing yards and allowed less than 1 sack per contest), will need to retool in 2017 with the loss of 3 key starters. Gone are both tackles, Zach Banner (a 3-year starter on the right side) and Chad Wheeler (a 4-year starter on the left side), and 2-year starting left guard Damien Mama. Banner (a 2016 Senior CLASS Award finalist and NFL Draft fourth rounder) and Wheeler both made All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team last year, while Mama declared for the NFL following his junior season.

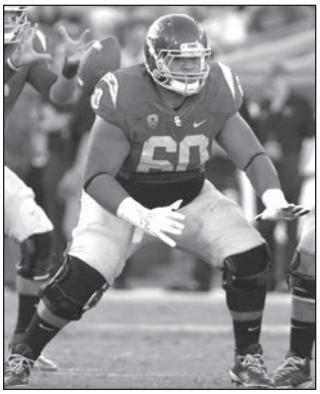
The wild card on Troy's offensive line in 2017 is versatile junior Toa Lobendahn, a starter in every game in which he has appeared. He has 21 career starts at 4 positions (8 at left guard, 5 at left tackle, 5 at right guard, 3 at center). He could be tried at a variety of spots this year. Lobendahn started the 2016 opener at center but suffered a season-ending knee injury in that game (it was the second consecutive year that his season was cut short by a knee injury).

Two other juniors have starting experience on the line: Chuma Edoga at tackle (4 starts) and Chris Brown at guard (2 starts). Brown also might be tried at tackle.

Looking to break into the playing rotation are junior guard-tackle Jordan Austin and sophomores Roy Hemsley at tackle-guard, Clayton Johnston at tackle and Cole Smith at center. All have seen limited playing time to date. Then there is a pair of redshirt freshmen in guard Frank Martin II and tackle Nathan Smith, but Smith suffered a late-season knee injury in 2016 and could be sidelined in 2017, plus junior walk-on center Richie Wenzel.

Prep All-American tackle-guard Andrew Vorhees (Kingsburg High in Kingsburg, Calif.) graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring as a freshman, able to participate in 2017 spring drills. Tackle Austin Jackson (North Canyon High in Phoenix, Ariz.) and guard-tackle Alijah Vera-Tucker (Bishop O'Dowd High in Oakland, Calif.) and center Brett Neilon (Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), all prep All-Americans, come aboard in the fall as freshmen, along with tackle Jalen McKenzie (Clayton Valley High in Concord, Calif.). Jackson's grandfather played on USC's 1974 national championship squad and then in the NFL, while Neilon's aunts were USC golfers and McKenzie's father, Reggie, is the general manager of the NFL's Oakland Raiders (he and his brother played in the NFL).



VIANE TALAMAIVAO

NICO FALAH

"With the personnel losses we had here, there will be a very competitive atmosphere for playing time within this unit," said Helton. "As we did last year, we will train players to perform at several positions. Viane and Nico will be the senior leaders of the line. There are a number of other players with experience under their belts, like Toa, Chuma and Chris, and there are also some young and new players from whom we expect big things. Whoever emerges will have some huge shoes to fill."

DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters return from 2016: inside linebacker Cameron Smith, cornerback Iman Marshall, outside linebackers Porter Gustin and Uchenna Nwosu, lineman Rasheem Green and safety Marvell Tell III, along with a trio of players who shared starts in safety Chris Hawkins and cornerbacks Ajene Harris and Jonathan Lockett. Other defensive players back with career starts are outside linebacker Olajuwon Tucker and tackles Malik Dorton and Josh Fatu.

USC returns its top 2 tacklers from 2016, plus its leaders in tackles for loss, sacks and forced fumbles. Like on the offensive side of the ball, Troy saw improvement last fall in its defensive numbers from 2015, surrendering 367.2 total yards (-33.6), including 139.6 rushing (-9.7) and 227.5 (-24.0) passing, and 24.2 points (-1.5). Seven times in 2016, USC held the opponent to a season low in points. The Trojans allowed just 50 points in the first quarter last fall (and only 71 in the second quarter).

Clancy Pendergast, who returned last year for his second stint as Troy's defensive coordinator, employs an attacking 5-2 system that morphs into a 3-4 and a 4-3. USC played most of 2016 with 5 defensive backs.

"We were very pleased that Clancy was able to get our defense to perform last year like it did when he was here previously," said Helton. "We expect even more success defensively in 2017 as our players enter the second year in his system. He develops tough defenses that put constant pressure on the opponent, a style that our players enjoy playing."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The rock of USC's 2016 interior defensive line—tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who had transferred as a graduate from Utah last season—is gone. He had 53 tackles last season while clogging up the middle of the Trojan defensive front. He was the Rose Bowl Defensive Player of the Game after notching 8 tackles, then was picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft.

However, Tu'ikolovatu's inside linemate in the starting lineup does return in 2017, junior Rasheem Green (55 tac, 6.5 for loss, 6 sack, 4 dfl, 2 FF, 2 BLK FG in 2016). Green had 55 tackles last year, including a team-high 6 sacks.

Looking to replicate Tu'ikolovatu's immovable force will be challenging. The possible replacements include senior Josh Fatu (21 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack in 2016), who made 21 tackles while playing often last fall (he even started once) after coming to USC from a junior college, and juniors Malik Dorton (9 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl in 2016), who started once last year and notched 9 tackles, and Jacob Daniel (6 tac in 2016). Senior Kenny Bigelow Jr., who missed the 2016 season while sidelined with the second knee injury of his Trojan career, is hoping to come back healthy and make an impact. Then there is walk-on redshirt freshman Connor Rossow, who sat out 2016 with a shoulder injury. Two touted freshmen will get a look here, too: prep All-American Marlon Tuipulotu (Central High in Independence, Ore.), who enrolled at USC this spring after graduating early from high school (where he had 269 career tackles, with 64 for a loss and 31 sacks) and was impressive throughout spring drills, and Brandon Pili (Westview High in Portland, Ore.), who previously prepped in Alaska and comes aboard this fall.

Working to get into the rotation behind Green will be sophomore Christian Rector (5 tac, 1 dfl in 2016) and redshirt freshman Liam Jimmons. Joining the fray here in the fall as freshmen is prep All-American Jay Tufele (Bingham High in South Jordan, Utah), along with Jacob Lichtenstein (Cypress Bay High in Weston, Fla.).

"Like with our offensive line, the defensive front will have to overcome the loss of key personnel and therefore there will be great competition for playing time," said Helton. "Rasheem took a big leap forward last season and he will be our veteran leader up front. I expect our other older players to step up here, along with some talented newcomers."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Both of USC's 2016 starting outside linebackers, who play standing up at the line, return this year and both are good ones: frenetic junior Porter Gustin (68 tac, 13 for loss, 5.5 sack, 4 dfl in 2016), who led Troy in tackles for loss (13) last season and was second in tackles (68), and reliable senior Uchenna Nwosu (53 tac, 7.5 for loss, 3 sack, 5 dfl, 1 FF in 2016), who had 7.5 tackles for losses among his 53 total stops last fall.

Their high-potential backups from last season also are back in 2017 in senior Olajuwon Tucker (9 tac in 2016), who started 3 times in 2015 at an inside spot, and sophomores Connor Murphy (6 tac, 1 FR in 2016) and Oluwole Betiku Jr. Walk-on soph Matt Bayle also is available.

Enrolling in the fall as freshmen is prep All-American Hunter Echols (Cathedral High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who had 54 tackles for a loss and 26 sacks in his prep career, along with Juliano Falaniko (Leone High in Pago Pago, American Samoa), the first Trojan footballer from an American Samoa high school since the mid-2000s. Falaniko also might work at inside linebacker.

"This is one of our strongest, most productive units with Uchenna and Porter back," said Helton. "They are disruptive players to any offense. We also look forward to the continued development of our younger outside linebackers."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Michael Hutchings, who was the heart of USC's defense last year while starting at middle linebacker and posting 66 tackles (third on the team), has graduated.

But always-around-the-ball junior Cameron Smith (83 tac, 7 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2016, plus 1 KOR, 7 yds, 7.0 avg) returns as a starter and is among the nation's best. Known for his intense, punishing style, he earned Sophomore All-American first team status in 2016, a year after being a Freshman All-American. He led the Trojans in tackles last year with 83 and now has 161 stops in his career with 22 starts.

Looking to move into a starting role are sophomores John Houston Jr. (16 tac in 2016) and Jordan Iosefa (9 tac in 2016). There also are 2 walk-ons available in senior Christian Herrera and junior Grant Moore.

Tayler Katoa (Layton High in Layton, Utah) graduated a semester early from high school and began at USC this spring as a freshman but suffered a knee injury that likely will sideline him in 2017, while prep All-American Levi Jones (Westlake High in Austin, Tex.) arrives in the fall as a frosh. Katoa played quarterback in high school in addition to defense, while Jones recorded 238 prep tackles (his father, brother and uncle all starred in the NFL). Jones also might be tried at outside linebacker.

"We are very fortunate to return a veteran like Cameron," said Helton. "He is as good as they get. But we need to fill a void at the other inside spot. We have a number of promising young players who will compete to do that."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC lost a pair of big-play starters from its 2016 secondary, cornerback Adoree' Jackson (who also was a dangerous returner and saw action on offense as a wide receiver) and safety Leon McQuay III. Last year, Jackson won the Thorpe Award and Jet Award (he also was a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy), earned consensus All-American first team notice and was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year when he had 55 tackles and led USC in interceptions (5), deflections (11) and fumble recoveries (2). Jackson started at corner for 3 seasons, getting 139 tackles, 29 deflections and 6 interceptions in his career while also scoring 8 touchdowns as a punt and kick returner and 6 TDs as a wideout. He was an All-American long jumper, too, twice winning the Pac-12 title (he was fifth in the past 2 NCAA Meets). He left USC after his junior year and declared for the NFL, where he was a first round pick. McQuay, who had 24 career starts and 5 interceptions, made 50 stops and 2 picks last year while starting at strong safety or nickelback. He long will be remembered for his interception in the Rose Bowl with 27 seconds to play to set up USC's game-winning field goal. He was an NFL Draft sixth round pick.

But the Trojans have plenty of returning talent in the 2017 secondary. Most prominent is physical junior cornerback Iman Marshall (51 tac, 3 for loss, 8 dfl, 3 int in 2016), a starter the past 2 years while logging 6 interceptions and 118 tackles. He had 51 stops and 3 thefts in 2016 and could be among the nation's best corners this year.

Rangy junior Marvell Tell III (43 tac, 2 for loss, 2 dfl, 1 int in 2016) returns as the starting free safety. He made 43 tackles last fall.

A likely contender for the starting strong safety job is veteran senior Chris Hawkins (44 tac, 4 for losses, 1 sack, 2 dfl, 2 FF in 2016), who alternated with McQuay there last season and got 44 stops and 4 starts. He has 22 career starts with 146 tackles and 3 interceptions.

USC often employed a fifth defensive back in 2016 and both players who earned starts in that nickelback role last year are on the 2017 team: junior cornerback Ajene Harris (30 tac, 3.5 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, 1 FR, 2 FF, 2 int with 1 TD in 2016, plus 1 tcb, 14 yds, 14.0 avg) and senior corner Jonathan Lockett (17 tac, 0.5 for a loss, 3 dfl, 1 int in 2016). Harris, a one-time wide receiver, had 4 starts at nickelback in 2016 when he made 30 tackles and returned an interception for a score. Lockett had 17 tackles with 5 starts in 2016, but had late-season hip surgery.

Sophomore cornerback Jack Jones (13 tac, 1 dfl, 1 FR in 2016, plus 3 KOR, 31 yds, 10.3 avg) also saw significant playing time off the bench as a rookie last fall and looks to add to that this season.

Three other Trojan defensive backs who have seen action return and will battle for playing time: senior safety Matt Lopes (5 tac in 2016), a one-time walk-on who received a scholarship last year, junior cornerback Isaiah Langley (8 tac in 2016) and sophomore safety Ykili Ross (2 tac, 1 dfl in 2016). Then there are redshirt freshman safeties Jamel Cook and C.J. Pollard.

Also available are 4 walk-ons: senior cornerback Yoofi Quansah, junior cornerback Jalen Jones, junior safety Davonte Nunnery and redshirt freshman safety Richard Hagestad. Quansah and Jones have seen brief action in just 1 game in their careers.

Four freshmen will fight for action when they arrive in the fall: prep All-Americans Bubba Bolden (Bishop Gorman High in Las Vegas, Nev.) and Isaiah Pola-Mao (Mountain Pointe High in Phoenix, Ariz.) at safety, prep All-American Greg Johnson (Hawkins High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who likely will begin as a cornerback but is multi-talented enough to also play on offense and as a returner on special teams, and cornerback Je'Quari Godfrey (Bishop O'Dowd High in Oakland, Calif.). Bolden had 11 interceptions while playing on 3 consecutive USA Today national championship prep teams. Pola-Mao, who had 21 thefts as a high schooler, is the nephew of USC and NFL safety legend Troy Polamalu. Johnson had 10 picks in his high school career along with more than 6,000 yards on offense and special teams. Godfrey had 7 prep interceptions.

IMAN MARSHALL

MARVELL TELL III

"We're lucky to have Iman, Chris and Marvell back and anchoring our secondary, along with Ajene and Jonathan," said Helton. "But it will be challenging to replace the dynamic playmaking ability that Adoree' had. The competition will be intense to do that and I'm anxious to see how it plays out among our returnees and our signees."

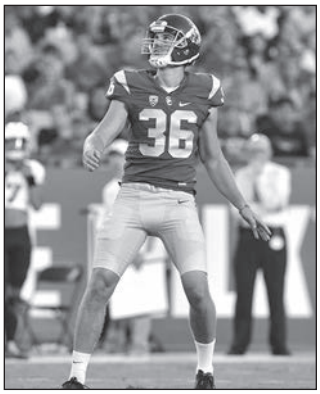
SPECIAL TEAMS

USC returns its punter (Chris Tilbey) and holder (Wyatt Schmidt) from 2016. But the Trojans will have new faces in 2017 at placekicker and snapper and both the primary punt returner and kickoff returner.

In 2016 under special teams coordinator John Baxter (who returned to Troy last fall), USC ranked fourth among all schools in FootballOutsiders.com's Special Teams Efficiency rating. In NCAA stats, the Trojans were sixth nationally in punt returns (15.3) and 23rd in kickoff returns (23.2), blocked kicks (3) and blocked punts (1). Troy returned 2 punts (for the fourth consecutive year) and 2 kickoffs for touchdowns last fall, and blocked 2 field goals and a punt. USC's 18 field goals last year were 1 shy of the school season record. USC kicked 43 touchbacks in 2016 after having only 11 the previous season. Opponents returned just 8 of USC's 50 punts last year (for just 50 yards).

"I'm very proud of the way our special teams performed in 2016 and that's a credit to John Baxter," said Helton. "We are very fortunate to have him back with us. We saw how important special teams play was in the Rose Bowl. It will continue to be an emphasis for us in 2017."

CHRIS HAWKINS



CHRIS TILBEY

PUNTERS

Junior Chris Tilbey (38.3 P avg in 2016) of Australia returns for his second season as USC's punter. His 38.3 punting average last season was adequate, but he excelled in his ability to limit runbacks. Opponents returned only 8 of his 50 punts for just 50 yards (USC was allowing just 4.6 yards per runback until Penn State had an 18-yarder in the Rose Bowl). Eighteen of Tilbey's punts last fall pinned opponents within their 20-yard line, while 20 were fair caught.

PLACEKICKERS

USC will be without placekicker Matt Boermeester, whose 46-yard field goal with no time remaining dramatically won the Rose Bowl last year, because of a student code of conduct issue. Known for his accuracy and strong leg, his 18 field goals last year were 1 shy of the school season record. Eight of his field goals were 40-plus yards. His 3 field goals against Penn State tied a Rose Bowl record and his game winner was just the fourth time ever that USC won a game on a field goal with no time left. He was 53-of-54 on PATs. He also had 43 touchbacks on his 86 kickoffs last fall after the Trojans had only 11 touchbacks in 2015.

That leaves redshirt freshman Michael Brown as the only kicker on Troy's 2017 roster, so he will be asked to step up in Boermeester's place.

SNAPPERS

After 4 years of flawless long snapping by Zach Smith, USC will break in a new snapper. The likely candidate is first-year freshman Damon Johnson, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2017 after spending the fall of 2016 not playing football at Citrus Junior College in Glendora (Calif.) following a prep career at Glendora (Calif.) High.

Another snapper on the roster is blind walk-on sophomore Jake Olson. He was born with retinoblastoma (a cancer of the retina) and had both of his eyes removed as a youth. He snapped in high school for 2 years despite his blindness. Although USC currently prevents contact during any practice drills in which Olson is involved to make sure he is protected, the hope is he will snap in a game one day.

HOLDERS

Junior Wyatt Schmidt returns as the holder on placement kicks. He also is able to long snap, punt and placekick.

Soph quarterback Sam Darnold held a few times in 2016 and is available, although it is possible others will be tried for the backup holder role.

RETURNERS

USC will be hard-pressed to find a returner as dynamic as Adoree' Jackson, who declared for the NFL after his junior season and was a first round selection. In his career, Jackson returned 4 punts and 4 kickoffs for touchdowns (including a school record-tying pair of 100-yard kick runbacks). He set the USC career records for kickoff return yardage (2,141 yards) and returns (79) and his 27.1 career kick return average is second best in Trojan history. He also averaged 12.6 yards on his 46 career punt returns. Last year, he averaged 29.5 yards (sixth nationally) on 26 kickoff returns with 2 TDs and 15.8 yards (third nationally) on 20 punt returns with another 2 scores. Against Notre Dame last fall, he became the first Trojan since records were available in 1953 to have scoring punt and kick runbacks in a game. He won the 2016 Jet Award as the nation's top punt returner and many of his All-American accolades were as a returner.

Several current Trojans have been involved in the return game in the past, including junior wide receiver Deontay Burnett (4 PR, 26 yds, 6.5 avg in 2016), senior wide receiver Steven Mitchell Jr. (5 KOR, 91 yds, 18.2 avg in 2016, plus 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg), sophomore wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. (4 KOR, 31 yds, 7.8 avg in 2016, plus 2 PR, 63 yds, 31.5 avg) and soph cornerback Jack Jones (3 KOR, 31 yds, 10.3 avg in 2016). They or some of the younger Trojans could be worked here.

HEAD COACH CLAY HELTON

The 44-year-old Helton is 16-7 as the Trojan head coach, with 6 victories over AP Top 25 teams, including 3 in the Top 5 (10-3 in 2016, with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado en route to a 9-game winning streak, 5-4 in 2015, with wins over No. 3 Utah and No. 22 UCLA, and 1-0 in 2013, beating No. 21 Fresno State).

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013.

After starting the 2015 season as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, Helton was named USC's permanent head coach on Nov. 30 of that year (for 2 post-season games), dropping the interim head coach title he had held since Oct. 12 (for USC's final 7 regular season games). He signed a 5-year contract.

After his Trojans started off 1-3 in 2016 in his first full season as head coach (all 3 losses were to AP Top 25 teams away from home), USC went on a 9-game winning streak (its longest since 2008-09) to rise to a final No. 3 national AP ranking (USC's highest since 2008 and the highest ever of any 3-loss team) and earn a berth in the Rose Bowl (finishing second in the Pac-12 South at 7-2) while playing a schedule ranked among the 10 most difficult in the nation. Troy capped the season with an instant classic 52-49 at-the-gun victory over No. 5 Penn State in the Rose Bowl. He guided USC to wins over UCLA and Notre Dame and in the Rose Bowl, just the 13th season that has happened in Trojan history. USC was perfect (6-0) at home for the first time since 2008 and undefeated in the greater Los Angeles area (8-0). His Trojans beat both teams (No. 4 Washington and No. 21 Colorado) that played in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

Under Helton's guidance in 2016, Adoree' Jackson was named the Thorpe Award winner, a consensus All-American first teamer, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. Sam Darnold was a Manning Award finalist and a Freshman All-American first teamer and both Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler were All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team picks. USC's offense had at least 400 total yards in its last 10 games, while its defense held 7 opponents to season lows in points. Helton was named a finalist for the 2016 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and won the Football Writers First Year Co-Coach of the Year Award. He served as the grand marshal of the 2017 Long Beach Grand Prix and he threw out the first pitch at a Dodgers game in April.

Helton guided the 2015 Trojans to 5 wins in the last 6 regular-season games (including victories over No. 3 Utah and No. 22 UCLA), the co-championship of the challenging Pac-12 South Division, a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game and a trip to the Holiday Bowl. He was named the 2015 Los Angeles Sports Council Coach of the Year.

As the coordinator of USC's offense in 2015, the Trojans ranked ninth nationally in fumbles lost (5) , 11th in both passes had intercepted (7) and completion percentage (.667), 16th in fourth down conversions (.654) and 20th in passing efficiency (153.6). USC averaged 437.9 total yards and 33.9 points a game. Quarterback Cody Kessler, a finalist for the Unitas Award and a NFL Draft third round pick, ranked in the national Top 20 in completion percentage (13th at .668), passing TDs (15th at 29) and passing efficiency (19th at 151.7). Kessler ended his career in USC's career Top 4 in TD passes, completions, passing yards and total offense (and set school career records for completion percentage and interception rate). All-Pac-12 first team wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster was in the Top 20 nationally in receiving yards (11th at 103.9), receiving TDs (17th at 10) and receptions (20th at 6.4). Tailbacks Justin Davis and Ronald Jones II each had 900-plus yard rushing seasons. Jones set the USC frosh season rushing record and was just the second Trojan first-year freshman to top the squad in rushing.

In 2014, quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7%, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions) while setting USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11) and tying USC season marks for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7). He also threw a school record 7 TD passes against Colorado and a Notre Dame opponents record 6 TDs against the Irish. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense in 2014. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerrfel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommie West had off-season heart surgery.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid (a USC student), 20, and Turner, 14, and daughter Aubrey, 18. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator at USC after assistant coaching stops at Western Kentucky, Cincinnati, Alabama Birmingham, Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN BAXTER
Special Teams Coordinator
Tight Ends

John Baxter, known for producing extremely productive special teams units and for also working with tight ends for nearly half of his coaching career, is in his second season of his second stint at USC. He returned to USC in January of 2016 as its special teams coordinator and tight ends coach after spending a season at Michigan.

Baxter has 35 years of coaching experience.

In 2016, USC ranked fourth among all schools in FootballOutsiders.com's Special Teams Efficiency rating. USC was sixth nationally in punt returns and 23rd in blocked kicks, blocked punts and kickoff returns. USC blocked 2 field goals and a punt and allowed only 8 of its 50 punts to be returned (for just 50 yards). Placekicker Matt Boermeester's 18 field goals were one shy of the school record, he kicked a Rose Bowl record-tying 3 field goals (including the game-winner at the gun) and he had 43 touchbacks (USC had just 11 in 2015). Returner Adoree' Jackson, who had 2 punt return TDs and 2 kickoff return TDs, was named an All-American first teamer by some selectors as a punt returner, won the Jet Award as the nation's top punt returner and was an NFL Draft first rounder. USC tight ends caught 39 passes.

Baxter was Michigan's special teams coordinator in 2015. The Wolverines finished 12th nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking (they were No. 1 two-thirds of the way into the season) after being 96th the previous year. Michigan was third nationally in kickoff returns, Jabrill Peppers was 19th in punt returns, Jehu Chesson returned a kickoff for a TD, UM allowed only 3 kickoff returns longer than 30 yards, Blake O'Neill had a Michigan Stadium record 80-yard punt and 43% of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and Kenny Allen hit 18-of-22 field goals and 44% of his kickoffs were touchbacks (O'Neill and Allen entered the season as non-scholarship players). Michigan won the 2016 Citrus Bowl.

Baxter, 53, spent 4 years (2010-13) at USC as the associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He added the tight ends to his coaching duties in 2013.

In 2013, fullback Soma Vainuku made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams player and Nelson Agholor was an All-American second team pick as a punt returner. USC blocked 6 kicks, returned 3 punts for TDs in a game to tie an NCAA record and allowed no punt return yards in 8 games. The Trojans won the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl.

In 2012, USC ranked ninth nationally on ESPN's special teams efficiency chart. Punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Baxter was named the 2011 FootballScoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. For the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks in 2011. The Trojans also had a scoring kickoff return, made a 2-point conversion and converted a fake punt for a first down while ranking No. 8 nationally in special teams efficiency by ESPN. In 2011, placekicker Andre Heidari made Freshman All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team, and his 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and the best among freshmen kickers). Tight end-fullback Rhett Ellison made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams performer.

In 2010, USC's special teams blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and made first downs on a fake punt and fake field goal. Troy was seventh nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking. USC ranked high nationally in punt returns (seventh at 14.6) and kickoff returns (17th at 24.5) with wide receiver Ronald Johnson placing 12th nationally in punt returns (14.2). Wide receiver Robert Woods made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner. Johnson was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

In 13 years (1997-2009) at Fresno State, Baxter was the associate head coach and special teams coach in addition to handling either the tight ends (1997-2001, 2003, 2009) or wide receivers (2002, 2004-2008).

Baxter turned the Bulldogs' special teams into one of the top units in the nation annually. During his time, Fresno State blocked 84 kicks and punts (including a national-best 49 from 2002 through 2009) and scored 39 special teams touchdowns (with 3 safeties). The Bulldogs topped the nation in fewest punt return yards allowed in 2004 and 2005. A.J. Jefferson led the nation in kickoff returns in 2007. Clifton Smith's 189 punt return yards with 2 touchdowns against Weber State in 2005 were Fresno State game records, while his 5 career scoring punt returns also was a school mark. Six of Baxter's Bulldog kickers and punters earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team honors.

During his time at Fresno State, the Bulldogs posted a 100-66 record, played in 10 bowls (1999 Las Vegas, 2000-01-02-03 Silicon Valley, 2004 MPC Computers, 2005 AutoZone Liberty, 2007 Roady's Humanitarian and 2008-09 New Mexico) and won the WAC title in 1999.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

Baxter began his coaching career at his alma mater, Loras College, where he served for 5 seasons (1981-85) as a student assistant (working with the running backs) during his undergraduate time.

He then moved on to Iowa State for 2 seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line and special teams before the first of 2 stints at Arizona. He was with the Wildcats in 1988 (as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs and special teams), went to Maine in 1989 for his first full-time job coaching the outside linebackers and special teams when the Black Bears made it to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and returned to Arizona in 1990 and 1991 as the tight ends and special teams coach (the Wildcats played in the 1990 Aloha Bowl). He then was at Maryland for 2 seasons (1992-93) handling the running backs and special teams and Tulane for 3 years (1994-96) in charge of the tight ends and special teams before going to Fresno State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Loras in 1985 and then his master's in higher education from Iowa State in 1987.

He prepped at Loyola Academy in Chicago (Ill.).

He was born on June 28, 1963. He and his wife, Jill, have 2 daughters, Kelly, 21, and McKenzie, 19. His father-in-law is former Utah and Weber State head coach Ron McBride.

RONNIE BRADFORD
Defensive Backs

Ronnie Bradford, a former 10-year NFL defensive back who has 13 years of coaching experience in the NFL and collegiately, is in his second season as USC's defensive backs coach. He joined the Trojan staff in January of 2016.

In 2016, cornerback Adoree' Jackson won the Thorpe Award, was a consensus All-American first teamer, was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and was an NFL Draft first round pick, while safety Leon McQuay III was an NFL Draft sixth rounder. USC had 14 interceptions, all by defensive backs and limited opponent passers to just a 56.9% completion rate. USC played in the Rose Bowl.

Before coming to USC, Bradford, 46, spent the previous 3 seasons (2013-15) as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech.

In 2015, Louisiana Tech cornerback Bryson Abraham ranked 14th nationally in passes defended and he scored 4 defensive TDs, while the Bulldogs blocked 4 kicks, seventh best in the nation, and played in the New Orleans Bowl. In 2014, Louisiana Tech ranked first nationally in interceptions with 26 and 26th in pass efficiency defense, and also blocked 3 kicks and was 12th in kickoff returns while winning the Conference USA West Division and the Heart of Dallas Bowl. In 2013, the Bulldogs were 13th in interceptions with 18 and 30th in pass efficiency defense while also ranking seventh in punt return defense.

Bradford was the safeties coach for Memphis in 2011.

He was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2010. The Golden Bears were 13th nationally in sacks, 18th in total defense and 21st in pass defense.

Before coaching in college, Bradford spent 7 years as an NFL assistant, the first 6 (2003-08) with the Denver Broncos and 2009 with the Kansas City Chiefs.

With the Broncos, he was a special teams assistant in 2003, the special teams coach in 2004 through 2006, a defensive backs assistant in 2007 and the defensive backs coach in 2008. As the special teams coach, he worked with kicker Jason Elam, who had the NFL's third most field goals and points from 2003-06, and as the defensive backs coach, he coached NFL standouts Champ Bailey and Dre Bly.

He was a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009.

Bradford played 10 seasons in the NFL as a defensive back with the Broncos (1993-95), Arizona Cardinals (1996), Atlanta Falcons (1997-2001) and Minnesota Vikings (2002). In his career, he played in 136 games (99 starts), getting 523 tackles, 14 interceptions (with 1 TD), 70 pass deflections, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. He intercepted a pass in Super Bowl XXXIII as a member of the 1998 NFC titlist Falcons.

Bradford was 4-year letterman cornerback (1989-92) at Colorado, starting for 2 seasons and being named All-Big 8 first team as a 1992 senior. As a sophomore, he was a member of the Buffaloes' 1990 national championship team and his block of Notre Dame's PAT attempt in the final minutes of the Orange Bowl preserved CU's 10-9 victory.

He graduated from Colorado in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in communication.

He prepped at Adams City High in Commerce City (Colo.).

He was born Oct. 1, 1970. He and his wife, Trish, have 3 children: Tony, Kaylee and Justin.

NEIL CALLAWAY
Offensive Line

Neil Callaway, who has 38 years of coaching experience, including a stint as the head coach at Alabama Birmingham and stops as the offensive line coach with 3 Southeastern Conference teams, is in his second season as USC's offensive line coach. He joined the USC staff in January of 2016.

In 2016, tackles Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler were All-American first teamers and All-Pac-12 first teamers (Banner also was a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award and was an NFL Draft fourth rounder). The USC offensive line was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award. USC ranked sixth nationally in sacks allowed (0.9) and seventh in tackles for loss allowed (4.4). USC played in the Rose Bowl.

Before coming to USC, Callaway spent the previous 3 seasons (2013-15) as the offensive line coach at Western Kentucky. Under Callaway, WKU's offensive line blocked for the school's season passing and rushing record setters. In 2015, the line ranked 13th nationally in sacks allowed (1.1) and lineman Forrest Lamp made the All-Conference USA first team. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (first at 177.4), scoring (third at 44.3), passing (fourth at 372.2), first downs (eighth at 349) and total yards (ninth at 526.4). The Conference USA champions went 12-2 in 2015 (tying a school wins record) and were ranked 24th by AP after posting a victory in the Miami Beach Bowl. In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351). The 2013 Hilltopper offense set school records for average total yards (458.5), passing yards (261.7) and rushing yards (196.8).

Prior to arriving at Western Kentucky, Callaway was UAB's head coach for 5 years (2007-11), going 18-42. His 2009 squad's offense was seventh nationally in rushing, while the 2010 Blazers were in the national Top 30 in passing offense and total offense.

From 2001 to 2006, he was the offensive coordinator at Georgia as the Bulldogs posted 61 victories, a pair of SEC titles, 3 SEC East titles, 4 bowl wins and 4 Top 4 poll finishes. The 2002 Georgia squad led the SEC in scoring offense and passing efficiency, while the 2005 offense was second in scoring. Six of Callaway's Bulldog offensive linemen earned All-SEC honors, including 2005 All-American Max Jean-Gilles.

Before Georgia, Callaway was the offensive line coach at Alabama, his alma mater, for 4 years (1997 to 2000), while also serving as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator the final 3 seasons. Alabama won an SEC title during his time there.

He was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Houston under Kim Helton for 4 seasons (1993-96). The Cougars' offensive line allowed just 19.5 sacks per season during his Callaway's tenure, including just 10 in 1996. Houston won the inaugural Conference USA championship in 1996.

Callaway, 61, was the offensive line coach at Auburn for 12 years (1981-92), helping the Tigers to 4 SEC championships. He coached 4 All-American first team linemen and 14 All-SEC players, including Chris Samuels, the No. 3 pick of the 2000 NFL Draft.

He began his coaching career as a part-time assistant coach at East Carolina in 1978 and 1979, then was a graduate assistant at Wyoming in 1980.

Callaway was a lineman and linebacker at Alabama (1974-77) under coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, winning 3 conference titles during his playing days and being named the team's Most Outstanding Athlete in 1977. He received his bachelor's degree in business management from Alabama in 1978.

He prepped at Central High in Macon (Ga.). He was inducted into the Macon (Ga.) Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

He was born on Nov. 15, 1955. He and his wife, Karen, have three children, Russ, Kate and Clay.

TYSON HELTON
Quarterbacks
Pass Game Coordinator

Tyson Helton, the younger brother of USC head coach Clay Helton, is in his second season as USC's quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator. He joined the USC staff in January of 2016.

In 2016, he was named the FootballScoop Quarterbacks Coach of the Year. USC was ninth nationally in completion percentage (65.7) and 25th in both passing efficiency (149.6) and pass offense (276.4). Quarterback Sam Darnold won the Archie Griffin Award, was a Manning Award finalist, was the Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year and was the Rose Bowl MVP while completing 67.2% of his passes and throwing 31 TDs.

Before coming to USC, he spent the previous 2 years (2014-15) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Kentucky. WKU broke more than two dozen school offensive records under Helton, including the points scored record in each of his 2 years. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (first at 177.4), scoring (third at 44.3), passing (fourth at 372.2), first downs (eighth at 349) and total yards (ninth at 526.4). The Conference USA champions went 12-2 in 2015 (tying a school wins record) and were ranked 24th by AP after posting a victory in the Miami Beach Bowl. In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351).

Helton, 39, was among 4 finalists for the 2015 FootballScoop.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year Award. He coached quarterback Brandon Doughty to back-to-back Conference USA MVP honors as he threw 97 touchdown passes in 2014 and 2015 (the most in NCAA history in consecutive seasons). Doughty led the nation in 2015 in completion percentage (71.9%), passing TDs (48), passing yards (5,055) and points responsible for (304) while ranking second in passing efficiency (176.5). That came off a 2014 campaign in which he threw for national bests of 4,830 yards and 49 TDs while winning the Sammy Baugh Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus as the nation's top quarterback. Hilltopper wide receiver Taywan Taylor ranked second in the nation in 2015 in receiving TDs (17) and was third in receiving yards (1,467), both school season records as was his 86 receptions. Fellow receiver Jared Dangerfield had 82 catches in 2015, second most in school history.

Helton came to Western Kentucky after spending 2013 as Cincinnati's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Cincinnati set a school season total offense record (6,137 yards) as Helton coached tight end Blake Annen and kick returner Ralph David Abernathy IV to All-American Athletic Conference first team honors.

He spent the previous 6 seasons (2007-12) at Alabama Birmingham, the first 5 years as the quarterbacks coach and then 2012 coaching the running backs and serving as the recruiting coordinator. Under Helton's guidance, Joe Webb developed into one of the most prolific quarterbacks in NCAA history. In 2009, when he finished sixth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency, Webb became the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. The 2009 and 2010 Blazer offenses produced the two highest total offense yardage totals in UAB history, both topping 5,000 yards. Then in 2012, running back Darrin Reaves was an All-Conference USA first teamer as he ran for 1,037 yards and a school-record 13 scores.

Helton coached tight ends and special teams at Memphis for 3 years (2004-06). Tigers' kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who established the school career scoring record, was Conference USA's Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005 and played in the NFL.

Helton began his coaching career at Hawaii for 4 years (2000-03), the first year as a graduate assistant working with the special teams and the final 3 seasons as the special teams coach. In 2001, his first as a full-time coach, the Warriors led the nation in kickoff return yardage and broke the NCAA record for season kickoff return average. Return specialist Chad Owens set NCAA game records for most combined return yardage and most kickoff return yardage and tied an NCAA record with 2 scoring kick returns in a game.

Helton played quarterback at Houston (1996-99), where he earned a bachelor's degree in business in 1999, after starring at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.). His father, Kim, was the head coach at Houston during Tyson's tenure.

He was born on June 20, 1977. He and his wife, April, have 2 daughters, Shelby Grace, 13, and Presley, 11, and 7-year-old twin boys, Cole and Clay. Besides being Houston's head coach (1993-99), his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and CFL (Toronto Argonauts).

TEE MARTIN
Offensive Coordinator

Tee Martin, the quarterback for Tennessee's 1998 national championship team who then played in the NFL, is in his sixth year (2012-17) at USC as the wide receivers coach. He added the pass game coordinator duties in 2014. He was named the offensive coordinator at the end of the 2015 season. He joined the USC staff in February of 2012.

In 2016, USC was 20th nationally in total offense (477.1), as well as 11th in third down conversions (.478), 15th in first downs (322) and 25th in pass offense (276.4). USC had at least 400 yards of total offense in 11 games (including 500-plus 7 times) and scored at least 35 points in 8 games. Wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster moved up to fourth on USC's career receptions list and was an NFL Draft second rounder. USC played in the Rose Bowl.

In 2015, Smith-Schuster was named All-Pac-12 first team. USC played in the 2015 Holiday Bowl. In 2015, he was named among the nation's Top 10 recruiters by Sports Illustrated and Sporting News, as well as the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com.

In 2014, wide receiver Nelson Agholor made All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team while catching 104 passes (third most in USC history) and he was a NFL draft first round selection, while Smith-Schuster was a Freshman All-American first teamer. USC was 15th nationally in passing offense. He was named the 2014 Scout.com Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, wide receiver Marqise Lee became USC's career receiving yardage leader and was an NFL second round pick. USC played in the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl.

In 2012, Lee won the Biletnikoff Award and was an All-American first teamer, plus he was a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Hornung Award and was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year as he set Pac-12 season records for receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,680) while leading the Pac-12 in receptions, receiving yards, all-purpose yards and kickoff returns. Wide receiver Robert Woods was a second round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Martin, 38, spent the previous 2 years (2010-11) as the wide receivers coach at Kentucky. He also served as the passing game coordinator in 2011. In 2010, Wildcat wide receiver Randall Cobb was an All-American first teamer and NFL second round selection, while wide receiver Chris Matthews tied for the Southeastern Conference lead in touchdown catches. Kentucky played in the BBVA Compass Bowl that season.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in 2006, when the Maroon Tigers had the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense.

He then was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Cobb High in Kennesaw (Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAAA ranks, and the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta (Ga.) High in 2008.

He spent 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at New Mexico.

Martin also was a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including 30-plus Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

In 2007 and 2008, he also was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show, "Talking Football," and he did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

He prepped at Williamson High in Mobile (Ala.) and was named to the Mobile Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

He was a 4-year (1996-99) letterman quarterback at Tennessee. After serving as Peyton Manning's backup his first 2 years, he led the Volunteers to a 13-0 record in 1998, capped by the national championship following a Fiesta Bowl win over Florida State. He led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl in 1999 and was named All-SEC first team. He set NCAA game (since-tied 23 versus South Carolina) and season (since-broken 24) records for consecutive completions in 1998.

He was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a 6-year pro career. After 2 seasons (2000-01) with the Steelers (Pittsburgh won the 2001 AFC Central Division title), he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports management in 2004 from the U.S. Sports Academy (through Tennessee).

He was born on July 25, 1978. His real first name is Tamaurice. He and his wife, Toya, have 2 sons, Kaden, 13, and Cannon, 5, and 17-year-old twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari (a freshman wide receiver at Clemson). His wife is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

DELAND McCULLOUGH
Run Game Coordinator

Deland McCullough, a former college and pro running back who spent the past 6 years coaching the position at Indiana, is in his first season as USC's running backs coach and run game coordinator. He joined the Trojan staff in March of 2017.

McCullough, 44, also served as the Hoosiers' special teams coordinator-return units in 2016.

During his tenure (2011-16) at Indiana, the Hoosiers broke 19 school rushing records, including most season rushing yards (3,163) and rushing yards per game (263.6) in 2014. Hoosier running backs lost just 1 fumble in 272 rushes in 2011 and just 4 fumbles over the 2015 and 2016 seasons. He was named the 2014 BTN.com Big Ten Running Backs Coach of the Year. He was chosen to participate in the 2016 NCAA Champion Forum professional development program. The Hoosiers played in the 2015 Pinstripe Bowl and 2016 Foster Farms Bowl.

At Indiana, he tutored 3 future NFL running backs in Stephen Houston, Tevin Coleman (who scored a touchdown in Super Bowl LI) and Jordan Howard. Coleman (2015) and Howard (2016) became the first Indiana running backs to be drafted in consecutive years since 1990-92. In 2015, All-Big Ten first team honoree Howard (1,213) and Devine Redding (1,012) each eclipsed 1,000 yards, a first in program history, and Redding did so again in 2016 (1,122) to become the first Hoosier to accomplish that since 1990-91. In 2014, Coleman was a unanimous All-American, All-Big Ten first teamer and Doak Walker Award finalist when he finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and ran for a school record 2,036 yards.

McCullough came to Indiana after spending 2010 as an offensive and special teams intern at his alma mater, Miami (Ohio). The RedHawks captured the Mid-American Conference championship that season and won the GoDaddy.com Bowl. After the season, he was promoted to Miami's running backs coach, but left soon after for Indiana.

Before Miami, McCullough worked in education at the high school level as a teacher, head football coach, athletic director and certified principal. He was the head coach at Harmony Community School in Cincinnati (Ohio) for 4 seasons (2001-04).

He set the MAC and Miami career records for rushing yards (4,368) and attempts (949) during his 4-year (1992-95) playing career. He was the first RedHawk to lead the team in rushing 4 years, topping the 1,000-yard mark on three occasions, and first to post back-to-back 200-yard rushing performances. He twice (1992 and 1995) won All-MAC first team honors (he was a second teamer in 1994). He was the first Miami player to earn MAC Freshman of the Year acclaim (1992) and was later a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was an All-American third teamer in 1995. He was inducted into the Miami Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Miami in 1996.

He played professionally with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals (1996-97) and Philadelphia Eagles (1997), the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1998-99) and the XFL's Chicago Enforcers (2001).

He prepped at Campbell (Ohio) High.

He was born on Dec. 1, 1972. He and his wife, Darnell, have four sons, Deland Jr., 17, Dasan, 14, Daeh, 13, and Diem, 2.

JOHNNY NANSEN
Assistant Head Coach
Linebackers
Recruiting Coordinator

Johnny Nansen is in his fourth year (2014-17) at USC, serving in 2016 as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. He also has been the assistant head coach since his arrival at Troy in December of 2013. He was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator his first 2 seasons (2014-15) at USC.

In 2016, linebacker Cameron Smith was a Sophomore All-American and led USC in tackles. USC played in the Rose Bowl.

In 2015, tailbacks Ronald Jones II and Justin Davis each rushed for more than 900 yards, while Jones set the USC freshman season rushing record and became just the second true freshman to lead USC in season rushing. USC played in the 2015 Holiday Bowl.

In 2014, tailback Javorius Allen made All-Pac-12 first team while rushing for 1,489 yards (the most by a Trojan since 2005) and he was an NFL fourth round draft pick. USC's special teams returned 2 punts and 2 kickoffs for touchdowns. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He was at Washington the previous 5 seasons (2009-13) in a variety of roles. He was the special teams coordinator all 5 years and recruiting coordinator the first 4 years. He doubled as the defensive line coach the first 3 seasons and as the running backs coach in 2013. He also was the assistant head coach the past 2 seasons.

In 2013, the Huskies were in the national Top 20 in rushing offense, as Doak Walker Award finalist and NFL second round pick Bishop Sankey was among the nation's rushing leaders. In 2011, UW ranked No. 7 in the nation in net punting and No. 21 in punt return defense. He mentored NFL draft pick Alameda Ta'amu on the defensive line. In 2010, his special teams featured school record-setting punter Kiel Rasp. In 2009, Nansen coached UW defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim, an NFL draftee who finished his career with a school-record 30 sacks. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl, 2011 Alamo Bowl, 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

The 43-year-old Nansen came to UW after having spent 5 seasons (2004-08) at Idaho, where he worked with the linebackers the first 3 years, defensive line the final 2 years and special teams each season.

He began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Cabrillo High in Long Beach (Calif.) in 1998. He then was a graduate assistant at Louisville in 1999, working with the defensive line as the Cardinals earned a berth in the Humanitarian Bowl, before spending the 2000 season at Montana State as the running backs coach and 3 years (2001-03) at Idaho State, the first 2 years as the cornerbacks coach (the Bengals won the Big Sky title in 2002) and the last as the secondary coach.

Nansen was a 3-year (1994-96) letterman linebacker at Washington State. The Cougars played in the 1994 Alamo Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration there in 1997.

He was a standout quarterback at Long Beach (Calif.) Jordan High.

He was born on Feb. 28, 1974. He and his wife, Hale, have 2 daughters, Makena Lei, 11, and Kealie Lei, 9, and a son, Johnny Jr., 5.

CLANCY PENDERGAST
Defensive Coordinator

Clancy Pendergast, who has coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and in college since the mid-2000s and is known for his aggressive defenses that use creative schemes to create pressure, is in his second season back at USC as the defensive coordinator. He returned to USC in January of 2016 after spending a season with the San Francisco 49ers.

This is the third stint at USC for Pendergast, who most recently was at Troy in 2013 and molded the Trojan defense into one of the nation's best that season. He has 25 years of coaching experience, including 16 in the NFL.

In 2016, USC held 6 opponents to their season low in points and allowed foes just 50 points in the first quarter (and only 121 in the first half). Opponents averaged just 367.2 yards of total offense and the Trojans had 14 interceptions. USC played in the Rose Bowl.

Pendergast, 49, was the 49ers' linebackers coach in 2015. He tutored Pro Bowl linebacker NaVorro Bowman, the NFL's 2015 tackle leader.

Pendergast was USC's defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2013. That year, he helped the Trojan defense rank in the national Top 25 in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks, interceptions, red zone scoring defense, third down conversion defense and fourth down conversion defense. Safety Su'a Cravens was a Freshman All-American first team pick.

He spent the previous 3 years (2010-12) as the defensive coordinator at California. The Golden Bears led the conference in total defense, pass defense and fewest first downs allowed in each of his first 2 seasons while producing 9 NFL players, including first rounder Cameron Jordan, and 3 All-Conference first teamers, including 2011 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Mychal Kendricks.

In 2010, Cal topped the Pac-10 in sacks and was in the league's top 5 in scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and opponent third down conversions while holding 4 opponents to 10 or less points (the most by a Golden Bear defense since 1968) and 3 foes to under 200 total yards.

In 2011, Cal was in the Pac-12's top 3 in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks and tackles for loss while notching 23 turnovers and 34 sacks and holding 5 teams under 70 rushing yards. The Golden Bears played in the Holiday Bowl.

His young 2012 Cal defense, with only 5 returning starters, held the wide-open offenses of UCLA and Washington State to just 17 points each.

Pendergast went to Cal after 6 seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Arizona Cardinals (2004-08), including when the Cardinals won the 2008 NFC title to earn a berth in Super Bowl XLIII, and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). His squads had 176 takeaways during those 6 years.

In his 5 seasons with Arizona, his defense finished 20th or better in the final NFL rankings 37 times in categories such as points allowed, total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed, passing yards allowed, yards allowed per play, opponents third down percentage, sacks, interceptions and fumbles recovered.

Cardinal linemen Bertrand Berry and Darnell Dockett were Pro Bowlers in his defense. He also worked with Arizona's secondary, coaching safety Adrian Wilson to a pair of Pro Bowls.

In 2004, Arizona was 12th in the NFL in total defense and scoring defense, as well as in the top 5 in third down defense and fumble recoveries, and it forced 30 turnovers. Linebacker Karlos Dansby was an All-Rookie honoree.

His 2005 unit was in the NFL's top 10 in total defense, third down efficiency, first downs allowed and fumble recoveries, while his 2006 defense forced 33 turnovers, the most by the Cardinals since 1998 and tied for fifth in the NFL that year.

In 2007, Arizona was ninth in the NFL in run defense and set a modern-day NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to minus 18 rushing yards. Its 6 scoring interception returns and 551 interception return yards that season were franchise records as the Cardinals tied for 10th in the NFL in interceptions.

In 2008, Arizona tied for fifth in the league with 30 takeaways, including forcing 13 turnovers during its playoff run.

In 2009 with Kansas City, a young Chiefs defense had 28 takeaways and 22 sacks. The unit improved significantly in sacks, rushing touchdowns allowed and third down conversions from the previous year.

Pendergast began his NFL coaching career in 1995 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Houston Oilers.

He then spent 7 seasons (1996-2002) with the Dallas Cowboys as part of staffs that won 2 NFC East titles (1996 and 1998) and made 3 NFC playoff appearances (1996, 1998-99). He was a defensive assistant and quality control coach his first 4 seasons (1996-99), then oversaw Dallas' nickel defense packages in 2000 before coaching the defensive backs in his final 2 campaigns (2001-02). The Cowboys were third in the NFL in pass defense in 2000 and 2001. He tutored safety Roy Williams, who was an All-Rookie selection in 2002, as well as All-Pro and 3-time Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson.

He then was the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2003.

Pendergast started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 1991 before becoming a USC defensive assistant in 1992 under head coach Larry Smith. He then was a graduate assistant/tight ends at Oklahoma for 2 seasons (1993-94). Each of those college teams played in a bowl, as Mississippi State qualified for the Liberty Bowl, USC for the Freedom Bowl and Oklahoma for the John Hancock and Copper Bowls.

He prepped at Tolleson (Ariz.) High, then received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Arizona in 1990.

Born on Nov. 29, 1967, he is single.

KENECHI UDEZE
Defensive Line

Former USC All-American defensive end Kenechi Udeze, a first round NFL Draft pick and 4-year NFL starter whose inspirational story saw him overcome cancer that ended his playing days and led to a career in coaching, is in his second season as USC's defensive line coach. He was named to the fulltime position in January of 2016.

In 2016, USC allowed opponents to average for just 139.6 yards rushing. Defensive tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu was the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP and was an NFL Draft seventh round pick. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com following the 2017 signing day.

Udeze, 33, spent the 2015 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at USC. He also assisted in the Trojan football office and for 3 weeks leading up to the Holiday Bowl he served as the team's defensive line coach.

Prior to USC's 2015 season, he served an NFL minority coaching fellowship with the Buffalo Bills during their fall camp and pre-season, working with the defensive line.

He began his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington for 3 years (2009-11), where he also worked with the defensive line. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl and 2011 Alamo Bowl.

In 2012, he was the assistant defensive line coach with the Seattle Seahawks as the team advanced to the NFC playoffs, then in 2013 he was with the Minnesota Vikings during fall camp and the pre-season as part of an NFL minority coaching fellowship (he was involved with the defensive line).

He was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Pittsburgh in 2014, helping with the defensive line (the Panthers played in the Armed Forces Bowl).

Udeze was a 3-year (2001-03) starting defensive end at USC, recording 135 tackles, 51 tackles for loss, 28 sacks, an NCAA record-tying 14 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries in his career.

As a junior in 2003 on USC's national championship team, he was a consensus All-American first teamer (Troy's first All-American first team defensive end since Tim Ryan in 1989), as well as a Hendricks Award finalist, the Washington D.C. Pigskin Club National Defensive Player of the Year, an All-Pac-10 first team selection and USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year. That season, he led the nation in sacks (16.5 for a 1.3 average), was fourth in tackles for loss (26 for a 2.0 average) and was ninth in forced fumbles (5 for a 0.4 average), the only player in the nation in the Top 9 in each of those categories. His 26 tackles for loss and 16.5 sacks in 2003 were the most by a Trojan defensive lineman since Ryan in 1989 and he was the first Trojan with double digits in sacks since 1992 (Willie McGinest). He also had 56 tackles, 5 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery (for a touchdown), 3 deflections and a blocked field goal in 2003.

After redshirting in 2000, Udeze was a Freshman All-American second team pick in 2001 when he had 35 tackles, 9 tackles for loss, 4 sacks, a fumble recovery, 3 forced fumbles and a deflection as USC played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

As a sophomore in 2002, he made All-Pac-10 second team and was USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year when he had 44 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks, a school record 6 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, an interception and a blocked field goal (the Trojans won the 2003 Orange Bowl and finished ranked fourth nationally).

He declared for the NFL Draft after his 2003 junior season and was a first round selection (20th overall pick) by the Vikings in 2004. He started 47 of 51 games in his 4 years (2004-07) with the Vikings, compiling 117 tackles, 11 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles.

As a rookie in 2004, he recorded 36 tackles, 5 sacks, a forced fumble and a deflection while starting 15 games for the Vikings playoff squad. He suffered a knee cartilage injury in the third game of 2005, sidelining him for the season after 2 starts. He started 15 times in 2006, getting 29 tackles, then had 47 tackles, 5 sacks a deflection and forced fumble with another 15 starts in 2007.

He was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia (a blood cancer) in 2008 and placed on injured reserve that season. He received chemotherapy treatments and had a bone marrow transplant from his brother. He was the Vikings' recipient of the 2008 NFL Ed Block Courage Award, as voted by his teammates. After attempting to return to the playing field in 2009 but struggling with peripheral neuropathy in his feet as a result of chemotherapy, Udeze retired from the NFL that summer. His leukemia is in remission.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from USC in 2010.

He was a prep All-American lineman at Verbum Dei High in Los Angeles (Calif.), where he also was a shot putter on the track team.

He was born on March 5, 1983. His first name means "God's love will always be with me" in Nigerian. His nickname as a USC player was "BKU," which stood for Big Kenechi Udeze (he enrolled at USC weighing 375 pounds, but left at 275). He has been involved with charities that raise money for cancer research. His wife's name is Katherine. He has a daughter, Bailey, 9.

BRETT ARCE
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Brett Arce is in his second season (2016-17) as a graduate assistant at USC. He is working with the defensive backs.

In 2016, cornerback Adoree' Jackson won the Thorpe Award, was a consensus All-American first teamer, was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and was an NFL Draft first round pick, while safety Leon McQuay III was an NFL Draft sixth rounder. USC had 14 interceptions, all by defensive backs and limited opponent passers to just a 56.9% completion rate. USC played in the Rose Bowl.

He spent the previous 2 years (2014-15) as an assistant coach at Stony Brook, his alma mater. He was the wide receivers coach in 2014 and the tight ends coach in 2015.

In 2013, he was an assistant football and men's basketball coach at West Hills Community College in Coalinga (Calif.), where he also once played. He worked with the offensive line as a football assistant. He also taught history as an adjunct professor.

Arce, 27, was a 3-year (2010-12) starting tight end at Stony Brook. He had 14 catches in his career for 185 yards (13.2 avg) with 1 TD. He had 6 receptions as both a 2010 sophomore (for 73 yards) and a 2011 junior (99 yards), then he added 2 catches for 13 yards (with a 9-yard TD) as a 2012 senior.

He spent the 2008 season as a freshman tight end at West Hills CC, where he earned an associate's degree in 2009.

He prepped at Coalinga (Calif.) High, where he was All-State first team, All-Fresno first team and All-Conference first team as a 2006 senior 2-way lineman. He also played basketball and baseball at Coalinga.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history in 2011 and a master's degree in liberal arts in 2012, both from Stony Brook. He is working on a master's degree in communication management at USC.

He was born on July 24, 1989. He is single. His father, Mark, is the athletic director and head men's basketball coach at West Hills after previously serving as an assistant coach at Utah State and Cal State Bakersfield and the head coach at Bakersfield Junior College.

AUSTIN CLARK
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Clark is in his second season (2016-17) as a graduate assistant at USC. He is working with the defensive line.

In 2016, USC allowed opponents to average for just 139.6 yards rushing. Defensive tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu was the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP and was an NFL Draft seventh rounder.

He was a recruiting assistant with California's football program in 2015.

Clark, 26, spent 6 years (2009-14) as a defensive tackle at California, enduring an injury-plagued career. As a 2014 sixth-year senior starter, he had 22 tackles and made All-Pac-12 honorable mention while also winning Cal's Joe Roth Award (awarded to the player who best exemplifies courage, sportsmanship and attitude). He missed 2014 spring practice because of an injury.

He redshirted as a first-year freshman at Cal in 2009, played in 3 games as a redshirt freshman in 2010 and in 12 games off the bench as a 2011 sophomore. He was injured for most of his 2012 junior season, seeing action in only 2 games as a reserve, then he did not play in 2013 after he was granted a medical redshirt due to injury. Current USC defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast held a similar role at Cal during Clark's 2010 through 2012 seasons.

He received his bachelor's degree in American studies from California in 2014. He is working on a master's degree in communication management from USC.

He prepped at Plant High in Tampa (Fla.), where he helped his team to the 2008 state championship as a senior. He made 219 tackles as a junior and senior.

He was born on Aug. 3, 1990. He is single. His sister, Adrienne, is an assistant softball coach at Connecticut after previously serving as an assistant at Delaware, Columbia and her alma mater Hofstra, where she starred as a pitcher (she once went 31.0 consecutive innings in the NCAA tourney without allowing a run, second most in NCAA history).

(95) KENNY BIGELOW JR.
Defensive Tackle
6-3, 300, Sr.*/Sr.
Elkton, MD (Eastern Christian Academy)

2017: Bigelow, whose USC career has been hampered by knee injuries, will look to rebound from a 2016 injury and be a significant contributor at defensive tackle as a senior in 2017. He was limited in 2017 spring practice while recuperating from the knee injury.

2016: Bigelow was set to compete for a starting defensive tackle spot as a junior in 2016, but he tore ligaments in his right knee in 2016 spring practice and was sidelined for the 2016 season while recovering.

2015: After missing the previous 2 seasons while redshirting and then recuperating from an injury, Bigelow saw action as a backup defensive tackle in 13 games (all but UCLA) as a sophomore in 2015. Overall in 2015, he had 10 tackles, including 3 sacks for minus 19 yards, plus a deflection. He had 3 tackles (with a sack) against Arkansas State, 2 stops each versus Arizona State (with a sack), Utah and Colorado (with a sack) and 1 versus Wisconsin. He was limited in 2015 spring practice while recuperating from a 2014 knee injury.

2014: Bigelow, who was set to push for key playing time at nose tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2014, instead was sidelined all season after tearing knee ligaments a month prior to 2014 fall camp.

2013: Bigelow, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100 and Scout 100 as a senior defensive lineman and tight end at Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton (Md.), which played an abbreviated 3-game schedule.

As a junior in 2011 at Red Lion Christian Academy in Bear (Del.), he made ESPNHS.com Underclass All-American first team and Max Preps Junior All-American second team while posting 40 tackles and 20 sacks.

As a 2010 sophomore, he had 39 tackles, 5 sacks and 1 fumble recovery on defense (he also played linebacker) and 6 receptions for 70 yards (11.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense.

(80) DEONTAY BURNETT
Wide Receiver
6-0, 170, Jr./Jr.
Compton, CA (Serra HS)

CAREER: He has 66 catches for 783 yards (11.9 avg) with 7 TDs in his career, along with 31 yards on 3 carries (10.3 avg), 4 punt returns for 26 yards (6.5 avg) and 2 tackles. He has 5 career starts.

2017: Burnett, who opened eyes with his impressive showing throughout 2016, figures to earn a starting wide receiver role as a junior in 2017.

2016: The elusive Burnett was called upon often as a promising and sure-handed wide receiver as a sophomore in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games (and starting the last 5 as a third wideout), he had 56 catches (second on USC) for 622 yards (11.1 avg) with 7 TDs, as well as 3 carries for 31 yards (10.3 avg), 4 punt returns for 26 yards (6.5 avg) and 2 tackles. He made the 2016 AP All-Bowl Team first team, ESPN All-Bowl Team first team and ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team.

Burnett had 4 receptions for 26 yards and a 15-yard punt return against Alabama, 3 catches for 24 yards (with a 13-yard TD) and a 12-yard rush against Utah State and 3 receptions for 41 yards at Stanford. He had 7 catches for 93 yards against Arizona State, then 5 for 34 yards against Colorado, an 11-yard catch at Arizona and a 13-yard TD catch and a 15-yard rush against California. Against Oregon, Burnett had a game-high and career-best 7 catches for 87 yards (with a 2-yard TD) and he had a tackle. He had 4 grabs for 67 yards at Washington, 3 catches for 28 yards, a 4-yard rush and a tackle at UCLA and 5 catches for 34 yards against Notre Dame. Against Penn State, he caught 13 passes for 164 yards with a Rose Bowl record-tying 3 TDs (all career bests), including scores of 26, 3 and 27 yards (the last TD tied the game with 1:20 to play); the 13 receptions were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl.

2015: He was a reserve wide receiver as a first-year freshman at USC in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 12 games (all but Arkansas State and Stanford), he caught 10 passes for 161 yards (16.1 average). He had a 10-yard catch against Idaho, then 3 receptions for 53 yards at Notre Dame, 3 grabs for 82 yards at California, a catch for minus 6 yards against Arizona, a 9-yard reception versus UCLA and a 13-yard catch versus Wisconsin. He enrolled at USC in the fall of 2015 and was awarded a scholarship by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Mission League first team as a senior wide receiver at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He had 27 receptions for 545 yards (20.2 avg) with 5 TDs in 2014.

As a junior in 2013, he had 12 catches for 186 yards (15.5 avg) with 2 TDs.

He completed 8-of-11 passes (72.7%) for 65 yards with 1 TD and ran for 25 yards on 6 carries (4.2 avg) as a 2012 sophomore. Current Trojans Olajuwon Tucker, Jalen Greene, Jalen Jones, Rasheem Green, John Houston Jr., Oluwole Betiku, C.J. Pollard and Christian Herrera also prepped at Serra.

(14) SAM DARNOLD
Quarterback
6-4, 220, So.*/Jr.
Capistrano Beach, CA (San Clemente HS)

2017: The poised-beyond-his-years Darnold, known for his quick release, accuracy, mobility and heady play, enters his second season as USC's starting quarterback as just a sophomore in 2017. He is a leading Heisman Trophy contender in 2017 after earning national accolades in his 2016 rookie showing.

2016: Darnold proved to be among the top quarterbacks in the nation as just a redshirt freshman in 2016. His insertion into the starting lineup in the fourth game of 2016 gave the USC offense a spark as the Trojans won the final 9 games of the season. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games and starting the last 10, he completed 246-of-366 passes (67.2%) for 3,086 yards with 31 TDs and 9 interceptions, plus 62 carries for 250 yards (4.0 avg) with 2 TDs and 3 tackles.

He won the 2016 Archie Griffin Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus (given to the nation's season-long most valuable player after the bowls) and was among 10 finalists for the 2016 Manning Award and 18 semifinalists for the O'Brien Award, both awarded to the nation's top quarterback. He was the 2016 Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year, made Football Writers Freshman All-American first team and Campus

Insiders Freshman All-American second team and was All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He made the 2016 AP All-Bowl Team first team and ESPN Pac-12 All-Bowl Team first team. He won USC's 2016 Most Inspirational Player Award and Bob Chandler Award (underclassman with outstanding athletic ability, academic achievement and character).

He is the only USC quarterback in history to have back-to-back 5 passing TD games (Arizona and California in 2016). He threw multiple TD passes in 9 straight games, the most by a Trojan since Matt Leinart's 15 in 2003-04. He was ninth nationally in passing efficiency (161.1, second in Pac-12), 10th in completion percentage (.672, second in Pac-12) and 13th in passing TDs (31, fourth in Pac-12). He was second in the nation in ESPN's Total Quarterback Rating (86.8), behind only Oklahoma's Baker Mayfield. In his 10 starts, he threw 29 touchdowns and just 8 interceptions. Among freshmen quarterbacks, he was first nationally in passing efficiency (161.1), completion percentage (.672), TD passes (31) and yards per attempt (8.4). His 31 TDs in 2016 is a USC freshman season record. His 250 rushing yards in 2016 are the most in a season by a USC quarterback since Reggie Perry's 254 in 1991. He already is 15th on USC's career passing list with 246 completions (he also is tied for 10th on Troy's season passing chart with those 246 completions). His 3,336 yards of total offense in 2016 is eighth on USC's season list and 20th on USC's career list.

Playing off the bench against Alabama, he was 4-of-8 for 29 yards and he ran for 9 yards on 3 carries. Against Utah State, he was 5-of-7 for 62 yards with 2 TDs off the bench. At Stanford, he saw late action and was 5-of-7 for 45 yards and an interception. At Utah, he made his first start (just the sixth redshirt freshman to start at quarterback for USC) and hit 18-of-26 passes for 253 yards and he also ran for 41 yards on 9 carries (with an 8-yard TD), the most rushing yards in a game by a USC quarterback since Matt Leinart's 46 in 2004 against Colorado State. He completed 69.7% of his passes (23-of-33) for 352 yards and 3 TDs (all career highs) while starting against Arizona State (he also ran for 8 yards on 3 tries, with a 3-yard TD run) to earn Manning Award Star of the Week honors. Against Colorado, he threw for a career-best 358 yards with 3 TDs on 25-of-37 passing to become the first USC freshman to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games since Todd Marinovich in 1989 did so versus Notre Dame and Stanford (he earned O'Brien Award Great 8 honors), but he also had an interception and lost 2 fumbles (he ran for 22 yards on 8 carries). He threw a USC freshman record 5 TDs at Arizona on 20-of-32 passing and he added 54 yards on 6 carries (the most rushing yards in a game by a USC quarterback since Carson Palmer's 60 against Kansas State in 2001) while playing just the first 3 quarters to earn Rose Bowl Game Pac-12 Player of the Week, O'Brien Award Great 8 and Scout.com Pac-12 Player of the Week honors. For a USC record second consecutive game, he threw 5 touchdowns (also tying his USC freshman game record) as he completed 72.0% of his passes (18-0f-25) for 231 yards against California, but he threw an interception and lost 2 fumbles (and he had 5 rushes for 12 yards). Against Oregon, he hit 70.0% of his passes (28-of-40, both career highs) for 309 yards with 2 TDs but he threw an interception (he also ran for 23 yards on 5 carries). At Washington, he completed 69.7% of his passes (23-of-33) for 287 yards with 2 TDs and 2 interceptions, and also ran for 15 yards on 4 carries to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week, Rose Bowl Game Pac-12 Player of the Week and O'Brien Award Great 8 honors. He completed 25-of-36 passes for 267 yards and 2 TDs (with 2 interceptions) and ran for 27 yards on 9 carries at UCLA. He was 19-of-29 passing for 205 yards and 2 TDs (52 and 2 yards) with no picks against Notre Dame and he also ran for 16 yards on 3 tries. He turned in a legendary performance when he was named the Rose Bowl Offensive Player of the Game against Penn State as he set Rose Bowl records with 5 passing TDs and 473 total yards of offense; he was 33-of-53 passing for 453 yards overall in the game (all were career highs and second most ever in a Rose Bowl and the passing yardage was a USC freshman game record), including 10-of-10 for 135 yards in the fourth quarter as he engineered 2 long touchdowns drives in the final 9 minutes to tie the score.

2015: Darnold redshirted in 2015 as the No. 3 quarterback as a first-year freshman. He was USC's Offensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2014 Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southwest Division Offensive MVP and Orange County Register All-Orange County Offensive Player of the Year as a senior quarterback at San Clemente (Calif.) High as he completed 213-of-314 passes (67.8%) for 2,996 yards with 39 TDs and 8 interceptions and he ran for 785 yards on 125 carries (6.3 avg) with 13 TDs. He set school season records for passing yards, passing TDs, completions and total yards (3,770) in 2014. He twice threw a school-record 5 TDs in a game in 2014. San Clemente advanced to the 2014 CIF Southwest Division championship game (he threw for 204 yards and ran for 181 yards in the game).

He completed 29-of-46 passes (63.0%) for 337 yards with 4 TDs and ran for 322 yards on 35 carries (9.2 avg) with 5 TDs as a 2013 junior before he broke his foot in the third game of the season and was sidelined for the final 8 games.

As a 2012 sophomore, he hit 40-of-60 passes (66.7%) for 411 yards and 3 TDs and ran for 143 yards on 37 carries (3.9 avg) with a TD, plus he caught 9 passes for 153 yards (17.0 avg) with 1 TD and he made 27 tackles (with 2 sacks), an interception and 3 deflections. He went 15-3 as a starter in his 3-year career.

He also played basketball at San Clemente, earning All-League MVP honors as a 2013 sophomore and 2015 senior (he averaged 15 points and 9 rebounds as a senior when he also was All-CIF Division IAA second team and Orange County Register All-Orange County fourth team). He missed most of his 2014 junior season recovering from his broken foot suffered in the football season and then he broke a finger. He also played baseball at San Clemente. He was the Orange County Register Boys Athlete of the Year and the Orange County Athletic Directors Association Orange County Male Athlete of the Year for 2014-15. Current Trojans Jake Russell and Jack Sears also prepped at San Clemente.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC. His father, Mike, played football (guard) at Redlands and his mother, Chris, played volleyball at Long Beach City College. His sister, Franki, played volleyball at Rhode Island (2012-15). His late grandfather, Dick Hammer, played basketball at USC (lettering in 1952 and on the Trojans' 1954 NCAA Final Four team) and was a member of the USA's 1964 Olympic volleyball team, then appeared in films, television (including in "Emergency!") and commercials (including as the Marlboro Man) and also was a captain in the L.A. County Fire Department. His grandmother, Betty Hammer, played volleyball (including training with the U.S. National Team) and softball. His great grandmother, Juanita, was a noted tennis player in Southern California. His uncle, Dan Hammer, played volleyball at Long Beach State (1980-81). His cousin, Allie Hammer, played volleyball at Irvine Valley College (2009-10) and American (2010-11), his cousin, Michele Hammer, played volleyball at Chapman (2012-15) and his cousin, A.J. Hammer, played volleyball at Concordia (2015-17).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SAM DARNOLD

Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN: "On the football field, he is in a different galaxy."

Chris Fowler, ESPN: "Some people are born to do things, right? Some people are put on this earth to do one thing. Sam Darnold is a born quarterback."

Colin Cowherd, FOX: "I think he is the best quarterback I've ever seen at USC."

Kyle Bonagura, ESPN.com: "Darnold is a star, plain and simple... Darnold's poise and ability to create plays when they break down are incredible for any player, but even more so (when he did so as) a freshman... He has the ability to extend plays with his feet, both to buy time to pick out a receiver and to take off and run. He plays more on instinct because he's had less time in the program and because he's simply wired that way."

Legendary ABC announcer Keith Jackson: "He has some good in his gizzard. He's got some athletic ability, and those are the kind of guys who can beat you."

David Lombardi, ESPN.com: "Darnold may well be the best quarterback in the Pac-12; the Trojans have much to be excited about entering 2017...He has a big arm, he's elusive and he hasn't made many mistakes so far."

William Quimby, FanSided: "Darnold is a cool customer, who was 10-for-10 in the fourth quarter alone (in the Rose Bowl). Let the hype begin because he is a skilled, poised, tenacious competitor who will not disappoint as his reputation grows."

Rich Hammond, Orange County Register: "Darnold's on-field decisions suggest intelligence but also a level of instinct that can't be taught."

Penn State head coach James Franklin: "In Sam Darnold, you look at the Aaron Rodgers of the world."

Washington co-offensive coordinator Jimmy Lake: "I really believe this young quarterback is going to be a star in this conference."

UCLA head coach Jim Mora: "I watched him on film obviously, I've seen him on TV, had a lot of respect for him coming into the (UCLA) game, but when you see him in person he's a truly special one. I'll tell you, he reminds me of a younger Tony Romo. He's bigger, but that type of ability and he's smart and he's poised and confident."

USC offensive coordinator Tee Martin: "Sam, he has that quiet confidence and very stern, direct leadership quality that a lot of guys have who win a lot of games."

Former USC wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster: "If you've ever seen Aaron Rodgers throw the ball, it's a fastball. It just goes there. That's what it (Darnold's throw) is."

USC safety Chris Hawkins: "When he's playing like this, I don't think there are too many teams in the country that really want to see us."

Former USC wide receiver Darreus Rogers: "The kid has grown up fast, on and off the field. He has become a natural leader and his instincts on the field are amazing. What more can you ask for?"

Former USC Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback and current NFL star Carson Palmer: "He's a great young quarterback...He's a gamer. When you watch him play, there are so many plays that break down, and all of a sudden he fires a ball to a crossing route or finds a way to get out of a sack and keeps his eyes downfield to throw the touchdown pass. He's just a natural gamer, and guys like that only get better with repetition. Obviously, he's new on the scene and doesn't have a ton of experience, but for him to come on the scene that quickly and have the success he's had, I'm really excited to see the future he is going to have."

(16) DOMINIC DAVIS
Tailback
5-9, 190, Jr./Jr.
Los Angeles, CA (Bishop Alemany HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 201 yards on 37 carries (5.4 avg), 11 receptions for 121 yards (11.0 avg), a 2-yard kickoff return and a tackle.

2017: The speedy Davis, who also has sprinted on USC's track team, will see action again at tailback as a junior in 2017.

2016: Davis was a backup tailback as a sophomore in 2016. Overall in 2016 while seeing action in 9 games (all but Arizona State, Colorado, California), he had 132 yards on 23 carries (5.7 avg) and 4 receptions for 19 yards (4.8 avg). A thigh injury sidelined him for the Arizona State game. He had 5 yards on 2 carries and caught a 6-yard pass against Alabama, then had 8 yards on 3 tries versus Utah State. He had a career-high 89 yards on 7 tries at Arizona (including an 85-yarder, USC's longest run since LaVale Woods went 96 yards against Oregon State in 1996). He had 28 yards on 6 tries and caught 2 passes for 5 yards against Oregon. He caught an 8-yard pass at Washington and had 2 yards on 5 carries against Notre Dame.

2015: Davis served as a backup tailback and wide receiver as a first-year freshman in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in all 14 games, he ran for 69 yards on 14 carries (4.9 avg), caught 7 passes for 102 yards (14.6 avg) and had a 2-yard kickoff return and a tackle. He caught 2 passes for 53 yards plus had a 2-yard run and 2-yard kickoff return against Arkansas State. He ran for 37 yards on 5 tries against Idaho, then had 16 yards on 2 carries against Stanford. He had 1 rush for a loss of a yard and a reception for 23 yards against Washington, then lost 3 yards on his only carry at Notre Dame. He had 3 yards on 2 carries and caught passes for 22 yards versus Utah, then caught a 4-yard pass at California and had 15 yards on 2 carries against UCLA.

TRACK: He also sprinted indoor and outdoor for USC's track team in the spring of 2016.

He had 2016 outdoor bests of 10.65 in the 100 meters and 21.88 in the 200 meters, both while placing sixth at the Cardinal and Gold Challenge. In his other outdoor 100 meter appearances, he was first at the Trojan Invitational in 10.71 and fourth at the UCLA Dual in 10.74, while in his other outdoor 200 meter appearances he was eighth at the Trojan Invitational in 21.91 and fifth at the UCLA Dual in 22.65. He also ran at times on USC's outdoor 400-meter relay team, including leading off the victorious quartet at the UCLA dual (the team clocked 39.89).

Indoor earlier in 2016, he set a USC freshman indoor record in the 60 meters when he went 6.78 in a heat at the MPSF Championships (he was eighth in the MPSF final at 6.85). He also posted indoor 60-meter times of 6.92 for fourth at the UW Indoor Preview and 6.95 for 23rd at the Conference Clash. In the indoor 200 meters, he went 22.30 for 17th at the MPSF Championships and 22.51 for 38th at the Conference Clash.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 Prep Star All-American and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 as a senior running back, wide receiver and cornerback at Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.).

As a 2013 junior, he made All-CIF Pac 5 Division as a running back.

He broke his collarbone as a 2012 sophomore.

He also sprinted for Bishop Alemany's track team, with bests of 10.47 in the 100 meters (10.39 wind-aided) and 21.48 in the 200 meters (21.27 wind-aided). He was fourth in the 100 (10.51) at the 2014 California state meet as a junior and third in the event as a 2015 senior (10.56). Current Trojan Steven Mitchell Jr. also prepped at Bishop Alemany.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

Atlanta, GA (McEachern HS)

CAREER: He has 4 career starts.

2017: Edoga will compete for a starting job at offensive tackle as a junior in 2017.

2016: Edoga was an often-used backup offensive tackle as a sophomore in 2016, able to play on the left or right side. Overall in 2016, he appeared in 9 games (all but Stanford, Utah, California) and started the season's first 2 games (Alabama, Utah State) at left tackle. He missed the Utah game while sick and the California game because of a team rules violation.

2015: Edoga, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2015 after graduating a semester early from high school, served as an often-used backup offensive tackle as a first-year freshman in 2015. Overall in 2015 he appeared in 13 games (all but Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game), even starting at right tackle versus Utah and Wisconsin. He had wrist surgery after the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 Parade All-American first team, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, All-State Class AAAAAA first team and USA Today All-Georgia as a senior offensive tackle at McEachern High in Powder Springs (Ga.).

As a 2013 junior, he made Student Sports Junior All-American first team and All-State Class AAAAAA first team.

(74) NICO FALAH
Center
6-4, 285, Sr.*/Sr.
Hermosa Beach, CA (St. John Bosco HS)

CAREER: He has 13 career starts.

2017: The reliable Falah returns as the starting center as a senior in 2017. He is also able to play offensive tackle.

2016: After seeing action off the bench in the Alabama opener, Falah started the final 12 games at center as a junior in 2016 (he was also able to play offensive tackle). He also played on special teams.

2015: Falah served as a backup offensive tackle and then center, and he played on special teams, as a sophomore in 2015. Overall in 2015, he appeared in 11 games (all but Stanford, Washington and Notre Dame), even starting at center versus Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

2014: Falah served as a backup offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2014. He saw brief action in 3 games in 2014 (Fresno State, Colorado, Notre Dame).

2013: Falah redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-Area and All-Trinity League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior offensive tackle at St. John Bosco High in Bellflower (Calif.). Current Trojans Malik Dorton and Reid Budrovich also prepped at St. John Bosco

He also played basketball at St. John Bosco.

PERSONAL: He is a non-governmental organizations major at USC.

(98) JOSH FATU
Defensive Tackle
6-2, 315, Sr./Sr.
Long Beach, CA (Lakewood HS/ Long Beach CC)

2017: Fatu will battle for a key role at defensive tackle as a senior in 2017.

2016: Fatu, a junior college transfer who came to USC in the fall of 2016, served as an often-used backup defensive tackle as a junior in 2016. Overall in 2016, he appeared in 12 games (all but UCLA, which he sat out with a ankle sprain suffered at Washington) and started once (Arizona), and he had 21 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 5 yards (with a 5-yard sack). He had a tackle against Alabama, 4 tackles (with a sack) against Utah State, 2 tackles at Stanford, 1 tackle against Utah, 2 stops (0.5 for a loss) against Arizona State), 1 tackle versus Colorado, 2 tackles at Arizona, 1 versus California, 4 against Oregon, 1 at Washington and 2 versus Notre Dame.

(10) JALEN GREENE
Wide Receiver
6-2, 200, Jr.*/Sr.
Gardena, CA (Serra HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 18 receptions for 220 yards (12.2 avg) and 7 carries for 19 yards (2.7 avg), plus he has completed 3-of-5 passes for 127 yards with a TD. He has 3 career starts.

2017: Green, who came to USC as a quarterback but has developed into an effective pass catcher, will battle for key playing time at wide receiver as a junior in 2017.

2016: Greene saw action as a sophomore in 2016 as a backup wide receiver and he played on special teams. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 8 receptions for 116 yards (14.5 avg), ran for 12 yards on 4 carries (3.0 avg) and threw an incomplete pass. He worked at quarterback (his original position when he enrolled at USC) during 2016 spring drills and prior to the Rose Bowl.

He caught a 15-yard pass and ran twice for 14 yards (out of the Wildcat formation) against Utah State, then had a 14-yard reception and a rush for no yards against Arizona State, a 12-yard catch, a rush for minus 2 yards and an incomplete pass at Arizona, 2 catches for 20 yards against California and a reception against both UCLA (12 yards) and Notre Dame (15 yards). He had a 28-yard reception against Penn State.

2015: Greene was impressive while playing wide receiver for the first time, serving as a backup as a redshirt freshman in 2015. He was also available as a quarterback (but did not play the position). Overall in 2015 while appearing in all 14 games at a wideout (starting 3 times, versus Notre Dame, Utah and California), he had 10 catches for 105 yards (10.5 avg) and 3 carries for 7 yards (2.3 avg), and he also completed 3-of-4 passes (75.0%) for 127 yards with a TD off of receiver throwbacks.

He caught 2 passes for 25 yards and threw an 18-yard completion on a lateral against Arkansas State, then caught 3 passes for 27 yards against Idaho. He threw a 75-yard scoring pass off a lateral (he also caught 2 passes for 22 yards) at Notre Dame. He caught 2 passes for 15 yards against Utah (and he also threw an incomplete pass). He caught a 15-yard pass, completed a 34-yard pass and had a rush for minus 6 yards at California. He had a 7-yard run off a backwards pass at Oregon and a 6-yard scrambling run against Wisconsin.

2014: The left-handed Greene, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback at USC in 2014, his first year at USC. He won USC's Offensive Service Team Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Western Division, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Offensive Player of the Year, Wave Newspapers All-West Region and All-Mission League Offensive Player of the Year as a senior quarterback at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He completed 134-of-229 passes (58.5%) for 1,544 yards with 33 TDs and 6 interceptions in 2013, plus ran for 1,209 yards on 155 carries (7.8 avg) with 14 TDs. Serra was 13-1 in 2013 and advanced to the CIF Western Division title game.

As a 2012 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, All-CIF Western Division, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Mission League first team as he completed 167-of-266 passes (62.8%) for 2,443 yards with 25 TDs and 13 interceptions, plus ran for 1,137 yards on 151 carries (7.5 avg) with 9 TDs. Serra won the 2012 CIF Western Division championship and the CIF State Division II Bowl.

He made the 2011 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Mission League MVP as a sophomore, completing 88-of-168 passes for 1,368 yards (52.4%) with 10 TDs and 4 interceptions and running for 694 yards on 86 carries (8.1 avg) with 7 TDs.

As a 3-year starter, he went 35-6 while throwing for 6,355 yards with 68 TDs and running for 3,040 yards with 30 TDs. Current Trojans Olajuwon Tucker, Jalen Jones, Rasheem Green, John Houston Jr., Deontay Burnett, Oluwole Betiku, C.J. Pollard and Christian Herrera also prepped at Serra.

(31) RICHARD HAGESTAD
Safety
6-1, 195, Fr.*/So.
Del Mar, CA (Bishop's School)

2017: Hagestad will serve as a backup walk-on safety as a redshirt freshman in 2017.

2016: Hagestad did not see action as a reserve freshman walk-on safety in 2016, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Bishop's School in La Jolla (Calif.), where he earned 2015 All-Coastal League first team and San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic as a senior outside linebacker and wide receiver. In 2015, he had 78 tackles, including 12 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and an interception on defense and 19 receptions for 326 yards (17.2 avg.) with 3 TDs on offense.

He missed part of his 2014 junior season with an injury, but had 25 tackles, a fumble recovery and a blocked punt on defense and 4 catches for 37 yards (9.3 avg.) on offense as Bishop's went 13-0 and won the CIF San Diego Division IV championship.

As a sophomore in 2014, he made the All-Coastal League second team while getting 35 tackles, 3 interceptions and 2 deflections on defense and 13 receptions for 165 yards (12.7 avg) with 3 TDs on offense.

He also played lacrosse and volleyball at Bishop's, and in club volleyball he was a member of the 2013 Junior Olympics U16 Club Gold Division third place team.

PERSONAL: He is a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.22 GPA). His brother, Stewart, was a golfer at USC (2010-13) who now competes in national amateur tournaments, including the U.S. Amateur (he won the 2016 Met Amateur), and was the low amateur at the 2017 Masters (he also played in the 2017 U.S. Open).

(27) AJENE HARRIS
Cornerback
Los Angeles, CA (Crenshaw HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 30 tackles, including 3.5 for losses (with a sack), 4 deflections, 2 interceptions (1 for a TD), 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on offense and 4 receptions for 38 yards (9.5 avg), a 14-yard rush and an incomplete pass on offense. He has 4 career starts.

2017: Harris figures again to make significant contributions in the secondary in 2017 as a junior cornerback, likely to see time as a nickelback.

2016: Harris returned healthy from 2015 hip surgery and the sophomore converted wide receiver got into the 2016 playing rotation at cornerback, often as the nickelback. He also played on special teams. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games (he started the last 4 as the nickelback), he had 30 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 17 yards (with a 5-yard sack), 4 deflections, 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) for 66 yards (33.0 avg), 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on defense, plus he had a 14-yard rush on offense.

He had 2 tackles and a forced fumble against Alabama, a deflection on defense and a 14-yard run on offense against Utah State, a tackle at Stanford, 2 tackles at Utah, a stop against Arizona State and 2 tackles (1 for a loss) against Colorado. He had 2 tackles and an interception at Arizona, 3 tackles, 2 deflections and recovered a fumble against California, a deflection against Oregon and 3 tackles (0.5 for loss) at Washington. He had a team-best 5 tackles at UCLA, then had 6 tackles (2 for a loss, with a sack), a forced fumble and returned an interception 33 yards for a TD against Notre Dame. He had 3 tackles against Penn State.

2014: Harris was a backup wide receiver as a first-year freshman in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in 5 games (Fresno State, Stanford, Boston College, Oregon State, Notre Dame), he had 4 receptions for 38 yards (9.5 avg) and also threw an incomplete pass. He even started against Oregon State. He had an 8-yard reception against Fresno State, then had 3 catches for 30 yards against Oregon State (and threw the incompletion). He strained his hamstring prior to the Arizona State game and missed the next 3 games (Arizona State, Arizona, Colorado), seeing action in only one more game after that while still bothered by the injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team and All-L.A. City Division I Player of the Year as a senior quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back at Crenshaw High in Los Angeles (Calif.). Crenshaw won the 2013 L.A. City Division I championship.

As a 2012 junior, he made All-L.A. City Division I first team.

As a sophomore in 2011, he completed 42-of-121 passes (34.7%) for 874 yards and 6 TDs with 1 interception, plus he ran for 640 yards on 48 carries (13.3 avg) on offense and made 44 tackles, 4 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries on defense.

He also played basketball at Crenshaw.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

(4) CHRIS HAWKINS
Safety
5-11, 190, Sr.*/Sr.
Rancho Cucamonga, CA
(Rancho Cucamonga HS)

CAREER: He has 146 tackles, including 6.5 for losses (with a sack), 4 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries (1 for a TD), 2 forced fumbles and 3 interceptions in his career. He has 22 career starts (14 at free safety, 4 at strong safety and 4 at cornerback).

2017: The experienced Hawkins, the veteran of USC's secondary, should again play a key role at safety as a senior in 2017.

2016: Hawkins saw significant action at strong safety as a junior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games (starting 4 times, versus Alabama, Utah State, Stanford, Oregon), he had 44 tackles, including 4 for losses of 16 yards (with a 10-yard sack), plus 2 deflections and 2 forced fumbles. He made 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He was limited in 2016 spring practice while recovering from 2015 post-season ankle surgery.

He had 3 tackles against Alabama, then 8 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection against Utah State and 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and a forced fumble at Stanford. He had 3 tackles (with a sack) and a deflection against Arizona State, 2 tackles against Colorado, a team-high 5 tackles and a forced fumble at Arizona and 6 tackles versus California. He had 7 tackles against Oregon, then 2 tackles (1 for loss) at Washington and 1 tackle versus Notre Dame. He had 2 tackles against Penn State.

2015: Hawkins was moved from cornerback to free safety in 2015 spring practice and started there all of 2015 as a sophomore. Overall in 2015 while starting 14 times, he had 70 tackles (third on USC), including 1.5 for losses of 4 yards, plus 2 fumble recoveries (with a TD) and 2 interceptions. He had ankle surgery after the season.

He had 5 tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery against Arkansas State, a tackle against Idaho and 7 tackles against Stanford. At Arizona State, he had 2 tackles and returned a fumble 94 yards for a TD. He had 7 tackles against Washington, 3 tackles at Notre Dame, 5 stops against Utah and a team-best 8 tackles at California. He had 6 tackles (0.5 for loss) against Arizona, 5 tackles at Colorado and 3 tackles and an end-zone interception at Oregon. He had 2 tackles against UCLA, then 8 tackles (1 for a loss) against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game and 8 tackles versus Wisconsin.

2014: Hawkins started USC's first 4 games (Fresno State, Stanford, Boston College, Arizona State) at cornerback, then served as a backup the rest of the season as a redshirt freshman in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in 11 games (all but UCLA and Nebraska), he had 32 tackles, including 1 for a loss, plus 2 deflections and an interception.

He had 1 tackle against Fresno State, 6 stops at Stanford, 4 tackles and an interception at Boston College, 2 tackles against Oregon State, 5 tackles at Arizona, 9 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections against Colorado, a tackle at Utah, 2 tackles at Washington State and 2 stops against Notre Dame.

2013: Hawkins, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman cornerback in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 and All-CIF Inland Division as a senior cornerback and wide receiver in 2012 at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High, which went 10-3. He had 56 tackles, 2 interceptions, 6 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 blocked field goal on defense in 2012 and 14 receptions for 193 yards (13.8 avg.) with 2 TDs on offense.

As a 2011 junior, he made All-CIF Inland Division as he had 32 tackles and 2 interceptions. Rancho Cucamonga went 11-2 in 2011.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in policy, planning and development major at USC in the spring of 2017 and is working on a second bachelor's degree in sociology. He is USC's 2017 representative on the Pac-12's Student-Athlete Leadership Team and also was 1 of 2 student-athletes to represent the Pac-12 at the 2017 NCAA Legislation meeting in Chicago.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT CHRIS HAWKINS

Former USC and current NFL outside linebacker-safety Su'a Cravens: "He's a natural safety. He knows how to read plays. He's really good at understaning route concepts and diagnosing routes."

6-3, 220, Jr.*/Sr.
Kansas City, KS (Pembroke Hill School)

2017: Hursh will serve as a backup walk-on tight end as a junior in 2017.

2016: He did not see action as a reserve walk-on tight end as a sophomore in 2016. He joined the USC team in the spring of 2016.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a wide receiver, outside linebacker and placekicker as a 2013 senior at Pembroke Hill School in Kansas City (Mo.).

He also played baseball and lacrosse at Pembroke Hill.

(88) DANIEL IMATORBHEBHE
Tight End
6-3, 235, So.*/Jr.
Suwanee, GA (North Gwinnett HS/Florida)

2017: Imatorbhebhe, whose younger brother also is on the USC roster, is equally skilled as a blocker and receiver and he should once again make an impact at tight end as a sophomore in 2017.

2016: Imatorbhebhe proved to be an effective tight end while seeing significant playing time as a redshirt freshman in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games (starting 5 times, versus Stanford, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, California), he had 17 catches for 250 yards (14.7 avg) with 4 TDs. He made 2016 Campus Insiders Freshman All-American second team and All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

He had a 7-yard catch against Utah State, 2 grabs for 45 yards, including a 32-yard TD, against Colorado, an 8-yard TD catch at Arizona, a 17-yard TD reception against California, 2 grabs for 37 yards against Oregon, 5 catches for 78 yards (both career highs), with an 8-yard TD, at Washington, 2 catches for 27 yards at UCLA and a 6-yard reception against Notre Dame. He had 2 catches for 25 yards against Penn State.

2015: A first-year freshman tight end, he sat out the 2015 season because of NCAA transfer rules. He transferred to USC in the fall of 2015 from Florida and was awarded a scholarship by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

FLORIDA: He enrolled at Florida in the spring of 2015 after graduating a semester early from high school and participated in 2015 spring practice as a first-year freshman tight end.

HIGH SCHOOL: He had 32 catches for 487 yards (15.2 avg) with 8 TDs as a 2014 senior wide receiver at North Gwinnett High in Sugar Hill (Ga.). As a 2013 junior, he had 29 receptions for 358 yards (12.3 avg) with 2 TDs, helping North Gwinnett advance to the Class AAAAAA state championship game.

He also played basketball at North Gwinnett.

PERSONAL: He is a social sciences (economics) major at USC. He was born in Los Angeles, then moved to Virginia and Georgia. His brother, Josh, is a redshirt freshman wide receiver at USC.

2017: Jones, who saw key action as a rookie in 2016, will battle for a starting job at cornerback as a sophomore in 2017.

2016: Jones was an often-used backup cornerback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 13 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection on defense and he returned 3 kickoffs for 31 yards (10.3 avg) on special teams. He had 1 tackle against Alabama, Utah State and Arizona (with a deflection), then 3 stops versus California and Oregon, 2 tackles at Washington, 1 tackle at UCLA, a fumble recovery against Notre Dame and a tackle against Penn State. He had a kickoff return against Alabama (5 yards), Utah State (13 yards) and Utah (13 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2015 Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Scout.com All-American, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, USA Today All-California first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Pac 5 Division (as a defensive back), Los Angeles Times All-Area first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team Co-Offensive Player of the Year as a senior cornerback and wide receiver at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High. He had 23 tackles, an interception and 4 deflections in 2015, plus 42 receptions for 837 yards (19.9 avg) with 11 TDs, 79 yards on 9 carries (8.8 avg), 5 punt returns for 143 yards (20.6 ag) with a TD, 4 kickoff returns for 127 yards (31.8 avg) and a 37.0 average on 4 punts.

As a junior in 2014, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, All-CIF Pac 5 Division (as a wide receiver) and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team. He had 40 tackles, an interception and a deflection in 2014, plus 64 receptions for 719 yards (11.2 avg) with 5 TDs, 6 punt returns for 136 yards (22.7 avg) with 1 TD and 2 kickoff returns for 21 yards (10.5 avg). Current Trojan Iman Marshall also prepped at Long Beach Poly.

(18) JALEN JONES
Cornerback
5-8, 165, Jr.*/Sr.
Los Angeles, CA (Serra HS)

2017: Jones will serve as a backup walk-on cornerback as a junior in 2017.

2016: Jones did not see action as a reserve walk-on sophomore cornerback in 2016.

2015: Jones was a reserve walk-on redshirt freshman cornerback in 2015. He saw brief action in 1 game in 2015 (versus Idaho), but did not make a tackle.

2014: Jones redshirted as a reserve walk-on freshman cornerback in 2014, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jones made 2013 All-Mission League second team as a senior defensive back at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.) as he had 33 tackles, 2 interceptions and 5 deflections. Serra went 13-1 in 2013 and won the CIF Western Division Championship.

As a 2012 junior, he had 22 tackles, 1 interception and 9 deflections as Serra won the CIF Western Division crown and the CIF State Division II Bowl. He had 23 tackles, an interception and 5 deflections as a 2011 junior while making All-Mission League second team.

He also played baseball at Serra. Current Trojans Oluwole Betiku, Deontay Burnett, Rasheem Green, Jalen Greene, John Houston, C.J. Pollard, Olajuwon Tucker and Christian Herrera also prepped at Serra.

(25) RONALD JONES II
Tailback
6-0, 200, Jr./Jr.
McKinney, TX (McKinney North HS)

CAREER: He has run for 2,069 yards on 330 carries (6.3 avg) with 20 TDs and caught 18 passes for 115 yards (6.4 avg) with 2 TDs in his career. He is 17th on USC's career rushing list with 2,069 yards. His 6.27 career yards per carry is fourth best among those on USC's Top 40 all-time rushing ladder. He has 5 100-yard rushing games in his career. He has 6 career starts.

2017: The explosive Jones, who also has sprinted for USC's track team, returns as a starting tailback as a junior in 2017 and should be among the nation's top running backs.

2016: After making quite an impression with his record-breaking showing in 2015 as a rookie, Jones was made an even bigger impact as a sophomore tailback in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games and starting the final 6 regular season games, he ran for a team-best 1,082 yards on 177 carries (6.1 avg) with 12 TDs and had 11 caches for 76 yards (6.9 avg) with 1 TD. His 1,082 rushing yards in 2016 marked the 29th time a Trojan eclipsed the 1,000-yard season rushing mark and ranks 27th on USC's season list. He had 4 100-yard rushing games in 2016, all in the last 5 regular-season contests. He ran for a TD in each of the last 7 games and had 4 multi-TD games in 2016. He made the 2016 Campus Insiders Sophomore All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-12 second team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team. He won USC's 2016 Jack Dakie "Rise and Shine" Award (most electrifying run).

He had 46 yards on 7 carries and caught a 2-yard pass against Alabama. Against Utah State, he had 8 yards on 5 tries before being sidelined with bruised ribs. He rushed for 63 yards on 11 carries at Stanford, with a short scoring run. He had 15 yards on 8 rushes at Utah. He had 20 yards on 5 carries against Arizona State. He had 56 yards on 10 attempts (he also had a 9-yard reception) against Colorado. At Arizona, he got his first career start and ran for 77 yards on 16 ties (with a 5-yard TD) and he had a 7-yard reception. Against California, he ran for a career-high 223 yards on 18 carries (12.4 average) with a 37-yard TD (along with non-scoring bursts of 61 and 42 yards), the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen Bradford also had 223 against Washington in 2010 and the second most by a USC sophomore behind Shawn Walters' 234 in 1994 versus Stanford (he also had 2 catches for 18 yards, including a 16-yard score) to earn Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week honorable mention. Against Oregon, he tied a USC game record by rushing for 4 touchdowns (23, 3, 66, 1 yards) to become the 14th Trojan to do so (most recently, LenDale White versus Arizona in 2005) while he gained a game-best 171 yards on a career-high 20 carries (8.6 yards per rush) and, combined with his 223 yards in the previous game, his 2-game rushing total of 394 yards was the most in consecutive games by a Trojan since Reggie Bush's 554 in 2005 versus Fresno State and UCLA (he also caught 2 passes for 26 yards) and thereby earning Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week honorable mention. At Washington, he had a game-best 94 yards on a career-high 23 carries, with a 4-yard TD. He had a game-best 121 yards on 18 carries with 2 TDs (1 and 60 yards, with the second coming on third-and-1) and he caught a 5-yard pass at UCLA. He ran for 134 yards on 16 carries (8.4 average per rush), including a 51-yard TD, against Notre Dame. He ran for 55 yards on 20 carries, with a short TD, and added 2 catches for 3 yards against Penn State (he wore jersey #4 in honor of late USC tailback Joe McKnight).

2015: Jones made an immediate impact as an often-used backup first-year freshman tailback in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in all 14 games, he had a team-best 987 yards on 153 carries (6.5 avg) with 8 TDs and 7 receptions for 39 yards (5.6 avg) with 1 TD. He joined LenDale White as the only true freshmen to lead USC in rushing in a season (White did so in 2003). His 987 rushing yards broke Heisman Trophy winner Charles White's 39-year-old USC freshman season rushing record (858 yards in 1976). He was 18th nationally in yards per carry (6.5, second in Pac-12). He made 2015 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team.

He had 86 yards on 6 carries with a 44-yard TD against Arkansas State. Against Idaho, he had a team-best 83 yards on 8 carries (10.4 average) with a 1-yard TD (1 play after a 44-yard burst) and caught a 15-yard pass. He had 19 yards on 6 attempts and a 5-yard reception against Stanford. He had a team-best 54 yards on 10 carries at Arizona State. He had 8 carries for 65 yards with a short TD against Washington. He had a team-best 73 yards on 6 carries (with a 65-yard run) at Notre Dame. He had a game-best 73 yards on 15 carries (with an 18-yard TD) versus Utah. He had a game-best 80 yards on 11 carries, with a 13-yard TD, at California. He set the USC freshman game rushing yardage record as he ran for 177 yards on 19 carries (breaking LenDale White's 2003 mark by 37 yards), with a 74-yard TD burst, and he also caught a 5-yard scoring pass against Arizona to earn Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week honorable mention and USC's Jack Dakie "Rise and Shine" Award (for longest run from scrimmage). He had 61 yards on 19 tries and he caught a pass for no yards at Colorado. He had 56 yards on 14 carries (with a 12-yard TD run) and he also had a reception for minus 1 yard at Oregon. He had 63 yards on 17 tries versus UCLA to set the USC freshman season rushing yardage record and he also had a 3-yard reception. Against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game, he had 50 yards on 6 tries with a 27-yard TD. He had 47 yards on 8 carries and a 12-yard reception against Wisconsin.

TRACK: He sprinted briefly for USC's track team in the spring of 2016. In his only appearance, he ran the third leg on USC's victorious 400-meter relay team in the UCLA Dual (the quartet clocked 39.89).

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 Prep Star All-American Dream Team and USA Today All-Texas as a senior running back at McKinney (Tex.) North High. He ran for 2,009 yards (8.4 avg) with 28 TDs as a senior in 2014.

As a junior in 2013, he ran for 2,406 yards (9.9 avg) with 39 TDs.

He had 520 rushing yards (7.2 avg) with 9 TDs as a 2012 sophomore. He had 4,935 yards (8.9 avg) and 76 TD on the ground in his 3-year career.

He also sprinted for McKinney North's track team, with bests of 10.37 in the 100 meters (he won his district championships in 2015) and 21.98 in the 200 meters.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT RONALD JONES II

(23) VELUS JONES JR.
Wide Receiver
6-0, 190, Fr.*/So.
Saraland, AL (Saraland HS)

2017: The quick Jones will compete to get into the playing rotation at wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2017.

2016: Jones redshirted as a first-year freshman wide receiver in 2016.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2015 Prep Star All-Southeast Region, USA Today All-Alabama first team, AL.com Super All-State first team, Alabama Sportswriters Association All-State Class 6A first team and All-Coastal Alabama first team as a senior wide receiver at Saraland (Ala.) High. He had 48 receptions for 945 yards (19.7 avg) with 10 TDs in 2015, plus 172 rushing yards with 2 TDs and 2 touchdowns on special teams.

As a junior in 2014, he made All-State and All-Region while getting 51 receptions for 1,118 yards (21.9 avg) with 9 TDs. Saraland was the state Class 6A runnerup in 2014.

PERSONAL: He is a psychology major at USC.

(54) TAYLER KATOA
Inside Linebacker
6-2, 230, Fr./Fr.
Layton, UT (Layton HS)

2017: Katoa, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2017 after graduating a semester early from high school, was set to battle for playing time at inside linebacker as a first-year freshman in 2017, but he likely will miss the 2017 season after suffering a torn ligament in his right knee during 2017 spring practice.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2016 Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Prep Star All-West Region, USA Today All-Utah second team and Coaches All-State Class 5A second team as a senior linebacker, defensive end and quarterback at Layton (Utah) High. In 2016, he had 36 tackles, 2 sacks and a fumble recovery for a TD on defense, while on offense he ran for 784 yards on 117 carries (6.7 avg) with 14 TDs and threw for 299 yards with 3 TDs and 3 interceptions on 21-of-55 passing (38.2%).

As a junior in 2015, he had 11 tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery on defense, plus he completed 59-of-102 passes (57.8%) for 784 yards with 6 TDs and 2 interceptions and ran for 334 yards on 83 attempts (4.0 avg) with 7 TDs on offense.

As a 2014 sophomore, he had 40 tackles with 5 sacks, completed 26-of-65 passes (40.0%) for 311 yards with 5 TDs and 5 interceptions and ran for 54 yards on 63 carries (0.9 avg) with 3 TDs.

PERSONAL: He is a business administration major at USC. His father, Fotu, was a tight end at BYU (1985, 1988-90), his mother, Elizabeth, was a distance runner at BYU in 1990, his sister, Eliza, is a senior outside hitter on Utah's volleyball team, his brother-in-law, Rhett Nelson, pitched at Santa Clara (2010) and BYU (2014) and his uncle, Fred Katoa, was a nose guard at BYU (1989-90).

(24) ISAIAH LANGLEY
Cornerback
6-0, 175, Jr./Jr.
Hayward, Calif. (Foothill HS)

CAREER: He has 20 tackles and a deflection in his career.

2017: Langley will compete for key action at cornerback as a junior in 2017.

2016: Langley was a backup cornerback and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2016. Overall while appearing in 12 games in 2016 (all but Alabama), he had 8 tackles. He had 1 tackle at Utah, 3 against Arizona State, 1 at Arizona, 2 versus Oregon and 1 versus Penn State. He missed the Alabama opener because of a team rules violation.

2015: Langley served as a backup cornerback as a first-year freshman in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arkansas State, Idaho and Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game), he had 12 tackles and a deflection. He had 3 tackles against Colorado, UCLA (with a deflection) and Wisconsin, 2 versus Arizona State and 1 at Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Max Preps All-State Division I second team, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-Northern California first team, Contra Costa Times All-East Bay and San Francisco Chronicle All-Metro as a senior cornerback and wide receiver at Foothill High in Pleasanton (Calif.). He returned an interception and a fumble for TDs on defense and caught 33 passes for 638 yards (19.3 avg) with 12 TDs (he also threw 2 TDs) in 2014.

As a junior in 2013, he made Student Sports Junior All-American honorable mention and Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior second team.

(50) TOA LOBENDAHN
Center-Offensive Guard
6-3, 290, Jr.*/Sr.
La Habra, CA (La Habra HS)

2017: The versatile and well-tested Lobendahn, who has battled knee injuries in his USC career, is able to play any offensive line position and he will be in the running for a starting role as a junior in 2017. He was limited in 2017 spring drills while recuperating from the knee injury.

2016: Lobendahn re-assumed his starting job at center as a junior in 2016, but tore right knee ligaments in the Alabama opener, had surgery and was sidelined for the season. Because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He was limited in 2016 spring practice while recovering from 2015 knee surgery.

2015: Lobendahn returned as a starting offensive lineman as a sophomore in 2015 before getting hurt, starting the first 5 games at right guard and the next 2 at center. He tore knee ligaments early in the Utah contest and had surgery, sidelining him for the rest of 2015.

2014: Lobendahn, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, started all season on the offensive line as a first-year freshman in 2014, the first 8 games at left guard and the last 5 at left tackle. He made the 2014 Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, USA Today Freshman All-American first team, Scout Freshman All-American first team, Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team, ESPN.com True Freshman All-American first team, 247Sports True Freshman All-American first team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American second team. He made 2014 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. Against Fresno State, he and Damien Mama became just the second pair of USC first-year freshmen in the post-World War II era to start on the offensive line (Travis Claridge and Faaesea Mailo did so 3 times in 1996), but it was the first time that a Trojan first-year freshman o-line duo started an opener. He made the ESPN.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Pac-12 All-Bowl Team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2013 Prep Star All-American, ESPN 300, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Southwest Division, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team, Whittier News All-Area and All-Freeway League Lineman of the Year as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at La Habra (Calif.) High.

As a 2012 junior at Lakewood (Calif.) High, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team. Current Trojan Josh Fatu also prepped at Lakewood.

PERSONAL: He is a policy, planning and development major at USC. His father, Vince, was a lineman at Utah (1990-93) and then in the Arena League with the Albany Firebirds (1994) and St. Louis Stampede (1995) before coaching at BYU as a graduate assistant (1998-99) and as an assistant and head coach at the high school level. Former USC offensive lineman Faaesea Mailo (1996-2001) is his second cousin.

(23) JONATHAN LOCKETT
Cornerback
5-11, 180, Sr./Sr.
Bellflower, CA (Mater Dei HS)

CAREER: He has 40 tackles (0.5 for a loss), 4 deflections and an interception in his career. He has 7 career starts.

2017: The experienced Lockett will battle for a starting role at cornerback as a senior in 2017 or he likely will see time as a nickelback. He was limited in 2017 spring drills while recuperating from 2016 hip surgery.

2016: Lockett saw considerable playing time at cornerback as a junior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in 9 games (all but Oregon, Washington, UCLA) and starting 5 times (as a nickelback), he had 17 tackles (0.5 for a loss of 1 yard), 3 deflections and an interception. He had 2 tackles and a deflection at Utah, 5 tackles (0.5 for a loss), an interception and a deflection against Arizona State, 5 tackles and a deflection versus Colorado, 2 tackles at Arizona and 3 stops against California. He suffered a hip injury against California and was sidelined for the next 3 games (Oregon, Washington, UCLA). He had season-ending surgery on the hip prior to the Penn State game.

2015: Lockett was a backup cornerback as a sophomore in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 12 games (all but Arizona and Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game) and starting twice (Idaho and California), he had 18 tackles. He had 4 tackles versus Utah, 3 against Arkansas State, Arizona State and California, 2 at Colorado and 1 against Idaho, Stanford and UCLA. A hip injury sidelined him for the Arizona game and a leg injury kept him out versus Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

2014: Lockett saw action in 12 games (all but Stanford) as a backup cornerback and on special teams as a first-year freshman cornerback in 2014, getting 5 tackles and a deflection. He had 3 tackles at Arizona, a tackle and deflection against Colorado and a tackle against Nebraska.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County Defensive Player of the Year and All-Trinity League Co-Player of the Year as a cornerback, wide receiver and returner at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He had 34 tackles, 4 interceptions and 9 deflections on defense in 2013, along with 1,135 all-purpose yards, including 31 receptions for 557 yards (18.0 avg) with 4 TDs, 13 punt returns for 240 yards (18.5 avg) and 7 kickoff returns for 167 yards (23.9 avg).

(37) MATT LOPES
Safety
5-11, 200, Sr.*/Sr.
Palos Verdes Estates, CA (Palos Verdes HS)

CAREER: He has 23 tackles (1.5 for losses) in his career

2017: Lopes will battle for playing time at safety as a senior in 2017.

2016: Lopes, a former walk-on who was awarded a scholarship in the fall of 2016, was a backup at safety and played on special teams as a junior in 2016. Overall in 2016 while appearing in 12 games (all but Stanford), he had 5 tackles (2 versus Alabama and 1 each against Utah State, Arizona State and Penn State).

2015: Lopes was a backup walk-on sophomore safety in 2015. Overall in 2015, he saw action in 9 games (all but the last 5) and had 14 tackles, including 1.5 for losses. He had a team-best 7 tackles (1 for a loss) against Arkansas State, 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) versus Idaho, 1 stop at Arizona State and 2 tackles against Utah. He broke his left foot prior to the Colorado game and was sidelined the rest of 2015.

2014: Lopes saw action in 5 games (Fresno State, Colorado, Utah, Washington State, Nebraska) in 2014 as a reserve walk-on redshirt freshman safety, including playing the entire second half at Washington State when Su'a Cravens was injured. Overall in 2014, he had 4 tackles (3 at Washington State and 1 versus Fresno State).

2013: Lopes did not see any action as a reserve walk-on first-year freshman safety in 2013.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2012 Max Preps All-State Division II second team, All-CIF Northern Division Offensive Player of the Year and South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay and All-Bay League Offensive Player of the Year as a senior running back and safety at Palos Verdes High in Palos Verdes Estates (Calif.). He ran for 1,651 yards on 233 carries (7.1 avg.) with 25 TDs in 2012, including gaining 200 yards 4 times and 100 yards 9 times. He also caught 14 passes for 144 yards (10.3 avg.) with 1 TD, had 25 tackles, 3 interceptions, 6 deflections and a forced fumble on defense and returned 6 punts for 105 yards (17.5 avg.) and 4 kickoffs for 104 yards (26.0 avg.) in 2012. Palos Verdes won the 2012 CIF Northern Division title.

As a 2011 junior, he made All-Bay League first team as he had 36 carries for 256 yards (7.1 avg.) with 2 TDs and caught a 30-yard pass, made 38 tackles, 6 interceptions, 5 deflections and a forced fumble, and returned 5 kickoffs for 116 yards (23.2 avg).

He had 62 yards on 15 carries (4.1 avg.) as a 2010 sophomore.

He also played baseball at Palos Verdes.

PERSONAL: He is a business administration major at USC. His father, Steve, is a senior associate athletic director and chief operating officer at USC who was a 1983 College Division All-American offensive lineman at Linfield College, which won the NAIA national championship in his 1982 junior season (he also wrestled and played golf at Linfield). His mother, Helaine, was an assistant athletic trainer at USC in the 1980s and 1990s. His uncle, Lance Lopes, also played football at Linfield and was a senior associate athletic director at Washington (he previously was senior vice president and general counsel of the Seattle Seahawks and before that held a similar position with the Green Bay Packers).

2015: Mitchell was an often-employed wide receiver as a sophomore in 2015. Overall in 2015 while appearing in 12 games (all but Notre Dame and Utah) and starting 6 times (Arkansas State, Idaho, Arizona State, Washington, Oregon, Stanford), he had 37 receptions (second on USC) for 335 yards (9.1 avg) with 4 TDs and he returned a punt for 1 yard (1.0 avg). He sprained his ankle against Washington and missed the Notre Dame and Utah games.

He had 4 catches for 28 yards with a 14-yard score against Arkansas State, 2 grabs for 16 yards and a 1-yard punt return against Idaho and 3 catches for 12 yards with a pair of short TDs against Stanford. He had 4 catches for 66 yards with a 27-yard TD against Arizona State and 2 catches for 3 yards against Washington. He had 2 catches for 11 yards at California, 4 receptions for 22 yards against Arizona and 3 grabs for 59 yards at Colorado. He had a game-best and career-high 7 receptions for 31 yards at Oregon. He had a 17-yard reception against UCLA and 3 catches for 39 yards against Stanford in the Pac-12 Championship Game. He had 2 grabs for 27 yards against Wisconsin.

2014: Mitchell was a backup wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in 11 games (all but Stanford and Boston College) and starting twice (UCLA and Nebraska), he had 7 receptions for 82 yards (11.7 avg) with 2 TDs and made a tackle. He sprained his knee early in the Nebraska game and was sidelined. He missed 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 knee injury, as well as a hernia.

He had 1 catch each against Arizona State (7 yards), Colorado (a 24-yard TD) and Utah (7 yards), then he had 2 receptions at Washington State for 28 yards with a 5-yard TD, then he had a catch versus California (5 yards) and Notre Dame (11 yards). His tackle came against California.

2013: Mitchell redshirted as a freshman wide receiver in 2013, his first year at USC, after tearing ligaments in his right knee in the summer of 2013.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, ESPN 150, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Serra League Co-MVP as a senior wide receiver and defensive back at Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills (Calif.). He had 62 receptions for 1,100 yards (17.7 avg.) with 13 TDs, plus he ran for 202 yards with 5 TDs in 2012.

As a 2011 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team while catching 50 passes for 1,006 yards (20.1 avg.), running for 312 yards and scoring 19 TDs (11 receiving, 5 rushing, 1 kickoff return, 1 punt return and 1 interception).

As a 2010 sophomore, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area Newcomer of the Year. Current Trojan Dominic Davis also prepped at Bishop Alemany.

PERSONAL: He received his bachelor's degree in communication from USC in the spring of 2016 and is now working towards a master's degree in communication management.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEVEN MITCHELL JR.

USC safety Chris Hawkins: "He's so versatile, so quick, so fast and he can really jitterbug around you, if you try to press or anything like that. He's a real deep threat."

Michael Lev, Orange County Register: "Mitchell deftly works the middle of the field from his slot position, providing a quick, sure-handed outlet. And once he gets the ball in his hands, wow...Mitchell's quickness, agility and ability to change directions are off the charts."

(61) JAKE OLSON
Snapper
6-3, 225, So.*/Jr.
Huntington Beach, CA (Orange Lutheran HS)

2017: Olson, who has been an inspiration to and involved with the USC football program since the age of 12 in 2009 when he lost his eyesight to cancer, will serve as a backup snapper as a sophomore in 2017. USC prevents contact during any practice drills in which he is involved to make sure he is protected.

2016: Olson did not see action as a reserve walk-on long snapper as a redshirt freshman in 2016.

2015: Olson did not see any action as a reserve walk-on long snapper as a first-year freshman in 2015. He won the 2016 Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Award, presented to a leader in the world of college football who has realized his or her potential to make a positive and lasting impact on the rare disease community. He was a nominee for the 2015 Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: Olson was a long-snapper at Orange (Calif.) Lutheran High as a junior and senior in 2013 and 2014, guided onto the field and positioned over the ball by a teammate.

He also played golf at Orange Lutheran (he usually shot in the 80s).

PERSONAL: He is a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.09 GPA). He was born with retinoblastoma, a cancer of the retina. He lost his left eye when he was 10 months old and, despite numerous procedures on his other eye, he had his right eye removed when he was 12 in 2009 (he spent the day before his 2009 surgery at a USC football practice). He is a motivational speaker and has co-authored 2 books about overcoming adversity. His story has been chronicled nationally, including several ESPN stories. He received a scholarship to attend USC from Swim With Mike's Physically Challenged Athletes Scholarship Fund (because that scholarship is regarded as athletic aid, USC sought and received a waiver from the NCAA so that he did not count against the Trojans' NCAA-mandated 85 scholarship roster limit). He uses a guide dog named Quebec.

(47) REUBEN PETERS
Fullback
6-0, 230, Jr.*/Sr.
Westchester, CA (Loyola HS)

CAREER: He has 7 tackles and a 3-yard kickoff return in his career.

2017: Peters figures to contribute again as a fullback and on special teams as a junior in 2017.

2016: Peters, a former walk-on who was awarded a scholarship in the fall of 2016, saw action as a fullback and on special teams as a sophomore in 2016 (he was converted from inside linebacker in the fall of 2016). Overall in 2016, he appeared in all 13 games, made 1 tackle (versus Penn State) but did not carry the ball. He won USC's 2016 Lifters Award.

2015: Peters was a reserve walk-on redshirt freshman inside linebacker in 2015. Overall in 2015, he saw action in 6 games (Arkansas State, Idaho, Utah, California, Arizona, Colorado), including some on special teams, and he had 6 tackles and returned a short kickoff for 3 yards (3.0 avg). He had 2 tackles against Arkansas State and 4 versus Idaho. He won the 2015 USC Joe Collins Walk-on Award.

2014: Peters redshirted as a reserve walk-on freshman inside linebacker in 2014, his first year at USC. He was named USC's 2014 Defensive Service Team Player of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Peters was a 2013 All-Serra League first team pick at Loyola High in Los Angeles (Calif.) as a senior linebacker while getting 32 tackles and a deflection.

PERSONAL: He is a real estate development major at USC.

He led USC with 8 tackles against Oregon and he also had 2 deflections, then had 3 tackles, a deflection and returned an onside kick 7 yards at Washington, 3 tackles at UCLA and a game-high 10 tackles (with 1 for a loss) against Notre Dame. He had 4 tackles against Penn State before being ejected in the second half for targeting.

2015: Smith, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2015 after graduating a semester early from high school, started at inside linebacker as a first-year freshman in 2015 until suffering a late-season knee injury. Overall in 2015 while appearing in USC's first 10 games (and starting all but California), he had 78 tackles, including a 9-yard sack, plus 3 deflections, a fumble recovery and 3 interceptions (1 for a TD). He tore knee ligaments against Colorado and had season-ending surgery. Before getting hurt, he was leading USC in tackles and interceptions and was on pace to be the first true freshman to top the Trojans in tackles in a season since records were first kept in 1954.

He was a 2015 USA Today, ESPN.com, Sporting News and 247Sports Freshman All-American first teamer. He made 2015 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team, as well as Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year (the fourth Trojan in the past 5 years to be so honored). He also won USC's John McKay Award (underclassman with the most competitive spirit).

He had a team-high 7 tackles along with a deflection against Arkansas State and became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at inside linebacker since Riki Gray (Ellison) did so in 1978 against Texas Tech. He had a team-best 6 tackles against Idaho, 12 tackles against Stanford and 5 tackles (with a sack) at Arizona State. He had a game-high 12 tackles against Washington and a team-best 11 tackles and recovered a fumble in the end zone at Notre Dame. He had 3 interceptions against Utah, including a 54-yard scoring runback that broke open the game right before halftime, a 41-yarder to set up USC's game-tying TD early in the second quarter and a 27-yarder in the fourth quarter (it was the most picks by a Trojan in a game since Jason Oliver's 3 in 1991 versus Penn State) to go along with his team-best 9 tackles to earn Chuck Bednarik Award Player of the Week, FWAA AutoNation National Defensive Player of the Week, Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week and CollegeSportsMadness.com National and Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honors. He had 4 tackles and a deflection at California, 6 tackles against Arizona and 6 stops at Colorado before getting hurt.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2014 Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, USA Today All-California, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-Northern California first team, Max Preps All-Sac-Joaquin first team and Sacramento Bee All-Metro first team as a senior linebacker at Granite Bay (Calif.) High. He had 148 tackles, 3 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 4 interceptions (2 for TDs) in 2014.

As a junior in 2013, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, Max Preps All-Northern California second team, Max Preps All-Sac-Joaquin second team and Sacramento Bee All-Metro first team as he had 126 tackles, including 5 for losses, 3 interceptions, 3 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble.

He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team and Max Preps All-Sac-Joaquin Section first team as a 2012 sophomore, posting 196 tackles (including 8 for losses, with 3.5 sacks) and 4 interceptions. Granite Bay won the California state championship in 2012. He had 11 interceptions in his career.

He also was on Granite Bay's baseball and wrestling teams.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC. He played youth football against eighth graders when he was in fourth grade.

(16) HOLDEN THOMAS
Quarterback
6-6, 195, Fr.*/So.
Pacific Palisades, CA (Brentwood School)

2017: Thomas will serve as a backup walk-on quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2017.

2016: Thomas did not see action as a reserve quarterback as a walk-on first-year freshman in 2016.

HIGH SCHOOL: He completed 214-of-385 passes (55.6%) for 3,107 yards with 36 TDs and 9 interceptions (he also ran for 3 scores) as a 2015 senior quarterback at Brentwood School in Los Angeles (Calif.).

He spent his first 3 years (2012-14) of high school at Oaks Christian High in Westlake Village (Calif.). As a 2014 junior, he started the first half of the year and hit 51-of-86 passes (59.3%) of his passes for 477 yards with 2 TDs and 2 interceptions (he set school records for most pass completions, 29, and attempts, 46, in a game).

PERSONAL: He is a business administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.37 GPA). He has 2 siblings who have attended USC.

(36) CHRIS TILBEY
Punter
6-5, 215, Jr.*/Sr.
Melbourne, Australia (Sandringham HS/ San Francisco CC)

2017: Tilbey, who has a background in Australian Rules Football, returns as USC's punter as a junior in 2017 after an effective debut campaign in 2016.

2016: Tilbey was USC's punter as a sophomore in 2016. Overall in 2016 while starting all 13 games, he averaged 38.3 yards on 50 punts. Of his 50 punts in 2016, 18 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line, 20 were fair caught and just 8 were returned (for 50 yards).

Against Alabama, he averaged 40.3 yards on 10 punts, including a 52-yarder, and had 4 pin the Crimson Tide within the 20. Against Utah State, he averaged 41.5 yards on 2 punts. At Stanford, he averaged 36.8 yards on his 5 punts (none were returned and 2 pinned the Cardinal within the 20). At Utah, his only punt pinned the Utes within the 20. Against Arizona State, he averaged 36.3 yards on his 3 punts (1 pinned ASU within the 20). Against Colorado, he averaged 39.3 yards on his 3 punts, with a pair pinning the Buffaloes within the 20 and the other fair caught. At Arizona, he haveraged 36.2 yards on his 4 punts (with 1 pinning the Wildcats within the 20). Against Califorrnia, he averaged 37.5 yards on his 2 punts (with 1 pinning the Golden Bears within the 20). Against Oregon, he averaged 39.8 yards on his 4 punts (with 1 pinning the Ducks within the 20). At Washington, he averaged 31.8 yards on his 4 punts (with 1 pinning the Huskies within the 20). At UCLA, he averaged 38.0 on his 2 punts (both pinned the Bruins within the 20). Against Notre Dame, he averaged 38.5 yards on his 6 punts (2 pinned the Irish within the 20). Against Penn State, he averaged 44.2 yards on his 4 punts, including a 54-yarder.

2015: Tilbey redshirted as a sophomore punter in 2015 after transferring to USC in the fall of 2015 from a junior college. He was awarded a scholarship by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was a punter and tight end as a 2014 freshman at San Francisco (Calif.) City College. He averaged 39.4 yards on 54 punts in 2014, with 19 pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line, 9 being fair caught and 3 touchbacks.

HIGH SCHOOL: He attended Sandringham School, located in a coastal town near Melbourne, Australia. He played Australian Rules Football in 2011 and 2012 for the Beaumaris Football Club, as well as cricket for the Beaumaris Cricket Club. He also played basketball. He spent 2013 training to punt with ProKick Australia.

PERSONAL: He is a political economy major at USC. He is the first Trojan football letterman from Australia.

2016 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 3, Arlington, Texas
Alabama 52, USC 6
Att: 81,359

USC	3	0	3	0	--	6
Alabama	0	17	21	14	--	52

No. 20 USC suffered its worst season-opening loss in history when it fell to top-ranked, defending national champion Alabama, 52-6, in front of 81, 359 fans in soldout AT&T Stadium in Dallas (Tex.) and a national ABC-TV audience.

It snapped USC's 17-year season-opening win streak. The 46-point deficit was Troy's largest losing margin in any game since 1966 (51-0 to Notre Dame). Alabama's 52 points were the most ever surrendered by the Trojans in an opener. It was the fewest points USC has scored since also getting 6 against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and Troy's fewest in an opener since getting 7 against Florida State in 1997. It was the first time USC failed to score a touchdown since a 27-0 loss to Washington in 1997 and the first time doing so in an opener since 1960 (14-0 to Oregon State).

USC had just 164 total yards (only 64 rushing on 30 carries) and 11 first downs while converting only 4-of-18 third downs (and 0-of-2 on fourth downs). The Crimson Tide gained 465 total yards, including 242 on the ground). Alabama averaged 7.4 yards per play to USC's 2.9.

USC got off to a quick start in the game, as PK Matt Boermeester nailed a 47-yard field goal (his first attempt as a Trojan) on opening drive. Troy held Alabama to just 12 total yards in the opening quarter.

But then the Crimson Tide struck quickly midway through the second period while USC started to sputter. WR ArDarius Stewart pulled down a 39-yard scoring throw from QB Jalen Hurts, then PK Adam Griffith hit a 29-yard field goal on the Tide's next possession and soon after CB Marlon Humphrey ran back an interception 18 yards for a TD to give Alabama a 17-3 halftime edge.

The Tide scored touchdowns on 5 of their first 6 possessions of the second half, first on a 71-yard Hurts pass to Stewart 3 plays into the half, then on 7- and 6-yard runs by Hurts, followed by a 2-yard run by RB Bo Scarborough at the top of the fourth quarter and capped by a 45-yard aerial from QB Blake Barnett to WR Gehrig Dieter. USC was able to counter with only a 41-yard Boermeester field goal late in the third quarter.

QB Max Browne, making his first USC start, hit his first 7 passes and ended up 14-of-29 for 101 yards with the interception, while QB Sam Darnold added 29 yards on 4-of-8 passing. TB Ronald Jones had 46 yards on 7 carries. WRs Deontay Burnett (26 yards) and Steve Mitchell (22 yards) each had 4 receptions.

For Alabama, RB Damien Harris gained 138 yards on 9 carries and Hurts was 6-of-11 for 118 yards and also ran for 32 yards on 9 tries, while Barnett was 5-of-6 for 100 yards. Stewart caught 4 passes for 113 yards.

DE Porter Gustin and ILB Michael Hutchings each had a game-high 9 tackles (Smith also recovered a fumble) and CB Iman Marshall had a pick.

It was the teams' first meeting since 1985 and USC's first visit to the Dallas area in 21 years. It also was just the fourth time that USC ever played inside. Calling the offensive plays for Alabama was former USC head coach Lane Kiffin.

GAME 2 – September 10, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Utah State 7
Att: 62,487

Utah State	0	0	7	0	--	7
USC	7	14	10	14	--	45

Behind a pair of touchdown passes each from QBs Max Browne and Sam Darnold--including 2 to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster--and a scoring punt return by CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, USC bounced back from its season-opening loss by blowing out Utah State in its home opener, 45-7, before 62,487 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Network audience.

USC was never threatened, building a 31-0 lead late in the third quarter. The Trojans had 422 total yards (178 rushing after getting just 64 in the opener) on 81 plays and limited the Aggies to 253 total yards (just 49 on the ground after they had 428 the previous week) on 65 plays. Troy also had 29 first downs to USU's 13 (the Aggies converted just 6-of-16 third downs).

After WR Michael Pittman blocked a USU punt early in the first quarter, Browne threw his first career TD pass when he found Smith-Schuster on a 3-yarder. Then midway through the second quarter, Darnold threw for his first career score on a 13-yard pass to WR Deontay Burnett (his first career TD grab). Later in the quarter, S Leon McQuay III picked off an Aggie pass, leading to a 2-yard TD toss from Browne to WR Steven Mitchell Jr. with 19 seconds to go.

USC scored on its first 2 possessions of the second half, a 20-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester and then on Jackson's 77-yard punt runback. After Utah State responded with QB Kent Myers' 6-yard touchown pass to TE Wyatt Houston at the end of the third quarter, added 2 fourth quarter touchdowns on Darnold's 15-yard aerial to Smith-Schuster and a 2-yard run by TB Aca'Cedric Ware.

Browne completed 23-of-30 passes for 182 yards (with a pick) and Darnold was 5-of-7 for 62 yards, and they became the first pair of Trojans to each throw at least 2 TDs in a game since Brad Otton and Matt Koffler did so in 1994 against California. WR Darreus Rogers (82 yards) and Smith-Schuster (56 yards) each had 7 receptions (career highs for Rogers). TB Justin Davis had a game-best 70 yards on 16 rushes, while Ware added 57 yards on 11 carries. ILB Cameron Smith led USC with 13 tackles (1 for a loss) and S Chris Hawkins had 8 stops.

For Utah State, Myers was 25-of-37 for 204 passing yards.

The game's 11 a.m. kickoff was the earliest for a Trojan home game since at least the early 1950s.

GAME 3 – September 17, Palo Alto, California
Stanford 27, USC 10
Att: 48,763

USC	3	0	7	0	--	10
Stanford	7	10	10	0	--	27

RB Christian McCaffrey had 260 all-purpose yards, including 172 on the ground, and scored twice to lead No. 7 Stanford to a 27-10 win over USC before 48,763 fans in Palo Alto and a national ABC-TV audience.

It was the first Pac-12 game of 2016.

Stanford had 404 total yards in the game (302 rushing) to USC's 353 and held the ball for 34:14, while the Trojans had 8 penalties (6 false starts) to the Cardinal's 3 and Troy converted just 4-of-12 third downs.

USC fell behind 17-3 at halftime as it was hampered by 7 penalties (5 were motion penalties) and it failed to convert on any of its 4 third down tries. After QB Ryan Burns found a wide-open McCaffrey for a 56-yard TD late in the first quarter on a busted coverage, USC responded with PK Matt Boermeester's 47-yard field goal. But Stanford countered right back with a 31-yard field goal by PK Conrad Ukropina midway through the second quarter. The Cardinal scored again on its next possession, as McCaffrey ran for a 1-yard score late in the half.

USC opened the second half with a 1-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones to pull within 17-10, but Stanford responded by scoring on its next 2 series, first a 42-yard Ukropina field goal and then a 56-yard end-around TD by WR Michael Rector late in the third quarter. USC got into Stanford territory on all 3 of its fourth-quarter possessions but couldn't convert on any of them.

Jones (11 carries) and TB Justin Davis each ran for 63 yards for USC, QB Max Browne hit 18-of-28 passes for 191 yards and QB Sam Darnold was 5-of-7 for 45 yards and WR Steven Mitchell caught 5 passes for 55 yards. ILB Michael Hutchings had a game-best 7 tackles, while CBs Adoree' Jackson and Iman Marshall and ILB Cameron Smith each added 6 tackles (Jackson also had an interception and a deflection).

McCaffrey's 172 rushing yards came on 31 carries and he added 66 yards on 3 receptions and a 22-yard kickoff return. Burns was 8-of-14 passing for 102 yards.

GAME 4 – September 23, Salt Lake City, Utah
Utah 31, USC 27
Att: 46,133

USC	7	10	7	3	--	27
Utah	7	3	7	14	--	31

WR Tim Patrick caught an 18-yard touchdown pass from QB Troy Williams with 16 seconds to play to help No. 24 Utah overcome a 10-point deficit midway through the fourth quarter and defeat USC, 31-27, on a drizzling, chilly (mid-40s) Friday night in front of a sold-out crowd of 46,133 fans in Salt Lake City and a FS1 national television audience.

It was Troy's second straight visit to Utah that resulted in a last-second loss (in 2014, it came on a TD pass with 8 seconds to go). The loss pushed USC to its slowest start (1-3) since 2001.

Utah turned a recovery of a Trojan fumble on the game's opening series into a 10-yard TD run by Williams. But USC CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson raced 100 yards with the ensuing kickoff to tie the score (it was his third career scoring kick return, including a school record-tying 2 that covered 100 yards, with the other in 2014 also at Utah). The Utes tacked on a 36-yard field goal by PK Andy Phllips midway through the second quarter after recovering their third USC fumble. But USC countered with a 14-yard TD run by TB Justin Davis followed by a 32-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester just before halftime.

The Trojans built their lead to 24-10 midway into the third quarter as QB Sam Darnold raced for an 8-yard TD, but Utah answered right back by driving 85 yards, with OG Isaac Asiata recovering a short Ute fumble in the end zone. Boermeester tacked on a 43-yard field goal at the top of the fourth quarter for a 27-17 USC edge.

But Utah used 2 long TD drives on their only possessions of the final quarter, first seeing Williams hit WR Raelon Singleton with a 10-yard scoring toss with 9:45 to play before throwing the game-winner to Patrick that capped a 15-play, 93-yard drive in which the Utes converted a pair of fourth downs.

Utah ran off 22 more plays (81) than USC and held the ball 37:29. The Trojans had the ball just 9:21 in the first half (only 2:33 in the first quarter) while fumbling away the ball on its first 3 possessions, each while driving in Utah territory. The Utes also had 30 first downs to USC's 22 and although they converted just 5-of-13 third downs, they were good on all 4 of their fourth down tries (including 3 times in the fourth quarter). Despite all that, USC had a season-best 466 total yards while averaging 7.9 yards per play, converted 6-of-10 third downs and punted only once.

Darnold was impressive in his first career start (he became just the sixth USC redshirt freshman to start at quarterback; 3 true frosh have also done so), hitting 18-of-26 passes for 253 yards and he added 41 yards on 9 runs. Davis ran for a game-high 126 yards on just 10 carries, his fourth career 100-yard outing. WR JuJu Smith-Schuster caught a game-best 8 passes for 98 yards and WR Darreus Rogers added 5 grabs for 58 yards. ILB Cameron Smith had a game-high 15 tackles with a forced fumble and pass deflection, Utah native DE Porter Gustin added 13 tackles, DT Stevie Tu'ikolovatu (who transferred to USC from Utah) had 9 stops and Jackson had 7 tackles, 2 deflections and a fumble recovery.

For Utah, Williams was 21-of-34 for 270 yards, Patrick caught 6 passes for 100 yards and RB Zack Moss had 90 yards on 23 carries while RB Armand Shyne added 62 yards on 14 carries.

GAME 5 – October 1, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 41, Arizona State 20
Att: 71,214

Arizona State	6	0	0	14	--	20
USC	7	20	14	0	--	41

QB Sam Darnold threw for 352 yards, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster caught 3 TD passes, TB Justin Davis ran for 123 yards with a score and USC's defense shut down Arizona State's high-powered offense while giving the Sun Devils their first loss of 2016, 41-20, before 71,214 fans in the Coliseum and a FOX national television audience.

It was USC's fifth consecutive home victory, its most since 12 straight from 2007 to 2009.

USC piled up a season-high 523 total yards (averaging 7.6 yards per play), including 157 rushing against an ASU defense that was allowing just 95.0 on the ground. And Troy held an ASU offense that was averaging 48.8 points and 507.8 total yards (including 236.5 rushing) to season lows in points and total yards (303, including just 75 on the ground). USC had 23 first downs to ASU's 16, but the Trojans converted just 3-of-13 third downs.

After PK Zane Gonzalez gave the Sun Devils a 3-0 lead midway through the opening quarter, USC converted an interception by CB Jonathan Lockett into a 5-yard Darnold TD pass to Smith-Schuster to cap a 95-yard drive. But ASU answered right back at the end of the quarter with a 34-yard Gonzalez field goal, giving him the Pac-12 career field goal record.

USC then went on a 34-point scoring binge, including getting 20 points on all 4 of its second quarter possessions. Darnold and Smith-Schuster hooked up on a 3-yard scoring pass midway through the quarter, then PK Matt Boermeester nailed a carreer-long 49-yard field goal, followed by a 37-yard TD run by Davis and a 46-yard Boermeester field goal with 20 second left in the half. In the third quarter, Smith-Schuster turned a short hitch pass from Darnold into a 67-yard cut-back-against-the-grain score. On USC's next drive, Darnold ran for a 3-yard TD midway through the third quarter.

ASU scored twice in the fouth quarter against USC's reserves, for on a 13-yard pass from QB Brady White to TE Raymond Epps and then on a 10-yard run by RB Nick Ralston late in the game.

Darnold completed 23-of-33 passes, Davis' yards came on just 14 carries (for an 8.8 average) and Smith-Schuster (123 yards) and WR Deontay Burnett (93 yards) each had 7 receptions. Lockett and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson each had a team-best 5 tackles.

For ASU, QB Manny Wilkins was 13-of-24 for 148 yards before leaving the game with an injury late in the first half, WR Tim White (whose father, Timmy, played at USC, as did his uncle, Lonnie) caught 7 passes for 84 yards and returned 4 kickoffs for 65 yards and Ralston rushed for 46 yards on 12 tries.

It was USC's 600th game in the Coliseum. USC's Rio Olympians were saluted at halftime (Allyson Felix, USC's most decorated Olympian, became the first woman to run the Trojans out of the tunnel prior to the game).

GAME 6 – October 8, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 21, Colorado 17
Att: 68,302

Colorado	0	0	7	10	--	17
USC	7	7	0	7	--	21

QB Sam Darnold threw for a career-best 358 yards with 3 touchdowns, including a pair to TE Tyler Petite, and USC's defense shut down a potent Buffalo offense to help the Trojans defeat No. 21 Colorado, 21-17, on a hot day (90 degrees) in the Coliseum in front of 68,302 fans and a Pac-12 Network audience.

It kept Troy undefeated in 11 tries against Colorado.

USC piled up a season-high 548 yards of total offense against a Buffalo defense that was allowing just 290.4 total yards (including only 150.4 passing). And the Trojans limited CU's offense, which was averaging 531.2 total yards (218.6 rushing) and 43.2 points, to just 371 total yards (only 96 rushing). USC had more first downs (28 to 20) and plays (80 to 73), held the ball 32:18, was penalized just twice, posted 4 sacks and limited CU to 6-of-17 on third down conversions, but Troy had 4 turnovers, including 3 while driving in Buffalo territory (one lost fumble went into the CU end zone).

USC held a 14-0 halftime lead on Darnold TD throws to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe (32 yards) late in the first quarter and then to Petite (11 yards after scrambling with a botched handoff) late in the half, the first time since 2011 that a pair of USC tight ends caught TD passes in a game (Randall Telfer and Xavier Grimble versus Syracuse).

But on the play after recovering a Trojan fumble early in the second half, Colorado WR Bryce Bobo took a lateral and threw a 67-yard TD pass to TB Phillip Lindsay. CU tied the game early in the fourth quarter on Bobo's 10-yard grab of a pass from QB Steven Montez. But on the ensuing possession, the Trojans drove 70 yards, capped by Darnold's 7-yard TD toss to Petite. The Buffaloes responded with a 42-yard field goal by PK Davis Price with 4:49 to go, but USC was able to run out the clock.

Darnold completed 25-of-37 aerials to become the first USC freshman to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games (he had 352 versus Arizona State the previous week) since Todd Marinovich in 1989 did so versus Notre Dame and Stanford, but Darnold lost 2 fumbles and threw an interception. WR Steven Mitchell had 6 receptions for 63 yards, while WR JuJu Smith-Schuster added 5 grabs for 113 yards. TB Justin Davis ran for a game-best 92 yards on 13 carries before going out with an ankle injury in the third quarter.

OLB Uchenna Nwosu led USC with a career-high 10 tackles, with a sack, and had 2 deflections, CB Iman Marshall added 9 tackles and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson had 6 tackles and a spectacular tip-toe-the-sideline interception to go along with a 38-yard kickoff return (to tie him for the USC career kickoff return yardage record) and 4 punt returns for 50 yards.

For Colorado, Montez was 25-of-40 for 197 yards, including 10 that were caught by Bobo for 83 yards.

GAME 7 – October 15, Tucson, Arizona
USC 48, Arizona 14
Att: 55,463

USC	14	20	7	7	--	48
Arizona	7	0	0	7	--	14

QB Sam Darnold threw a USC freshman record 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster, and the Trojan defense came up with 4 turnovers as USC won its first road game of 2016, 48-14, at Arizona on a hot (93 degrees) afternoon in front of an announced sold-out crowd of 55,463 (although only half showed up and most were gone by halftime) and a FOX national TV audience.

USC's offense rolled up 500-plus yards for the third consecutive week (574, while averaging 7.4 yards per play), including 320 rushing (its most since getting 342 against San Jose State in 2009). Troy held the ball 35:24, converted 7-of-13 third downs and had no turnovers. Arizona had 343 total yards, but just 134 in the first half (only 4 passing while hitting 1-of-7 attempts) to trail 34-7 before USC substituted liberally in the second half.

The teams traded touchdows early in the contest, with TB Ronald Jones getting a 5-yard scoring run on USC's game-opening drive and then Wildcat true freshman QB Khalil Tate getting a 3-yard TD run later in the first quarter. USC then scored the next 5 TDs (all on Darnold passes), first an 11-yarder by WR Deontay Burnett from a scrambling Darnold at the end of the first quarter, then an 8-yarder by TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe after CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson's fumble recovery on Arizona's ensuing possession and finally a trio to Smith-Schuster (3 yards after an interception by CB Iman Marshall and 39 yards to cap consecutive drives to end the first half and 46 yards on USC's first series of the second half). After Matt Morin, an Arizona tight end working at quarterback, threw a 7-yard TD to WR Samajie Grant early in the fourth quarter against USC's reserves, USC countered with a 21-yard TD run by TB Aca'Cedric Ware.

Darnold was 20-of-32 passing for 235 yards and added 54 yards on 6 runs (the most rushing yards in a game by a USC quarterback since Carson Palmer's 60 versus Kansas State in 2001) while playing just the first 3 quarters. Smith-Schuster had 9 receptions for 132 yards. Ware had a game-high and career-best 103 yards on 12 carries, while TB Dominic Davis added a career-high 89 yards on 7 tries (including an 85-yard run, USC's longest since LaVale Woods' 96-yarder versus Oregon State in 1996) and Jones had 77 yards on 16 carries while starting. S Chris Hawkins led USC with 5 stops and a forced fumble, while late in the game CB Ajene Harris had an interception and DE Connor Murphy had a fumble recovery.

Tate led Arizona with 72 yards on 14 rushes and completed 7-of-18 passes for 58 yards, while Morin was 4-of-8 for 84 yards.

GAME 8 – October 27, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, California 24
Att: 61,725

California	0	10	7	7	--	24
USC	14	14	14	3	--	45

TB Ronald Jones II ran for a career-high 223 yards and scored twice, while QB Sam Darnold threw 5 TD passes to lead USC to a dominant 45-24 victory over California in a Thursday night game in the Coliseum in front of 61,725 fans and an ESPN audience.

It kept the Trojans, coming off a bye, undefeated against the Golden Bears since 2003. It was just USC's fourth non-holiday Thursday home game.

Jones' yardage came on 18 carries for a 12.4 average per rush and included non-scoring bursts of 61 (on USC's opening play) and 42 yards (he also caught 2 passes for 18 yards). It was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen Bradford also had 223 yards against Washington in 2010. Jones became the 18th Trojan to eclipse the 200-yard rushing barrier (accomplished 45 times by those runners) and the first since Javorius Allen had 205 yards against Arizona in 2014.

Fellow TB Aca'Cedric Ware ran for a career-best for the second consecutive week, getting 130 yards on 20 carries, which marked the first time that a pair of Trojans rushed for at least 100 yards in a game since the 2013 Oregon State contest when Silas Redd had 140 and Allen had 135.

Darnold completed 72.0% of his passes (18-of-25) for 231 yards, but he threw a late interception and lost fumbles twice to set up Cal scores. After also throwing 5 TDs the previous game at Arizona, Darnold became the first Trojan to throw 5 scores in back-to-back games. It was his fourth straight outing with at least 3 TD passes. He set the USC season freshman touchdown pass record.

WRs Darreus Rogers (career-high 97 yards) and JuJu Smith-Schuster (66 yards) each had 6 receptions, with Rogers catching a pair of touchdowns.

USC rolled up a season-high 629 total yards, its fourth straight game with at least 500 yards and its most since getting 737 against Idaho in 2015 (it was also the most allowed by Cal in 2016). Troy averaged 8.9 yards per play. The Trojans ran for 398 yards, their most since getting 430 against UCLA in 2005. After running for 320 yards at Arizona, it was USC's first back-to-back 300-yard rushing performances since 2005 (208 versus Fresno State followed by that UCLA game). USC was penalized 13 times, its most since getting 14 against Cal in 2014.

USC built a 21-0 lead before Cal scored and Troy held a 28-10 halftime lead while compiling 451 total yards (260 rushing) and 21 first downs. Jones had 149 of his rushing yards in the opening half and Darnold hit 13-of-18 passes in that half.

Darnold hit Rogers for a 3-yard score on USC's first possession and he came right back with a 16-yard TD toss to Jones on the next series to cap a 95-yard drive. He then hit WR Deontay Burnett for a 13-yard TD early in the second quarter. Cal took advantage of Darnold's fumbles by scoring on consecutive drives later in the half, first a 22-yard pass from QB Davis Webb to RB Tre Watson and then a 27-yard field goal by PK Matt Anderson. But USC responded late in the half on another Darnold-to-Rogers TD toss, this one for 20 yards.

Cal scored on its first possession of the second half on a 1-yard run by Webb to pull within 11 again, but USC countered with touchdowns on its next 2 series, first a 37-yard Jones run and then a 17-yard Darnold pass to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe late in the third quarter. Cal countered with a 16-yard Davis scoring aerial to WR Melquise Stovall early in the fourth quarter. USC PK Matt Boermeester tacked on a 32-yard field goal late in the game to close out the scoring.

Cal ended up with 475 total yards (333 passing), but was just 3-of-12 on third down conversions (0-of-5 in the first half). Its points were a season low (the Bears were averaging 43.7). Webb was 34-of-53 for 333 yards with 2 TDs and an interception. Stovall (87 yards) and WR Demetris Robertson (92 yards) each had 9 receptions, while RB Khalfani Muhammad ran for 89 yards on 15 carries.

S Marvell Tell III had 8 tackles, a pick and a deflection for USC, while S Leon McQuay III had 8 stops (1 for a loss) and OLB Uchenna Nwosu had 7 tackles and a forced fumble (recovered by CB Ajene Harris). CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, with 2 kick returns for 56 yards, became USC's career kickoff return yardage leader.

GAME 9 – November 5, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Oregon 20
Att: 74,625

Oregon	6	0	7	7	--	20
USC	17	7	14	7	--	45

TB Ronald Jones II tied a USC game record by rushing for 4 touchdowns, QB Sam Darnold threw 2 TDs and USC's defense shut down Oregon's potent offense as the Trojans posted a 45-20 victory over the Ducks in front of 74,625 Homecoming fans in the Coliseum and a national ESPN audience.

Jones had scoring runs of 23, 3, 66 and 1 yards to become the 14th Trojan to run for 4 TDs in a game (most recently, LenDale White versus Arizona in 2005).

Troy's defense limited the Ducks, who came into the game averaging 519.1 total yards (248.0 rushing) and 40.5 points, to their fewest total yards since 2009 (288, including 85 rushing) and a season-low point total. USC had 579 total yards (the fifth straight game over 500 yards) while averaging 7.1 yards on its 81 plays, 28 first downs, 34:51 of possession time, 9-of-14 third down conversions and 3 sacks. Oregon had just 19 first downs, 67 plays and converted only 5-of-16 third downs, while punting 8 times (its most since 2012).

USC scored on its first 3 possessions, building a 17-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester field goal and Jones' first 2 TD runs (23 and 3 yards), before Oregon countered on a 25-yard reverse run by WR Charles Nelson late in the first quarter. Darnold hit WR Deontay Burnett with a 2-yard scoring toss late in the first half to give USC a 24-6 halftime edge, then Jones jetted 66 yards on the third play after the intermission. Oregon responded on its next series, with QB Justin Herbert hitting TE Pharaoh Brown for a 5-yard touchdown to cap a 12-play, 80-yard drive. USC then scored on consecutive possessions, first on Darnold's 7-yard TD strike to TE Taylor McNamara late in the third quarter and then on Jones' final TD run (1 yard). Oregon got a late TD against USC's backups on a 15-yard run by QB Dakota Prukop (whose grandfather played at USC).

Jones ran for 171 yards on a career-high 20 carries (8.6 average per rush), Darnold hit 70.0% of his throws (28-of-40, both career highs) for 309 yards but had an interception and Burnett caught a game-high and career-best 7 passes for 87 yards. ILB Cameron Smith led USC with 8 tackles and 2 deflections, while S Chris Hawkins had 7 stops and DT Rasheem Green had 1.5 sacks among his 6 tackles.

For Oregon, Herbert was 18-of-33 for 162 yards, including 5 completions to Brown for 30 yards.

GAME 10 – November 12, Seattle, Washington
USC 26, Washington 13
Att: 72,364

USC	3	14	0	9	--	26
Washington	3	3	7	0	--	13

QB Sam Darnold threw a pair of touchdown passes, CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson picked off 2 passes and the Trojan defense allowed just 17 rushing yards as USC upset No. 4 Washington, 26-13, in front of a sold out crowd of 72,364 fans in loud, chilly Husky Stadium and a FOX national TV audience.

It snapped the Huskies' 12-game winning streak and dampened their hopes for a College Football Playoff berth, while extending USC's win streak to 6 and kept Troy alive in the Pac-12 South race.

USC shut down a Washington offense that was second nationally in scoring (48.3) and was averaging 499.4 total yards. The Huskies managed just 276 total yards (they entered the game leading the Pac-12 in rushing at 231.0). It was the fewest rushing yards allowed by USC since Washington State had 7 in 2013 and it was Washington's lowest rushing total since minus 5 versus Arizona State in 2013. Washington QB Jake Browning, the nation's passing efficiency leader who was regarded as a Heisman Trophy contender, completed just 47.2% of his passes (17-of-36) for 259 yards but was intercepted twice (he had thrown just 3 picks all year). And USC's offense had 400 yards against a Husky defense that was allowing just 329.8 yards and 17.0 points. USC was in control almost the entire game.

The teams traded field goals late in the first quarter, first a 43-yarder by Washington PK Cameron Van Winkle followed on the following series by USC PK Matt Boermeester's 38-yarder. The Huskies had outscored opponents, 128-20, in the first quarter in 2016.

Following an interception by Jackson early in the second quarter, Darnold connected with WR Darreus Rogers on a 13-yard TD, the first time the Huskies trailed at home in 2016. Van Winkle hit a 39-yard field goal on the ensuing drive, but USC answered with a 4-yard scoring run by TB Ronald Jones II with 28 seconds to play in the half to give the Trojans a 17-6 lead, the first time in 2016 that Washington trailed at the intermission.

Browning hit WR John Ross on a 70-yard TD midway through the third quarter and the Huskies got the ball back 2 plays later on Darnold's second intercepted pass, but DT Rasheem Green blocked a Van Winkle field goal try and the Trojans turned that into another TD, this one on an 8-yard Darnold pass to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe at the top of the fourth quarter. USC added a safety with 58 seconds to go when Browning went down in his end zone.

USC had more first downs (21 to 13), held the ball for 32:37, converted 7-of-13 third downs (UW was just 6-of-17) and sacked Browning 3 times.

Darnold completed 69.7% of his throws (23-of-33) for 287 yards, Jones ran for 93 yards on a career-high 23 carries, Rogers had 6 catches for 84 yards and Imatorbhebhe added 5 grabs for 78 yards. ILB Michael Hutchings had a game-best 9 tackles and OLB Porter Gustin had 2 sacks.

For UW, Ross had 8 receptions for 154 yards and TB Myles Gaskin ran for 51 yards on 15 tries.

It was USC's first visit to Husky Stadium since 2009. The crowd was the largest in Husky Stadium since it was renovated in 2013. ESPN's pre-game College GameDay show broadcast from the UW campus that morning.

GAME 11 – November 19, Pasadena, California
USC 36, UCLA 14
Att: 71,137

USC	7	16	7	6	--	36
UCLA	7	7	0	0	--	14

TB Ronald Jones II rushed for a pair of touchdowns, WR De'Quan Hampton caught a pair of TDs from QB Sam Darnold and PK Matt Boermeester kicked 3 field goals as No. 15 USC held the ball nearly 44 minutes, limited the Bruins to just 266 total yards and scored the game's final 29 points to post a decisive 36-14 victory over crosstown rival UCLA on a chilly night in the Rose Bowl before 71,137 fans and an ESPN audience.

The win kept the Trojans alive in the Pac-12 South Division race. It was USC's most points against the Bruins in the Rose Bowl since 2002 and it was UCLA's biggest losing margin of 2016.

USC rolled up 527 total yards (260 rushing) against a Bruin defense that was yielding just 356.1 overall and 160.3 on the ground. Troy had 326 total yards at halftime (163 rushing). USC had 31 first downs to UCLA's 10 (the fewest allowed by the Trojans since California had 10 in 2010) and ran off 95 plays to UCLA's 51 (USC's most since getting 95 versus Arizona State in 2014 and fewest allowed since Boston College had 50 in 2013) while holding the ball for 43:47 (USC's most since at least 1984 when records were available). The Trojans converted 12-of-21 third downs to UCLA's 2-of-11.

The teams traded TDs on their first possessions, with Bruin QB Mike Fafaul hitting WR Jordan Lasley for a 56-yard score on the game's fourth play and USC responding with a 1-yard scoring run by Jones. DT Rasheem Green blocked a UCLA field goal try at the top of the second quarter, but the Bruins got the ball right back following an interception, leading to a 7-yard Fafaul-to-Lasley touchdown.

But the Trojans then went on their 29-point scoring binge. On third-and-1 on the ensuing possession, Jones burst 60 yards for a TD. Then Hampton leaped high to snag a 31-yard Darnold TD toss on USC's next series and the Trojans closed out the half with a 30-yard Boermeester field goal with 8 seconds left to go up 23-14.

UCLA had the ball only 5:56 of the second half and managed just 102 total yards (only 10 rushing). USC scored on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 6-yard Darnold-to-Hampton touchdown pass, then on Boermeester field goals of 32 and 25 yards in the fourth quarter.

Overall, Jones ran for 121 yards on 18 carries, Darnold was 25-of-36 for 267 yards (but threw 2 picks) and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 8 receptions for 76 yards despite coming in and out of the game several times with a hip injury. CB Ajene Harris led USC with 5 tackles.

Fafaul was 15-of-31 passing for 181 yards, including 6 passes to WR Darren Andrews for 62 yards.

GAME 12 – November 26, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Notre Dame 27
Att: 72,402

Notre Dame	7	0	14	6	--	27
USC	10	14	14	7	--	45

CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson scored touchdowns on a punt return, kickoff return and pass reception, TB Ronald Jones II ran for 134 yards with a score and QB Sam Darnold threw a pair of TDs, while the Trojan defense posted 6 sacks and limited the Irish to 5-of-17 third down conversions, as No. 12 USC beat intersectional rival Notre Dame, 45-27, on a rainy, cool afternoon in front of 72,402 fans in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV audience.

It was the Irish's largest loss in a game since a 49-14 defeat to USC in 2014 and marked the first time that ND came to the Coliseum with a losing record since 1986. It also gave USC its first perfect home record (6-0) in a season since 2008 and was just the 20th time that the Trojans defeated both rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in a season (the first since 2011). It was the final home game for 15 USC seniors.

After PK Matt Boermeester got USC on the board on the game's opening series with a 37-yard field goal, Notre Dame struck back quickly on QB DeShone Kizer's 1-yard run, just 1 snap after RB Josh Adams raced 74 yards on ND's first play. But USC answered right back as Jones jetted 51 yards for a score. Then, in the final 2 minutes of the first half, USC scored twice within 17 seconds to go up 24-7, first on Jackson's 55-yard punt return (the fourth scoring punt runback in his career to tie a school record) and then 2 plays later on CB Ajene Harris' 33-yard interception return.

Notre Dame turned a fumble recovery early in the second half into a TD, as Kizer hit WR Chris Finke for a 14-yard score. But USC responded on its following possession, with Jackson taking a Darnold pass 52 yards for a touchdown. After Kizer hit WR Kevin Stepherson for a 29-yard TD late in the third quarter, Jackson took the ensuing kickoff back 97 yards for a touchdown. USC scored again on its next possession after CB Jack Jones recovered a fumble and then Darnold found WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 2-yard TD. The Irish closed the scoring late in the game against USC's reserves on QB Malik Zaire's 15-yard TD toss to WR Equanimeous St. Brown.

Statistically, the game was even as USC had slightly more yards (412 to 408, including 207 rushing yards by Troy) despite having 8 less plays than Notre Dame's 76 and both teams had 23 first downs.

Jackson had 291 all-purpose yards (161 on 4 kickoff returns and 66 on 3 punt returns along with the 52-yard reception and a 12-yard rush) and became the first Trojan since at least 1953 to having scoring kick and punt runbacks in a game. Jones's 134 rushing yards came on 16 carries (an 8.4 yard average per rush) and he eclipsed the 1,000-yard season rushing barrier. Darnold was 19-of-29 for 205 yards. ILB Cameron Smith had a game-best 10 tackles, while DE Porter Gustin added 8 stops, including 1.5 sacks.

For Notre Dame, Adams had 180 yards on 17 tries (a 10.6 average), the most yards by a runner against USC in 2016, along with 2 catches for 30 yards, while Kizer threw for 220 yards on 17-of-32 passing and St. Brown had 7 receptions for 94 yards.

GAME 13 – January 2, Pasadena, California
Rose Bowl
USC 52, Penn State 49
Att: 95,128

USC	13	14	8	17	--	52
Penn State	0	21	28	0	--	49

After QB Sam Darnold threw a Rose Bowl-record 5 touchdowns, PK Matt Boermeester rebounded from a pair of earlier missed field goal attempts to nail a 46-yarder at the gun to help No. 9 USC overcome a 14-point fourth quarter deficit and propel the Trojans to a wild and legend-making 52-49 victory over No. 5 Penn State in the 103rd Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 95,128 fans on a chilly Jan. 2 afternoon and an ESPN national audience.

It was the highest scoring Rose Bowl in history (by 18 points), as well as the largest fourth quarter deficit a team has overcome to win a Rose Bowl (USC also was down by 15 points in the third quarter, marking the largest victorious comeback from any point in a Rose Bowl).

The victory not only snapped Penn State's 9-game winning streak, it extended USC's winning string to 9 games and gave the Trojans their 26th 10-win season. It also upped Troy's Rose Bowl record to 25-8 (not including 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty).

Darnold, the game's Offensive MVP, was 33-of-53 passing for 453 yards (all were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl) and he set a Rose Bowl total offense record of 473 yards. He was 10-of-10 for 135 yards in the fourth quarter while leading USC on 2 long scoring drives in the final 9 minutes to tie the score and set the stage for Boermeester's game winner.

WR Deontay Burnett caught 13 passes for 164 yards, with a Rose Bowl record-tying 3 TDs (all career bests). His 13 receptions were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl.

Boermeester, who hit a pair of first quarter field goals but also missed 51- and 44-yarders in the first half, tied a Rose Bowl record with his trio of 3-pointers. It was only the fourth time ever that USC won a game on a field goal at 0:00.

Boermeester's game winner was set up by a 32-yard third down interception return by S Leon McQuay III with 27 seconds to play, just one snap after McQuay dropped a potential pick on a similar long pass.

The teams, which together put up 1,040 yards of total offense, set Rose Bowl game records for total touchdowns (13), passing TDs (9) and passing first downs (35).

USC set Rose Bowl records for first downs (33) and passing first downs (23), its 453 passing yards was just 3 shy of the Rose Bowl mark and Troy finished in the Top 5 on the Rose Bowl charts for pass attempts (54), completions (33), plays (88), total yards (575), touchdowns (6), field goals (3) and points (52).

USC held the ball for 33:21 and converted 8-of-15 third downs, but was penalized 10 times.

Penn State rolled up 465 total yards, including 211 rushing, and 23 first downs on 62 plays, but converted just 4-of-10 third downs and turned the ball over 3 times. At one point, PSU scored on 7 consecutive drives, including on 4 straight offensive plays. Its 49 points were the most by a Rose Bowl losing team, while its 28 third quarter points were the most ever in any Rose Bowl quarter. The Nittany Lions were held scoreless in the first and fourth quarters (managing just 52 yards), including only 14 yards in the final quarter when it failed to convert on all 4 third downs tries.

PSU RB Saquon Barkley ran for 194 yards on 25 carries along with 5 catches for 55 yards and 2 kick returns for 57 yards for 306 all-purpose yards, QB Trace McSorley was 18-of-29 for 254 yards and 4 TDs but threw 3 picks and WR Chris Godwin had 9 catches for 187 yards.

CB Iman Marshall and then CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson picked off McSorley's first 2 passes of the game and USC converted the second one into a touchdown on a 26-yard Darnold aerial to Burnett, the first of 5 scores on consecutive first-half drives for the Trojans. Boermeester then hit 22- and 44-yard field goals late in the first quarter to get Troy off to a 13-0 start.

But Penn State responded as Barkley had a 24-yard scoring run early in the second quarter, the first of its 7 consecutive TD drives. USC countered with a 3-yard TD toss from Darnold to Burnett, only to have Penn State answer back on McSorley's 30-yard scoring pass to Godwin. USC built the margin back to 13 points on Darnold's 3-yard TD pass to WR Darreus Rogers, but PSU pulled within 27-21 at halftime on McSorley's 11-yard TD throw to TE Mike Gesicki with 54 seconds left, the first of 4 TDs the Nittany Lions would score on consecutive offensive plays.

After a USC drive stalled to open the second half, Barkley jetted 79 yards for a score on PSU's first play (the longest run surrendered by USC in 2016). On the first play of Penn State's next possession, Godwin hauled in a 72-yard McSorley bomb for a touchdown (the longest pass allowed by USC in 2016) and, after Darnold was intercepted deep in Trojan territory on USC's next drive, McSorley raced 3 yards on the following play to put the Nittany Lions up 42-27 just 10:26 into the third quarter. USC ended PSU's 28-point scoring run on its ensuring drive by getting a 13-yard Darnold scoring toss to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (Troy added a 2-point conversion on a Darnold pass to TE Taylor McNamara), but the Nittany Lions responded with an 82-yard scoring march late in the third quarter, capped by McSorley's 7-yard TD pass to Barkley to give PSU a 49-35 lead.

After failed possessions by both teams, USC closed the gap after a 3-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones II with 8:15 to play to finish an 83-yard drive. USC forced Nittany Lion punts on their next 2 series, with Troy getting the ball back on its own 20 with 1:59 to go and taking just 3 plays to tie the game at 49 all on Darnold's 27-yard TD strike to Burnett, who broke off his flat route and instead ran to the post. The Trojans forced Penn State into third-and-9 on its next drive, setting up McQuay to make his dramatic interception.

Smith-Schuster had 7 grabs for 133 yards in the game and Jones, who wore jersey #4 in honor of late USC TB Joe McKnight (the entire team wore a JM4 helmet sticker), ran for 55 yards on 20 carries.

DT Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who was the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, led USC with 8 tackles, while McQuay had 7.

The attendance was the Rose Bowl's largest since 1998 and the most for a USC game since 106,033 at Ohio State in 2009. The 55-degree temperature at kickoff was the coolest since the 1974 Rose Bowl (also 55). The game lasted 4 hours and 12 minutes (USC's longest since the 2012 Syracuse game, 4:24). The ESPN College GameDay pre-game show emanated from the stadium's field.

USC'S Record vs. Conference Foes

The information in this opponents' year-by-year section is, reading from left to right: (1) year; (2) date (with "Th" indicating a game played on Thanksgiving Day); (3) AP ranking going into the game, with USC's given first, and USC's opponent's given second; (4) other miscellaneous information ("N" for night game if contest began after 5:00 p.m. local time, "U" for upset if the result was considered a significant upset, time remaining in the game if a late score resulted in a win or tie, and weather conditions, with "R" indicating most of the game was played in the rain and "Sn" indicating most of the game was played in snow conditions); (5) game result (W, L or T); (6) game score, with USC's given first; (7) game site (home, away or neutral); and (8) attendance. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

(NOTE: Carnegie Tech merged with the Mellon Institute of Research in 1967 and is now known as Carnegie Mellon. The Pittsburgh, Penn., school plays Division III football in the Presidents' Athletic Conference (prior to 2014, it played in the University Athletic Association). The University of Denver discontinued football in 1961. The University of Pacific in Stockton, Calif., dropped football in December of 1995. St. Mary's in Moraga, Calif., played football as a Division I-AA and then Division II independent before dropping the sport after the 2004 season. The University of San Francisco dropped football from 1952 through 1958, and then permanently discontinued the sport after 1971. The University of Santa Clara dropped football in 1994. Army was an independent until it joined Conference USA in 1999, then went back to independent status in 2005. BYU, which was a member of the Rocky Mountain (1922-37), Mountain State (1938-58) and Skyline (1959-61) Conferences, was a 1962 charter member of the Western Athletic Conference and was a 1999 charter member of the Mountain West Conference before becoming an independent in 2011.)

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

N1-Vacant Field bordered by Grand, Hope, Eighth, and Ninth Streets, Los Angeles, California
Note: The idea that USC should field a football team came from Professor Elmer Merrill. In a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's first coach, to then-sports information director Tom Lawless, the origins were described: "Football was (Prof. Elmer Merrill's) idea. When he learned that I had played on my college team, he said one day: 'Let's teach these boys football. You can play with them and coach them from within and I will coach them from the sidelines.' I readily agreed. He spoke to two or three of the boys that he knew and the game was born. The field was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."

*Originally scheduled: Stanford. This was USC's only modern-day in-season cancellation. At the Nov. 1 Cal game, USC was informed that beginning in 1925 Cal and Stanford would no longer be playing the Trojans. So, USC decided not to wait the year, cancelling its home game the following week against Stanford and instead hosting St. Mary's that day. As it turned out, Stanford was back on the USC's schedule in 1925.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Not including 6 wins in L.A. Coliseum and 1 win and 1 loss in Rose Bowl vacated due to NCAA penalty (original record: 441-136-27 in L.A. Coliseum and 35-20-0 in Rose Bowl)*

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game played outdoors on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888 (although a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's coach in 1888, to then-SID Tom Lawless, stated the field that first year "was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."),

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests that USC won.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938--USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939--USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 26, California 21. Behind 21-14 in the fourth quarter, USC scored twice late, the second time (while trailing 21-20) on a 22-yard pass from Craig Fertig to Rod Sherman with 50 seconds to culminate a 95-yard drive.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988--USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

1995--USC 21, Washington 21. Down 21-0 going into the fourth quarter, USC scored 3 touchdowns, the last a 2-yard pass from Brad Otton to Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go (Adam Rendon's PAT tied it), thus allowing the Trojans to keep hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race.

1995--USC 31, Stanford 30. A week after the dramatic Washington tie, USC--behind 16-0 in the second quarter--scored with 39 seconds to play on an 8-yard Kyle Wachholtz pass to Keyshawn Johnson, who then came in as a safety on defense and knocked down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line at the gun.

1996--USC 29, Washington State 24. Delon Washington's 17-yard TD run with 2:05 to play proved decisive and then USC had to hold off the Cougars, who got to the Trojan 11-yard line with 39 seconds to go before fumbling the ball away.

1996--USC 27, Notre Dame 20. In its first overtime win in 3 tries in 1996, Delon Washington scored on a 15-yard run with 1:50 to go in regulation and then barely edged the ball over the goal line on the ensuing 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 20-20. After Rodney Sermons caught a 5-yard TD pass from Brad Otton in the first overtime, Troy stopped the Irish, breaking USC's 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame.

1997--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Adam Abrams' 37-yard field goal with 1:05 to go--4 plays after Mark Cusano ran 27 yards with an interception--gave USC its first win in South Bend since 1981.

1997--USC 24, Oregon 22. Marc Matock partially deflected Joshua Smith's 36-yard field goal try that fell just short with 8 seconds to play to preserve the win.

2000--USC 17, Colorado 14. David Newbury, who had missed a pair of field goals earlier in the game, nailed a 24-yarder with 13 seconds to play for the victory.

2000--USC 34, San Jose State 24. USC, trailing by 12 points midway through the fourth quarter, scored 22 unanswered points in the final 8:07 to win.

2000--USC 44, Arizona State 38. After Arizona State scored 29 consecutive second-half points to force overtime, Chad Pierson scored on a 2-yard run in the second overtime and then Sultan Abdul-Malik forced a Sun Devil fumble which Matt Childers recovered to seal the win.

2000--USC 38, UCLA 35. David Bell, USC's third string kicker at the start of the season, hit a game-winning 36-yard field goal with 9 seconds to play (it was only his second field goal in 6 career attempts, as he had missed 3 previous tries in 2000, including a 24-yarder earlier in the game's fourth quarter).

2001--USC 41, Arizona 34. Kris Richard returned an interception 58 yards for a TD with 1:50 to play after Arizona had battled back from a 21-point second quarter deficit.

2001--USC 16, Oregon State 13. Carson Palmer ran 4 yards on a naked bootleg for the game-winning touchdown in the first overtime period (USC dodged defeat twice late in regulation when Ryan Cesca missed 35- and 29-yard field goals).

2002--USC 24, Auburn 17. Carson Palmer's 1-yard sneak with 1:26 to play gave USC the victory.

2004--USC 23, California 17. Aaron Rodgers, who earlier in the game had completed his first 23 passes (tying an NCAA record), guided Cal to first-and-goal at the USC 9-yard line with 1:47 to play, but a Manuel Wright sack and 3 incomplete passes ended the No. 7 Bears' upset hopes over No. 1 USC.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

2005--USC 34*, Notre Dame 31. Matt Leinart twisted in from the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play for the win (earlier in that 75-yard drive, he threaded a 61-yard audible pass to Dwayne Jarrett on fourth-and-9 from the USC 26).

2006--USC 28, Arizona State 21. Chauncey Washington's 2-yard run with 4:29 to play was the game-winning touchdown.

2009--USC 18, Ohio State 15. Stafon Johnson's 2-yard run with 1:05 to play capped an 86-yard drive that gave USC the win in front of a deafening Ohio Stadium record crowd of 106,033.

2009--USC 34, Notre Dame 27. USC built a 20-point fourth quarter lead but had to turn away the Irish 4 times near the goal line at game's end.

2009--USC 14, Arizona State 9. USC held off ASU on its final 4 possessions, with Will Harris getting an endzone interception on a Hail Mary pass on the game's final play.

2010--USC 34, Arizona State 33. Joe Houston, who had missed a pair of short earlier field goals, kicked a 29-yard field goal with 3:06 to play and then ASU's Thomas Weber missed a potential game-winning 42-yarder with 1:34 left.

2011--USC 38, Oregon 35. Down by 24 points late in the third quarter, Oregon scored 3 unanswered touchdowns before Alejandro Maldonado missed a 37-yard field goal at the gun that would have sent the game into overtime.

2013--USC 20, Stanford 17. Following a midfield interception, Andre Heidari's 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play gave gave the win over No. 5 Stanford, as the crowd stormed the field at game's end.

2014--USC 13, Stanford 10. For the second year in a row, Andre Heidari's late field goal beat Stanford, this time a career-long 53-yarder with 2:30 to go.

2014--USC 28, Arizona 26. Arizona nearly overcame a 15-point fourth quarter deficit, but Casey Skowron--following a Trojan timeout to ice him--missed a 36-yard field goal with 12 seconds to play.

2014--USC 45, Nebraska 42 (2014 Holiday Bowl). USC had an 18-point lead late in the third quarter, but needed a pair of fourth quarter fourth-down defensive stops and then a batted down Hail Mary pass at the gun to hold on.

2016--USC 52, Penn State 49 (2017 Rose Bowl). Matt Boermeester kicked a 46-yard field goal at the gun--set up by Leon McQuay III's interception with 27 seconds to go--to help USC overcome a 14-point fourth quarter deficit in the highest scoring Rose Bowl in history.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1951 Stanford game (Harry Hugasian's 1-yard TD run with 1:48 to play, following a Skip Crist interception, gave Stanford a 27-20 win), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton, Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton), the 1993 Penn State game (Rob Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds to go fell incomplete, allowing the Nittany Lions to hold on to a 21-20 win), the 1993 UCLA game (a win or tie would have put USC in the Rose Bowl, but Rob Johnson's 3-yard, third-down pass with 56 seconds to play to Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by Bruin Marvin Goodwin to preserve UCLA's 27-21 victory), the 1996 Arizona State game (after ASU tied the game at 28-28 with 1:30 to play, the teams went to double overtime with Sun Devil Courtney Jackson returning a controversial Brad Otton fumble 85 yards for a TD in the second overtime to end the game in ASU's favor, 48-35), the 1996 UCLA game (USC held a 17-point lead with less than 7 minutes to play in regulation but couldn't hold on and then, in its second double overtime game of the season, the Trojans couldn't score in the second overtime after Skip Hicks' 25-yard TD run gave the Bruins a 48-41 victory), the 1997 Washington State game (Kevin McKenzie made a one-handed grab of a 51-yard Ryan Leaf TD pass with 4:18 to play to give WSU a 28-21 win), the 1998 California game (the Bears scored 22 unanswered points in the final 19 minutes, including a decisive 3-yard TD run by Marcus Fields with 3:30 to play), the 1999 Oregon game (third string kicker Josh Frankel hit a 27-yard field goal in the third overtime to give Oregon a 33-30 win), the 1999 Notre Dame game (the Irish scored 22 unanswered points in the second half, the last when Jabari Holloway recovered a Notre Dame fumble in the end zone with 2:40 to go for a 25-24 win), the 2000 Stanford game (backup Chris Lewis threw a 20-yard TD pass to Jamien McCullum on fourth-and-goal as time expired to give Stanford a 32-30 win), the 2001 Oregon game (after Oregon drove 61 yards on 7 plays in the final minute, Jared Siegel hit a 32-yard field goal with 12 seconds to play for the 24-22 victory), the 2001 Washington game (John Anderson kicked a 32-yard field goal at the gun to give Washington a 27-24 win), the 2002 Washington State game (Drew Dunning hit a 35-yard field goal with 1:50 to play to tie the game and then hit another 35-yarder in the first overtime for the 30-27 victory, after USC's Ryan Killeen--who missed a fourth quarter PAT--missed a 52-yard try in overtime), the 2003 California game (after USC's Ryan Killeen missed a 39-yard field goal in the third overtime, Tyler Fredrickson--who had his 2 previous field goals blocked--hit a 38-yarder to give the Bears a 34-31 win, snapping USC's 11-game winning streak), the 2006 Rose Bowl (Vince Young scrambled for an 8-yard TD on fourth-and-5 with 19 seconds to go in the BCS Championship Game as Texas denied USC an unprecedented third consecutive national championship and snapped Troy's 34-game winning streak; loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty), the 2006 Oregon State game (John David Booty's potential game-tying 2-point conversion pass with 7 seconds to go was knocked down by Jeff Van Orsow to preserve the Beavers' 33-31 upset), the 2007 Stanford game (4 plays after converting on fourth-and-20, backup Tavita Pritchard's 10-yard TD pass to Mark Bradford on fourth-and-goal with 49 seconds to play gave 41-point underdog Stanford a 24-23 victory over No. 2 USC), the 2009 Washington game (Erik Folk kicked a 22-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play to give 3-touchdown underdog Washington a 16-13 upset over No. 3 USC), the 2009 Arizona game (Nick Foles threw a 36-yard TD pass to Juron Criner with 3:14 to play for a 21-17 Wildcats win), the 2010 Washington game (for the second straight year, Erik Folk kicked a late game-winning field goal, this time a 32-yarder at the gun for a 32-31 Huskies upset win), the 2010 Stanford game (for the second week in a row, USC lost on a field goal at the gun, this time a 30-yarder by Nate Whitaker to give Stanford a 37-35 win), the 2010 Notre Dame game (Robert Hughes ran for a 5-yard TD with 2:23 to play and, after USC drove to the Irish 23-yard line, Harris Smith intercepted Mitch Mustain at the 1-yard line to preserve a 20-16 Notre Dame win), the 2011 Stanford game (after the teams combined for 24 points in the fourth quarter, with Stanford tying the game with 38 seconds in regulation, the Cardinal recovered a fumble in the end zone in the third overtime to get the win), the 2013 Washington State game (Andrew Furney kicked a 41-yard field goal with 3:03 to play to give the Cougars a 10-7 win, its first over USC since 2002), the 2014 Arizona State game (backup Mike Bercovici threw a 46-yard Hail Mary TD pass to Jaelen Strong at the gun for a 38-34 win), the 2014 Utah game (Travis Wilson threw a 1-yard TD pass to Kaelin Clay with 8 seconds to play for the 24-21 victory), the 2015 Holiday Bowl (after USC took its first lead with 10:19 remaining, Rafael Gaglianone kicked a 29-yard field goal with 2:27 to play for Wisconsin's 23-21 win) and the 2016 Utah game (Tim Patrick caught an 18-yard TD pass from Troy Williams with 16 seconds to play to help the Utes overcome a 10-point deficit midway through the fourth quarter for a 31-27 win).

"THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum. In a December 1998 list by SPORT magazine, the game was ranked as the No. 6 top college football moment of the 20th century.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy's extra point kick was blocked) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed, 17-10, with just minutes left. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.667) among the 91 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind Marshall's .846, Utah's .800 and San Jose State's .700). USC's 34 bowl victories is second behind Alabama's 37 for the most in the nation (not including 1 win for both teams vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 35 for USC, 38 for Alabama). Troy's 51 bowl appearances are sixth most, behind Alabama (66), Texas and Nebraska (53) and Tennessee and Georgia (52) (not including 2 USC appearances and 1 Alabama appearance vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 54 for USC, 66 for Alabama). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 34-17 (not including 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 35-18). The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

USC has appeared in an unprecedented 33 Rose Bowls, where it has a 25-8 mark (.758) (not including 1 appearance and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 35 Rose Bowls, 25-9, .735). That is not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 12 of its last 14 Rose Bowls (not including 1 appearance and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 12 of its last 15). USC is the only team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls (2007-08-09). USC twice played in 4 consecutive Rose Bowl games (1967 to 1970 and 2006 to 2009); Ohio State (1973 to 1976) is the only other team to have done so.

USC has also appeared in 13 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (3 times), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl (twice), Orange Bowl (twice), Emerald Bowl and Holiday Bowl (twice).

USC made 5 BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose)(not including 2 appearances--2005 Orange and 2006 Rose--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips tied for seventh most, behind Ohio State's 9, Oklahoma's 9, Florida State's 8, Florida's 7, Virginia Tech's 6 and Alabama's 6 (not including 2 appearances vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: 7 appearances, tied for fourth most; also, 1 Ohio State appearance vacated by NCAA penalty). USC's 5 BCS bowl victories tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 6 victories, tied with Ohio State for most; also, 1 Ohio State win vacated by NCAA penalty).

USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

1932 Rose Bowl
USC 21, Tulane 12

Erny Pinckert ran for touchdowns of 25 and 30 yards to lead USC's Thundering Herd to a 21-0 halftime lead, and the Trojans held off Bernie Bierman's Tulane team in the second half for a 21-12 victory. Six USC players on that team were named All-American during their college careers.

USC	0	7	14	0	-- 21
Tulane	0	0	6	6	-- 12

Tulane--Touchdowns, Haynes, Glover.
Attendance: 75,562 Date: Jan. 1

1933 Rose Bowl
USC 35, Pittsburgh 0

Quarterback Cotton Warburton scored two touchdowns as USC wore down a lighter Pittsburgh team for a 35-0 win. Warburton, a 145-pounder who went on to become one of the Trojans' greatest backs, broke the game open in the second half.

USC	7	0	7	21	-- 35
Pittsburgh	0	0	0	0	-- 0

1939 Rose Bowl
USC 7, Duke 3

A fourth-string quarterback, Doyle Nave, who had played only 28 1/2 minutes all year, came off the bench to fire four straight passes to second team end Al Krueger, the last a 19-yard touchdown aerial, in the last two minutes to edge Duke, 7-3. Those were the only points scored on previously undefeated Duke all season.

USC	0	0	0	7	-- 7
Duke	0	0	0	3	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Krueger. PAT, Gaspar.
Duke--Field Goal, Ruffa.
Attendance: 89,452 Date: Jan. 2

1940 Rose Bowl
USC 14, Tennessee 0

USC overpowered Tennessee, which hadn't been scored upon in 15 consecutive games, 14-0, to hand the Volunteers their first loss in 24 games and to give Trojan coach Howard Jones, who died in the summer of 1941, a perfect 5-0 record in the Rose Bowl. USC's final touchdown was scored on a pass from Amby Schindler to Al Krueger, who had caught the winning TD pass in 1939.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Schindler, Krueger. PAT, Jones, Gaspar.
Attendance: 92,200 Date: Jan. 1

1944 Rose Bowl
USC 29, Washington 0

In the only Rose Bowl game which was not intersectional (because of wartime travel restrictions), USC raced past Washington, 29-0. Quarterback Jim Hardy led the Trojans, throwing three touchdown passes. Washington entered the game as a strong favorite.

USC	0	7	13	9	-- 29

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, G. Callanan (2). G. Gray (2).
Attendance: 68,000 Date: Jan. 1

1945 Rose Bowl
USC 25, Tennessee 0

Quarterback Jim Hardy passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third as USC defeated Tennessee, 25-0. Hardy thus in two games threw for five touchdowns and scored a sixth. Tennessee fielded a predominantly freshman team.

Attendance: 91,000 Date: Jan. 1

1946 Rose Bowl
Alabama 34, USC 14

Harry Gilmer, known more as a passer, ran for 113 yards while Alabama's defense choked off USC to give the Crimson Tide a 34-14 victory. Alabama allowed USC just six yards of rushing and 35 passing. It was USC's first loss in the Rose Bowl following eight victories.

Alabama	7	13	7	7	-- 34
USC	0	0	0	14	-- 14

Scoring: Alabama--Touchdowns, Self (2), Gilmer, Tew, Hodges.

1953 Rose Bowl
USC 7, Wisconsin 0

Substitute quarterback Rudy Bukich threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Al "Hoagy" Carmichael in the third quarter which held up for a 7-0 USC triumph over Wisconsin to give the Pacific Coast its first victory over the Big Ten since the two conferences began their agreement in 1947. Jess Hill, the Trojan coach who played on the 1929 USC team, became the first man to have played on and coached winning Rose Bowl teams.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Carmichael. PAT, Tsagalakis.
Attendance: 101,500 Date: Jan. 1

1955 Rose Bowl
Ohio State 20, USC 7

Woody Hayes made his first trek to the Rose Bowl as a coach and his national champion Ohio State team defeated USC, 20-7, in the mud and rain. Dave Leggett quarterbacked the Buckeyes to three touchdowns and USC's Aramis Dandoy returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown. UCLA was PCC champion, but was barred from returning by the conference's "no-repeat" rule.

Ohio State	0	14	0	6	-- 20
USC	0	7	0	0	-- 7

Scoring: Ohio State--Touchdowns, Leggett, Watkins, Harkrader. PAT, Weed, Watkins.

1963 Rose Bowl
USC 42, Wisconsin 37

John McKay made his debut in the Rose Bowl as USC coach and saw his undefeated national champion Trojans outscore Wisconsin, 42-37. USC, with Pete Beathard throwing four touchdown passes, ran up a 42-14 lead. Then Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen got hot, bringing the Badgers to within five points when time ran out. VanderKelen completed 33 of 48 passes for 401 yards, and 11 Rose Bowl records were broken.

USC	7	14	14	7	-- 42

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Bedsole (2), Butcher, Wilson, Heller, F. Hill. PAT, Lupo (6).

1967 Rose Bowl
Purdue 14, USC 13

A two-point conversion attempt by USC with less than three minutes remaining was foiled and Purdue emerged a 14-13 victor. After Troy Winslow flipped a 19-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman, Boilermaker back George Catavolos intercepted the conversion pass. Perry Williams scored both Purdue touchdowns on short bursts.

Purdue	0	7	7	0	-- 14

Scoring: Purdue--Touchdowns, P. Williams (2). PAT, Griese (2).
USC--Touchdowns, McCall, Sherman. PAT, Rossovich.
Attendance: 100,807 Date: Jan. 2

1968 Rose Bowl
USC 14, Indiana 3

O.J. Simpson ran for 128 yards and scored both USC touchdowns on short blasts as the Trojans defeated Indiana, 14-3, to wrap up the national football title. USC started the game without five regulars and lost two more during the game, but had enough depth to prevail.

USC	7	0	7	0	-- 14
Indiana	0	3	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Simpson (2). PAT, Aldridge (2).
Indiana--Field Goal, Kornowa.
Attendance: 102,946 Date: Jan. 1

1969 Rose Bowl
Ohio State 27, USC 16

Rex Kern quarterbacked national champion Ohio State to a 27-16 defeat of USC, overcoming a 10-0 deficit and heroics by Trojan O.J. Simpson. Simpson, the Heisman Trophy winner, rushed for 171 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown scamper. But five USC turnovers and Ohio State's power proved too much.

Ohio State	0	10	3	14	-- 27
USC	0	10	0	6	-- 16

Scoring: Ohio State--Touchdowns, Otis, Hayden, Gillian. Field Goals, Roman (2). PAT, Roman (2).

Attendance: 102,063 Date: Jan. 1

1970 Rose Bowl
USC 10, Michigan 3

A record fourth straight appearance by USC was culminated in a 10-3 victory over Michigan, whose coach Bo Schembechler suffered a heart attack and missed the game. The Trojans' "Wild Bunch" on defense held Michigan to a field goal while a 33-yard pass from Jimmy Jones to Bobby Chandler was the margin of victory.

USC	3	0	7	0	-- 10
Michigan	0	3	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Chandler. PAT, Ayala. Field Goal, Ayala.
Michigan--Field Goal, Gillian.

Attendance: 106,869 Date: Jan. 1

1974 Rose Bowl
Ohio State 42, USC 21

The 1974 game was a reverse of the 1973 contest as Ohio State, held to a 14-14 tie at halftime, exploded in the second half for a 42-21 win over USC. Freshman fullback Pete Johnson scored three touchdowns and Archie Griffin ran for 149 yards. But the Player of the Game was OSU quarterback Cornelius Greene, who completed six of eight passes for 129 yards and scrambled effectively.

Ohio State	7	7	13	15	-- 42

1975 Liberty Bowl
USC 20, Texas A&M 0

In coach John McKay's final game at USC, his Trojans shook off a four-game losing streak and surprised favored Texas A&M in Memphis, 20-0. USC's defense came up with many big plays, while the offense was able to move against the nationally-ranked Aggie defense. Vince Evans threw a 65-yard bomb to Randy Simmrin to set up one touchdown and Liberty Bowl MVP Ricky Bell ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another TD.

Texas A&M	0	0	0	0	-- 0

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Tatupu, Bell. PAT, Walker (2). Field Goal, Walker.

1977 Rose Bowl
USC 14, Michigan 6

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

Michigan	0	6	0	0	-- 6

Scoring: Michigan--Touchdown, Lytle.
USC--Touchdowns, Evans, White. PAT, Walker (2).

1979 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Michigan 10

In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

USC	3	7	0	7	-- 17
Ohio State	0	10	3	3	-- 16

1982 Fiesta Bowl
Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

Penn State	7	10	9	0	-- 26

Scoring: Penn State--Touchdowns, Warner (2), Garrity. PAT, Franco (3). Field Goal, Franco. Safety, Paffenroth blocked punt out of end zone.
USC--Touchdown, Banks. PAT, Jordan. Field Goal, Jordan.
Attendance: 71,053 Date: Jan. 1

1985 Rose Bowl
USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

Ohio State	3	3	3	8	-- 17

1985 Aloha Bowl
Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

USC	0	3	0	0	-- 3

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl
Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

Auburn	0	14	0	2	-- 16
USC	7	0	0	0	-- 7

USC--Touchdown, Cotton. PAT, Shafer.

Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

USC	3	0	7	7	-- 17
Michigan State	7	7	0	6	-- 20

Michigan State--Touchdowns, White (2). PAT, Langeloh (2). Field Goals, Langeloh (2).

Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

Michigan	3	0	6	13	-- 22
USC	0	14	0	0	-- 14

Scoring: Michigan--Touchdowns, Calloway, Hoard (2). PAT, Gillette. Field Goal, Gillette.
USC--Touchdowns, Peete (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2).

USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

USC	0	10	0	7	-- 17

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Marinovich, Ervins. PAT, Rodriguez (2). Field Goal, Rodriguez.
Michigan--Touchdown, Jefferson. PAT, Carlson. Field Goal, Carlson.

1990 John Hancock Bowl
Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl
Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with tight endJohnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl
USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

1996 Rose Bowl
USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points:

a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

TCU 28, USC 19

In a stunning upset, 16-point underdog TCU—which barely qualified for post-season play with a 6-5 record—used a potent option attack and a stingy run defense to beat USC, 28-19, in the 65th Norwest Sun Bowl before 46,612 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. The Horned Frogs' option offense gained 314 yards on the ground (the most against the Trojans since Notre Dame had 330 in 1992) and their defense limited Troy to a USC and Sun Bowl record low -23 rushing yards. It was TCU's first bowl win since 1957. TCU, which scored touchdowns on its first 3 possessions of the opening half on runs of 3 and 60 yards by TB Basil Mitchell and 7 yards by QB Patrick Batteaux, led 21-3 at intermission. USC's only first-half points came on a 35-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams late in the second quarter. The Horned Frogs opened up a 25-point lead on their initial drive of the second half as Batteaux scored on a 3-yard run. USC battled back by scoring on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 23-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Billy Miller, then on a 1-yard run by TB Petros Papadakis and a 46-yard Abrams field goal early in the fourth quarter (Abrams was the game's Special Teams MVP). The Trojans got the ball back twice more, but those drives resulted in a loss of 30 yards as Palmer was sacked 3 times. Mitchell, the game's MVP rushed for 185 yards on 19 carries (including 114 in the first half) for a 9.7 average per carry. Batteaux added 94 yards on 28 tries while executing the option to perfection (he also completed 4-of-5 passes for 51 yards). TCU stayed mainly on the ground, as 61 of its 67 plays were runs (the most rushes against USC since Penn State had 66 in 1993). The Horned Frogs threw for only 51 yards (the fewest allowed by USC since Oregon State had 29 in 1995). TCU amassed 365 total yards, converted 10-of-16 third downs (including 7-of-9 in the first half) and held the ball 35:51. USC managed just 257 total yards and 12 first downs on only 49 plays. Troy converted just 1-of-11 third downs (that came in the first quarter). Palmer was 17-of-28 for a career-best 280 yards, but was sacked 6 times (all in the second half). WR R. Jay Soward had a game-best 6 catches for 64 yards, WR Larry Parker added 4 for 104 yards and Miller had 3 for 67 yards. LB Chris Claiborne had a game-best 13 tackles and S Grant Pearsall added 11 stops.

2001 Las Vegas Bowl
Utah 10, USC 6

Behind a time-consuming, powerful running attack and a dominating defense, Utah beat USC, 10-6, in the 10th Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl before 22,385 fans and a national ABC-TV audience. The outcome–the Trojans' fifth loss of 2001 by 5 or less points–snapped USC's 4-game winning streak and Utah's 2-game losing skid. It also ended the Utes' 6-game losing streak to USC (Utah last beat Troy in 1916). The defensive struggle produced the lowest scoring Las Vegas Bowl ever. But that figured, as both squads were highly-ranked nationally in scoring defense (USC was 11th at 17.9 and Utah was 13th at 18.6). Utah, which entered the game ranked in the Top 25 nationally in all 4 defensive categories, limited the Trojans to just 151 total yards, including only 1 yard rushing. It was USC's fewest total yards since getting 124 against Washington in 1996 and its fewest rushing yards since having -20 at Arizona in 1999. USC had just 12 first downs, converted only 2-of-12 third downs and was sacked 4 times (including twice by ROV Sheldon Deckart, who had a team-high 6 tackles). USC punted on 8 of its 11 possessions (including on its first 4 drives and its final 4), went 3-and-out 5 times and penetrated Utah territory only 4 times (getting inside the 30 just once). At halftime, USC had just 15 total yards (with -53 on the ground) and 3 first downs. On offense, Utah–which was 12th nationally in rushing offense at 218.9–controlled the clock (holding the ball 16 minutes more than USC, 38:01 to 21:59) by running 54 times for 222 of its 358 total yards. The Utes ran off 75 plays (USC had just 51). HB Adam Tate ran for a game-best 103 yards on 23 carries, while fellow HB Dameon Hunter (a 1,000-yard runner in 2001) rushed for 94 yards on 17 tries and was named Utah's game MVP. Utah QB Lance Rice was 12-of-21 for 136 yards while hitting some timely passes, including a game-best 4 to WR Josh Lyman (for 41 yards) and 3 to TE Michael Richardson (for 35 yards). Utah scored on its second possession of the game as Tate ran for a 3-yard TD to cap a 7-play, 48-yard drive late in the first quarter. Then, after USC PK David Davis–the Pac-10's most accurate field goal kicker in 2001–missed a 47-yarder (breaking his string of 12 consecutive successful field goals), the Utes drove 61 yards in 12 plays to set up PK Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal with 29 seconds to play in the half. USC came alive to start the second half, taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards in 12 plays, finishing with a 2-yard scoring run by FB Sunny Byrd (but Davis missed the PAT). But despite getting a pair of turnovers–CB Kris Richard recovered a fumble and LB John Cousins intercepted a pass–on Utah's next 2 possessions, the Trojans couldn't get any closer than the Ute 40-yard line the rest of the way. Trojan QB Carson Palmer was 15-of-26 for 150 yards, while WRs Kareem Kelly (33 yards) and Devin Pitts (32 yards) each had 3 receptions. Trojan All-American safety Troy Polamalu–picked as USC's game MVP–had a Las Vegas Bowl record and career-high 20 tackles (with a game record 12 solo), including 3 for losses, while S DeShaun Hill (14 stops and a forced fumble) and LB Frank Strong (12 tackles, including 4 for losses) also posted career bests in tackles. It was USC's first game in the state of Nevada and its sixth contest on Christmas Day (but its first since 1934). The crowd was the smallest ever to see USC in a bowl and the fewest at a Trojan game since 20,938 showed up at Oregon State in 1997.

2003 Orange Bowl
USC 38, Iowa 17

No. 5-ranked USC–behind a balanced offense and a stingy defense–staked its claim as one of the nation's top teams as it swamped No. 3 Iowa, 38-17, in the 69th FedEx Orange Bowl before a sold out crowd of 75,971 fans under the lights in Pro Player Stadium and a national ABC-TV audience. It was Pac-10 co-champion USC's eighth win in a row (giving Troy its first 11-win season since 1979) and it snapped Big Ten co-champ Iowa's 9-game winning streak. It was the first meeting between the teams in 26 years and the first trip to the Orange Bowl for either school. It also was Troy's first win ever in Florida in 5 tries and came against the ninth AP-ranked squad the Trojans played in the 2002 season. And USC scored at least 30 points for a school-record eighth consecutive game. USC dominated the Hawkeyes statistically, getting more total yards (550-323), first downs (30-18), plays (80-58) and possession time (38:06-21:54). It was the ninth game in a row that USC had at least 400 yards of total offense. Despite facing an Iowa defense that was second nationally against the run (68.2), Troy rushed for a season-best 247 yards and scored 4 TDs on the ground. And USC–playing without 2-time All-American S Troy Polamalu, who was held out with a sore hamstring–kept in check a Hawkeye offense that was sixth nationally in scoring (38.9). At the start, it looked like Iowa would provide a stiff challenge as WR C.J. Jones ran back the opening kickoff an Orange Bowl-record 100 yards for a TD. But USC responded quickly as QB Carson Palmer's 65-yard bomb to WR Kareem Kelly on Troy's first play set up TB Justin Fargas' 4-yard scoring run just 3 plays later. Then, after Iowa had to settle for a 35-yard field goal by PK Nate Kaeding after advancing to the USC 2-yard line on the ensuing drive, USC reeled off 31 unanswered points. First, PK Ryan Killeen atoned for an earlier missed field goal by nailing a 35-yarder late in the half (DT Bernard Riley then blocked Kaeding's 28-yard field goal try at the end of the half to keep the score knotted at 10-10). Next, USC scored on its first 3 possessions of the second half, first an 18-yard Palmer TD pass to WR Mike Williams, then a career-long 50-yard TD run by Fargas (to cap a 99-yard drive) and a 5-yard run by TB Sultan McCullough at the top of the fourth quarter. FB Sunny Byrd added a 6-yard scoring run late in the game before Iowa added a touchdown against USC's reserves on an 18-yard pass from QB Brad Banks to WR Maurice Brown. Palmer proved his Heisman Trophy was no fluke as he hit 21-of-31 passes for 303 yards to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors, while Heisman runnerup Banks–the nation's passing efficiency leader–was just 15-of-36 for 204 yards and an interception (his first pick in his last 104 attempts). Fargas ran for 122 yards on 20 carries and McCullough added 76 yards on 12 tries, while Iowa RB Fred Russell–12th in the nation in rushing–was held to just 45 yards on 9 carries. Florida-native Williams (game-high 99 yards) and WR Keary Colbert (81 yards) each had 6 receptions, while Kelly had 3 for 74 yards to set an NCAA record for consecutive games with a catch (47) en route to becoming USC's career reception leader (204). Williams set NCAA freshman records for receptions (81), receiving yards (1,265) and receiving TDs (14). Brown had 6 catches for 63 yards for Iowa. LBs Mike Pollard and Matt Grootegoed each had a team-best 6 tackles for USC, while S Jason Leach had an interception and fumble recovery while filling in for Polamalu. Iowa hurt itself with 13 penalties and turned the ball over twice.

USC 28, Michigan 14

QB Matt Leinart threw 3 touchdowns and caught another and the relentless Trojan defense recorded a season-high 9 sacks as No. 1 USC dominated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14, in the 90th Rose Bowl before a soldout crowd of 93,849 and an ABC-TV national audience. The victory (USC's 21st Rose Bowl win) virtually guaranteed Troy the AP national championship, 25 years after its last national crown, and gave USC its first 12-win season since 1978. And it snapped Michigan's 6-game winning streak. The Trojans built a 21-0 lead before Michigan scored late in the third quarter. After DT Shaun Cody blocked a Wolverine field goal attempt early in the game, USC scored 4 plays into its first possession when WR Keary Colbert made an over-the-shoulder fingertip grab of Leinart's 25-yard aerial. Then, late in the first half following LB Lofa Tatupu's interception (he grabbed a ball that bounced off of SE Braylon Edwards' foot and returned it 26 yards to the Michigan 3), TB LenDale White took a Leinart toss 6 yards for another TD. Then, on the opening drive of the second half, Colbert made a spectacular one-handed grab of a 47-yard Leinart bomb (despite being interfered with) to up Troy's cushion. However, Michigan answered on its next series with a scoring drive that took nearly 8 minutes, capped by QB John Navarre's 5-yard pass to TE Tim Massaquoi. But USC responded right back, scoring on a tricky 15-yard reverse pass from WR Mike Williams to an unguarded Leinart. Wolverine TB Chris Perry ran 2 yards for a TD early in final quarter, but Michigan had the ball for only 4:12 in that quarter and never threatened again. Leinart was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he connected on 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards with the 3 scores (and no interceptions), along with his TD catch. Colbert, who became USC's career reception leader (with 207 catches), had 6 catches for a career-best 149 yards. Williams added a team-best 8 catches for 88 yards. White's TD was his 14th of the year, tying the USC freshman season record, while TB Reggie Bush–who had 41 yards rushing, 42 receiving and 49 on returns–set the USC freshman season all-purpose yardage mark (1,331 yards). Tatupu had a team-high 12 tackles, CB Will Poole added 10 stops (including 2 sacks) with 5 deflections and DE Kenechi Udeze had 3 sacks. USC's 9 sacks were its most since getting 13 against Oregon in 1992. Although Michigan held the ball 34:26 and had more plays (84 to 60) and first downs (25 to 19), the Trojans accumulated 410 total yards to UM's 320 (only 49 rushing). Michigan came into the game having allowed just 15 sacks and 5 TD passes all season. Navarre was 27-of-46 for 271 yards, Perry ran for 85 yards on 23 tries and Edwards had a game-high 10 receptions for 107 yards. USC set school overall attendance (946,482) and average (72,368) records.

2005 Orange Bowl
USC 55*, Oklahoma 19

Top-ranked USC won its 11th national championship–and second consecutive–in overwhelming fashion by thumping No. 2 Oklahoma, 55-19, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2005 Orange Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 77,912 in Miami's Pro Player Stadium and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. USC became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from the pre-season through the bowl (Florida State did it in 1999). The Trojans also became the 10th team to win consecutive AP national championships. It was Troy's 22nd victory in a row, including a school-record 13 in 2004. USC's 55 points tied its most ever in a bowl (and were the most ever allowed in a bowl by Oklahoma). It was a school-record eighth time in the season that USC won by 30-plus points. USC scored 38 of its points off of OU turnovers. QB Matt Leinart, the game's MVP, threw an Orange Bowl record (and USC record-tying) 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR Steve Smith (tying both an Orange Bowl and USC record). PK Ryan Killeen set the USC career scoring record (with 329 points). Oklahoma looked impressive early, driving 92 yards for the game's first score midway through the opening quarter on a 5-yard pass from QB Jason White to WR Travis Wilson. But USC countered on the ensuing possession to start a 28-point scoring run, as TE Dominique Byrd made a spectacular one-handed TD grab of a 33-yard Leinart aerial. Then, late in the quarter, USC S Josh Pinkard recovered a botched OU punt return and TB LenDale White ran for a 6-yard TD on the next play. S Jason Leach intercepted White's desperation heave on Oklahoma's next series and Leinart soon after hit WR Dwayne Jarrett on a 54-yard scoring bomb. White was picked off again on OU's next drive, this time by CB Eric Wright, and 3 plays later Leinart hit Smith for a 5-yard score with 9:17 to go in the half. After Oklahoma responded with a 29-yard field goal by PK Garrett Hartley, USC took just 4 plays to score again, this time on Smith's impressive one-armed reception of a 33-yard Leinart pass. When Oklahoma fumbled the ball away on its following possession (LB Matt Grootegoed had the recovery), Killeen nailed a 44-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go to put USC up 38-10 at halftime. USC scored on its first 2 drives of the second half: a 4-yard Leinart-to-Smith pass and a 42-yard Killeen field goal. The Trojans capped a 27-point scoring outburst when White ran for an 8-yard TD just 5 plays after Grootegoed intercepted White early in the fourth quarter. The Sooners scored twice late in the game against mostly Trojan reserves, getting a safety when Leinart fell on a fumbled snap in the end zone and then on White's 9-yard pass to Wilson. USC piled up 525 total yards (averaging 8.3 yards per play) to the Sooners' 372, even though OU ran off 13 more plays (76 to 63) and held the ball for 35:06. But USC didn't turn the ball over, while Oklahoma had 5 giveaways. For USC, Leinart was 18-of-35 for 332 yards, White ran for 118 yards on 15 carries, Smith had 7 catches for 113 yards, Jarrett had 5 receptions for 115 yards and TB Reggie Bush had 149 all-purpose yards (75 yards on 6 rushes, 36 yards on 2 kickoff returns, 31 yards on 2 catches and a 7-yard punt return). LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 12 tackles, S Darnell Bing added 10 stops and Leach and Grootegoed each had 7. OU's White was 24-of-36 for 244 yards, but threw 3 interceptions, Wilson caught 7 passes for 59 yards and TB Adrian Peterson ran for 82 yards on 25 tries. It marked the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (Leinart and White) faced each other in a game (in fact, 4 of the 2004 Heisman finalists played in the game, including Bush and Peterson).

Texas 41, USC 38*

QB Vince Young ran for a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes—including an 8-yard scrambling game-winner on fourth-and-5 with 19 seconds to go—to help No. 2 Texas overcome a 12-point deficit and upend top-ranked USC, 41-38, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2006 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,986 and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. The win was Texas's 20th in a row and snapped USC's 34-game winning streak, denying the Trojans an unprecedented third consecutive national championship (it was also Troy's first loss after 16 straight non-conference wins and 16 consecutive victories over AP Top 25 teams). Young, the 2005 Heisman Trophy runnerup and Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, accounted for 467 yards of total offense, including 200 rushing (the most by a runner against USC since Oregon State's Ken Simonton had 234 in 2000) with 3 TDs and 267 through the air on 30-of-40 passing. After USC took a 38-26 lead with 6:42 to play on QB Matt Leinart's 22-yard scoring pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett (Jarrett's USC season record-tying 16th touchdown reception), Young marched the Longhorns down the field in 8 plays as he scrambled for a 17-yard TD with 4:03 to play. Then, after USC failed to convert a fourth-and-2 run at midfield on the ensuing possession, Texas took over with 2:09 remaining and took 11 plays to score the clincher. After USC opened the game's scoring on a 4-yard run by TB LenDale White following LB Kaluka Maiava's recovery of a fumbled Texas punt return, the Longhorns scored the next 16 points on 3 straight possessions. First, PK David Pino hit a 46-yard field goal after Texas recovered a USC fumble at the UT 19-yard line, then TB Selvin Young took a lateral from Young and went the remaining 12 yards for a score (coming after Texas intercepted a Trojan pass in the end zone), but Pino's PAT missed. Then, TB Ramonce Taylor raced 30 yards for a TD. USC responded as PK Mario Danelo nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal with 2 seconds to go in the half. The teams scored 53 points in the second half (the most points in a half ever at the Rose Bowl), when there were 4 lead changes. After White ran 3 yards for a TD early in the half to give Troy a 17-16 edge, Young answered with a 14-yard scoring run, but the Trojans came right back on White's 12-yard TD rumble late in the third quarter. After Pino missed a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, USC drove 80 yards, culminating in TB Reggie Bush's 26-yard scoring run. Texas narrowed the gap to 31-26 on its next series as Pino hit a 34-yard field goal with 8:46 to play, but USC responded on the ensuing drive with the Leinart-to-Jarrett TD for what appeared to be a comfortable lead before Young took over. The teams produced a Rose Bowl-record 1,130 yards of combined total offense (the 9 combined rushing TDs and 60 combined first downs were also Rose Bowl marks). USC had a Rose Bowl-record 574 total yards (including 365 passing) and averaged 7.0 yards per play. Its 38 points were the most by a losing team in the Rose Bowl. Texas had 556 total yards (the most against USC since California's 601 in 1991), including 289 rushing (the most allowed by USC since Kansas State had 340 in 2001), while averaging 7.3 yards per play (8.0 rushing). UT's 30 first downs were the most against the Trojans since UCLA had a USC opponent record-tying 32 in 1970. White ran for 124 yards and 20 carries with the 3 touchdowns (setting USC and Pac-10 records for season and career rushing and overall TDs), Leinart was 29-of-40 for 365 yards (he was 16-of-19 for 218 yards in the second half) and at one point connected on a Rose Bowl-record 11 consecutive passes, Bush had 279 all-purpose yards (82 on 13 carries, 95 on a season-best 6 receptions and 102 on 5 kickoff returns) and Jarrett had 10 catches for 121 yards. Bush and White set an NCAA record for career touchdowns by teammates (99). S Darnell Bing led USC with 9 tackles, CB Josh Pinkard added 7 stops and LB Oscar Lua had 6. USC limited Texas to just 3-of-11 third down conversions. Texas TE David Thomas had 10 catches for 88 yards, while WR Limas Sweed added 8 receptions for 65 yards. S Michael Huff, the 2005 Thorpe Award winner and Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, had a game-best 12 tackles with a fumble recovery. The game marked the first time that a team fielded a pair of already-named Heisman winners (Leinart and Bush). It also was USC's first loss to Texas in 5 meetings, its first defeat in 6 bowl appearances when ranked No. 1 and its first post-season loss to a Big 12 team in 6 bowl trips. USC set a school record for overall season attendance (1,037,565), the first time it was over the million mark, and overall season attendance average (79,813). The game was viewed on ABC-TV by 35.6 million fans, making it the highest-rated college football game since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl.

USC 32, Michigan 18

No. 8 USC used a second half offensive explosion behind 4 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty and a game-long stifling defense to dominate No. 3 Michigan, 32-18, in the 2007 Rose Bowl in front of a sold-out crowd of 93,852 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was USC's most points and biggest victory margin ever over the Wolverines. It gave Troy 5 consecutive 11-win seasons. The win exorcised the close losses Troy had in its previous 2 visits to the Pasadena stadium (to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game and to UCLA at the end of the 2006 regular season). It took 30 minutes for USC—making an unprecedented fifth straight BCS bowl appearance—to shake off the disappointment of the UCLA upset that knocked the Trojans out of the BCS Championship Game. And by game's end, USC's victory quashed any talk that Michigan should have been playing in the BCS Championship Game instead of the Rose Bowl. The teams traded field goals (a 26-yarder by Trojan PK Mario Danelo late in the first quarter and a 41-yarder by PK Garrett Rivas on Michigan's ensuing possession early in the second quarter) in a mundane first half that saw USC collect just 122 total yards (20 rushing) to the Wolverines' 76 (minus 9 on the ground). But after DE Lawrence Jackson intercepted a screen pass by QB Chad Henne near midfield on Michigan's first possession of the second half, USC took just 4 plays to get into the end zone as Booty hit WR Chris McFoy for a 2-yard score. Sensing Michigan's staunchness against the run (the Wolverines led the nation in rush defense at 43.0 and allowed USC just a season-low 48 rushing yards) but its susceptibility to the pass, Booty's first toss of that series was the start of 27 passes in the Trojans' next 29 plays, as they scored on 5 consecutive drives. Late in the third quarter, Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett—the game's Offensive MVP with 11 catches (giving him USC's career receptions record) for 205 yards, both personal bests—on a quick slant and Jarrett broke free for a 22-yard TD (Danelo missed the PAT). In his Rose Bowl career, Jarrett's 21 receptions, 326 yards and 3 TD catches were all Rose Bowl records. Then, on Michigan's following possession, LB Brian Cushing sacked QB Chad Henne and forced a fumble that Jackson recovered, leading to a 26-yard Danelo field goal with 48 seconds to go in the quarter. The Wolverines responded, however, as Henne hit WR Adrian Arrington on an 11-yard scoring pass and TB Mike Hart ran for a 2-point conversion to pull the Wolverines within a score, 19-11, early in the final quarter. But the Trojans continued their aerial assault, with Booty lofting a season-long 62-yard pass over a pair of Michigan defenders for Jarrett's second TD of the game (Danelo's PAT kick missed again). Next, WR Steve Smith—who caught 7 passes for 108 yards to go over the 1,000-yard receiving barrier for the season—got into the act by catching a 7-yard TD pass from Booty on USC's 4-play, 85-yard drive with less than 7 minutes to go. The Wolverines added a late touchdown on a 41-yard Henne pass to WR Steve Breaston. Booty completed 27-of-45 passes en route to his 4 TDs (all career bests, with the 4 TDs tying a Rose Bowl mark) and his 391 passing yards were the most surrendered by Michigan since the Michigan State's 400 in 1999. USC's 439 yards of total offense far surpassed what Michigan had been allowing (254.1, sixth in the nation). The Trojan defense posted 6 sacks against a UM squad that had allowed just 18 all season and limited the Wolverines to just 12 rushing yards (they had averaged 189.2 rushing yards in 2006). Michigan TB Mike Hart, who had run for at least 90 yards in every game of 2006, was limited to 47 yards on 17 carries. Henne completed 26-of-41 passes for 309 yards, but 14 of those completions and 185 of the yards came in the fourth quarter when the game was virtually decided. Breaston had 7 grabs for 115 yards, while WR Mario Manningham (79 yards) and TE Tyler Ecker (78 yards) each had 6 receptions. USC LB Keith Rivers had a game-best 9 tackles, while 4 of Cushing's 7 tackles were for losses (including 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble to help him earn the game's Defensive MVP trophy. USC played before a school-record 11th sellout crowd of the season.

2008 Rose Bowl
USC 49, Illinois 17

No. 6 USC piled up a Rose Bowl-record 633 yards of total offense and took advantage of 4 turnovers by No. 13 Illinois to post a dominant 49-17 victory in the 2008 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,923 and a national ABC-TV audience. It equalled the most points scored in the Rose Bowl (Michigan scored 49 points in the 1902 and 1948 games) and the 32-point victory margin was the Rose Bowl's largest since UCLA's 36-point win over the Illini in the 1984 game. The victory gave USC an NCAA record 6 consecutive 11-win seasons. QB John David Booty, the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 25-of-37 passes for 255 yards and 3 TDs to set a Rose Bowl career record for touchdown passes (7). TB Joe McKnight had 206 all-purpose yards (125 on 10 rushes, 45 on 6 receptions and 36 on 3 punt returns). TBs Stafon Johnson (104 yards on 9 carries) and Chauncey Washington (75 yards on 12 attempts) also helped USC run for a season-best 344 yards. TE Fred Davis had a game-high 7 receptions for 87 yards. USC's defense posted a season-high 15 tackles for a loss (including 5 sacks) against Illinois' spread offense. The Illini converted just 4-of-14 third downs. CB Cary Harris had a team-best 10 tackles, plus 2 turnovers, while LB Rey Maualuga won Rose Bowl Defensive MVP honors with 3 sacks, an interception and a forced fumble and DE Lawrence Jackson added 3 tackles for a loss among his 5 stops. USC built up a quick 21-0 lead. Troy scored on its opening drive as Booty hit Washington for an 8-yard TD. Then, after Maualuga intercepted a pass from QB Juice Williams on Illinois' next series, USC used some trickery on its first play as WR-QB Garrett Green took a lateral and fired a 34-yard scoring strike to TB Desmond Reed. The Trojans added to their lead late in the half on a 3-yard Washington TD run, but Illinois got on the board with 38 seconds to go in the half on a 28-yard field goal by Jason Reda. The Illini made a run at the Trojans early in the second half when TB Rashard Mendenhall burst 79 yards for a score on Illinois' first series (it was the longest run against USC since 2004). Illinois was driving again on its next possession before LB Kaluka Maiava punched the ball out of WR Jacob Willis' grasp at the USC 1-yard line and LB Brian Cushing recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback. Troy then drove 80 yards, capped by a 2-yard Booty TD pass to Davis (on the drive, McKnight scooped up a bobbled lateral and raced 65 yards to the Illinois 12-yard line). The Illini turned the ball over on their next 2 possessions (Harris had an interception and then a fumble recovery) and USC converted both, with McKnight running for a 6-yard score and WR David Ausberry catching a 15-yard TD pass from Booty early in the fourth quarter. After USC stopped Illinois on downs at the Trojan 12 late in the fourth quarter, Troy drove 87 yards and scored on a 3-yard run by TB Hershel Dennis late in the game (his first TD since 2004). Illinois then got a touchdown against USC's reserves as QB Eddie McGee hit WR Arrelious Benn for a 56-yard score. The teams combined for 1,078 yards of total offense, as the Illini had 445 total yards. Mendenhall ran for 155 yards on 17 carries (he also caught 5 passes for 59 yards), Williams hit 21-of-35 passes for 245 yards and Benn had 5 catches for 59 yards.

USC 38, Penn State 24

QB Mark Sanchez threw 4 touchdown passes and ran for another score as No. 5 USC opened up a 24-point halftime lead and beat No. 6 Penn State, 38-24, in the 2009 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,293 and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, appearing it its record-tying fourth straight Rose Bowl, became the first team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls. It was the second-most points Penn State allowed in its 41 bowl appearances and the most points surrendered by the Nittany Lions in their past 37 games. It was also the most points USC scored against PSU in the 9-game series. It was USC's ninth win in a row over Big Ten opponents (and sixth in a row against the league in the Rose Bowl). The teams exchanged touchdowns late in the first quarter, as Sanchez hit WR Damian Williams on a 27-yard scoring toss to cap an 11-play, 86-yard drive and then Penn State put together a 9-play, 80-yard drive, culminating with a 9-yard TD run by QB Daryll Clark. USC then went on a 24-point scoring binge on 4 consecutive possessions in the second quarter: Sanchez had a 6-yard TD run early in the quarter to finish an 80-yard drive, PK David Buehler followed with a 30-yard field goal, WR Ronald Johnson caught a 19-yard touchdown bullet from Sanchez and, following S Will Harris' recovery of a PSU fumble, Sanchez hit TB C.J. Gable on a short toss that Gable turned into a 20-yard score with 36 seconds to go. That 31-7 score at intermission was USC's most first-half points in any of its 33 Rose Bowl appearances (the 24-point lead was USC's second-largest Rose Bowl halftime margin, behind a 26-0 halftime lead against Pittsburgh in the 1930 game). The 31 points also eclipsed the most points Penn State had allowed in a game in 2008. USC held decisive halftime edges in first downs (19 to 7), total yards (341 to 177, including 276 to 117 passing), plays (41 to 27), possession time (17:15 to 12:45) and third down conversions (6-of-8 to 1-of-5). After a scoreless third quarter, Penn State came alive, beginning with a 2-yard Clark scoring pass to WR Derrick Williams at the top of the quarter. After USC responded on its ensuing possession with a 45-yard Sanchez TD bomb to Johnson, the Nittany Lions tallied on their next 2 series: a 25-yard field goal by PK Kevin Kelly and a 9-yard Clark pass to WR Jordan Norwood. Penn State got the ball 2 more times, but interceptions by Will Harris and CB Cary Harris (in the end zone at the gun) thwarted those drives. Sanchez, named the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 28-of-35 passes for 413 yards, career highs for completions and yardage. It was the second most passing yards in a Rose Bowl game (behind 456 by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in 1995) and the fourth highest in USC history (the most since Carson Palmer's 425 versus Notre Dame in 2002), while his touchdowns (4) and completion percentage (80.0%) tied Rose Bowl game records. Sanchez did this against a Penn State defense that had given up only 6 touchdown passes in 2008 and was allowing only 168.0 passing yards. His 4 TD passes gave him 34 on the season, second most in USC history behind Matt Leinart's 38 in 2003. Damian Williams had career bests with 10 receptions for 162 yards, the most by a Trojan since Dwayne Jarrett had 11 for 205 in the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan. TE Anthony McCoy added 5 catches for 48 yards, while Johnson (82 yards) and WR Patrick Turner (74 yards) each caught 4 passes. TB Stafon Johnson led USC with 63 yards on 15 carries. USC rolled up 413 total yards against a PSU defense that was allowing only 263.9 yards and 12.4 points. LB Brian Cushing had a USC-best 7 tackles, LB Rey Maualuga added 6 stops and Will Harris had 6 tackles to go with his fumble recovery and interception. USC LB Kaluka Maiava was named the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP as he had 4 tackles and 2 deflections. Penn State's 410 total yards and 273 passing yards were the most against USC in 2008. Clark hit 21-of-36 passes for 273 yards, while TB Stephfon Green led the Nittany Lions in rushing (10 carries for 57 yards) and receptions (5 for 67 yards). Butler (97 yards) and Williams (34 yards) each had 4 catches for PSU. LB Josh Hull had a game-high 10 tackles, 5 of LB Navorro Bowman's 8 tackles were for losses and CB Tony Davis had 8 stops and a fumble recovery. PSU was penalized 9 times, including 7 in the first half. Legendary Penn State coach Joe Paterno, college football's winningest coach, coached from the press box after having hip surgery several weeks prior. The game was a rematch of the 1923 Rose Bowl that was the first played in the current Rose Bowl stadium. It was just the third time that USC played back-to-back games in the stadium.

2009 Emerald Bowl
USC 24, Boston College 13

QB Matt Barkley threw a pair of touchdown passes to FB Stanley Havili and ran for another score while the USC defense shut out Boston College in the second half to lead the Trojans to a 24-13 win in their first-ever Emerald Bowl appearance on a chilly, soggy night in front of a capacity crowd of 40,121 in AT&T Park in San Francisco and a national ESPN cable audience. USC, which entered the game unranked for the first time since the end of the 2001 season when it last played in a non-BCS bowl, won its 16th consecutive non-conference game and its 32nd bowl game. It was Troy's first game against BC since 1988 and its first in San Francisco since 1943. The Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions with a pair of drives that exceeded 80 yards, with Havili weaving 53 yards with a Barkley pass on the first series and then catching a 5-yard Barkley pass on the second series early in the second half. But the Eagles responded on their next 2 drives, with RB Montel Harris getting a 7-yard TD run (the extra point kick missed) and then, after getting an interception, WR Rich Gunnell jetting 61 yards with a pass from QB Dave Shinskie late in the half (it was the longest reception against USC since BYU's Todd Watkins had a 69-yarder in 2004) to pull within 14-13 at intermission. But the Trojans limited BC to only 91 total yards in the second half, including just 19 in the third quarter. USC converted a pair of turnovers into scores in the second half. After DT Jurrell Casey recovered a fumble, PK Jordan Congdon hit a 38-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Then after an interception by CB Shareece Wright (seeing his first action of 2009 after being academically ineligible), Barkley scored on a 1-yard sneak early in the fourth quarter. Barkley was 27-of-37 (a career best for completions) for 350 yards and hit 13 of his first 14 passes (including his first 7). WR Damian Williams was voted the game's Offensive MVP after catching 12 passes for 189 yards (both personal bests) and he set up USC's last 2 TDs after hauling in bombs. Havili added 6 receptions for 83 yards (both career highs) and WR Ronald Johnson had 6 for 58 yards. TB Allen Bradford ran for 72 yards on a personal-best 17 carries. DT Christian Tupou led USC with 7 tackles, including 1.5 for losses, while LB Malcolm Smith added 6 stops. For Boston College, Shinskie was 14-of-33 for 218 yards, Gunnell caught 6 passes for 130 yards and Harris ran for 102 yards on 23 tries (his fifth straight 100-yard outing). LB Luke Kuechly had 16 tackles and was named the game's Defensive MVP. USC had 438 total yards (with a season-low 88 on the ground) to BC's 312, held the ball 34:23 and limited the Eagles to just 4-of-12 on third down conversions. It rained for 2 hours before kickoff and then lightly again during the third quarter. The Trojans played without 4 starters: CB Josh Pinkard (knee injury), TB Joe McKnight (held out by USC's NCAA compliance office) and TE Anthony McCoy and OT Tyron Smith (both academically ineligible).

2012 Sun Bowl
Georgia Tech 21, USC 14

QB Tevin Washington ran for a touchdown while throwing for another and Georgia Tech used a staunch defense to propel the Yellow Jackets to a 21-7 upset over USC in the 79th Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso on a cold (low 40s), windy (20 mph gusts) day before 47,922 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. USC became the first AP pre-season No. 1 team ever to end up with 6 losses and the first to finish unranked since 1964. It was the Trojans' third straight loss of 2012, their longest losing skid since 2001. Troy lost 5 of its final 6 games after a 6-1 start to snap a streak of 10 straight 8-win seasons. USC, playing in the post-season after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, remained winless in 3 visits to the Sun Bowl. Georgia Tech, which needed an NCAA waiver (because of a sub-.500 record) to qualify for a bowl berth, broke a 7-bowl game losing streak. It was the first meeting between the schools since 1973. USC's offense was stymied by a Yellow Jacket defense that was allowing an average of 29.9 points and 387.0 total yards. The Trojans got just 205 total yards (their fewest since also getting 205 versus California in 2004), including 107 passing (fewest since getting 7 against Penn State in 2000), and 10 first downs (fewest since getting 8 versus Florida State in 1998) while converting only 3-of-15 third downs (and 0-of-1 on fourth downs). Troy had just 59 plays while holding the ball only 23:35. USC failed to get a first down in 8 of its 14 possessions. In the second half, the Trojans had just 89 total yards and were shut out on 32 plays. Georgia Tech, using a spread option attack that averaged 312.5 rushing yards, had 294 of its 369 total yards via the run. The Yellow Jackets passed just 10 times (with only 5 completions) among its 73 plays (the fewest pass attempts against USC since Washington State's 9 in 2008 and the fewest completions since Colorado's 2 in 2002). Tech's 75 passing yards were the fewest versus the Trojans since Notre Dame's 41 in 2008. After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored a TD in the second quarter. The Yellow Jackets went 74 yards in 14 plays, capped by a 3-yard pass from QB Vad Lee to RB David Sims early in the quarter. Then, after DE Morgan Breslin forced a fumble that DE Wes Horton recovered, QB Max Wittek hit TB Silas Redd on a 9-yard score with 50 seconds to play. Georgia Tech took advantage of a 56-yard punt return by CB Jamal Golden to the USC 1-yard line on its first possession of the second half, with Washington getting the 1-yard TD run 2 plays later. Washington then hit RB Orwin Smith on a 17-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter. USC got in the red zone on its last 2 possessions in the game's final 7 minutes, but Wittek had passes picked off in the end zone both times. Wittek, starting his second straight game for injured QB Matt Barkley, completed just 37.8% of his passes (14-of-37) for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while every throw was seemingly affected by the wind. He was 7-of-24 (29.2%) for 49 yards in the second half. Redd ran for 88 yards on 17 carries. WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 41 yards, while WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 33 yards. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu had 20 against Utah in 2001), DT Leonard Williams had 14 stops and S T.J. McDonald had 13. LB Lamar Dawson had an interception. For Tech, Sims rushed for 99 yards on 17 tries and RB Zach Laskey added 60 yards on 6 tries. Washington ran for 56 yards on 16 carries and was 3-of-5 passing for 49 yards, while Lee ran for 52 yards on 10 tries and completed 2-of-5 passes for 26 yards.

2013 Las Vegas Bowl
USC 45, Fresno State 20

QB Cody Kessler threw a Las Vegas Bowl-record and career-high 4 touchdown passes, including a pair each to WRs Marqise Lee and Nelson Agholor, and TB Javorius Allen ran for 2 more scores, while USC's defense throttled No. 21 Fresno State's potent aerial attack as the Trojans posted a convincing 45-20 victory in the 22nd Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl in front of a sold out crowd of 42,178 fans (the second most in Sam Boyd Stadium and game history) and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, which recorded its 25th 10-win season despite a season of adversity that included 4 head coaches, was led in Las Vegas by interim head coach Clay Helton, who took over the reins after former interim head coach Ed Orgeron resigned after the regular season (incoming head coach Steve Sarkisian watched the game from the press box). It was Troy's first 14-game season in history. Fresno State, which entered the game with a school-record 11 wins (and just one loss) after capturing the inaugural Mountain West Conference championship game, will meet the Trojans again to open the 2014 season in the Coliseum. USC limited a Bulldog offense, which led the nation in passing (409.8) and was third in total offense (45.3) and fifth in scoring offense (45.3), to just 216 passing yards and 253 total yards. FSU QB Derek Carr came in leading the nation in passing (305.5) but was held to 216 yards on 29-of-54 passing (just 53.7%, well shy of his 70.1% prior to the game) with an interception. Bulldog WR Davante Adams entered the game leading the nation in receptions (10.2) and was second in receiving yards (137.1), but had just 73 yards on 9 catches. Fresno State held the ball just 18:33 and had only 61 plays (it ran the ball just 6 times for 37 yards, the fewest opponent rushes ever against USC) while converting only 2-of-14 third downs and 1-of-3 fourth downs. The Bulldogs went 3-and-out on 6 of their 14 possessions. All of FSU's scores came following USC miscues in Trojan territory, including twice on drives of less than 40 yards. The Bulldogs' 55 pass attempts were the most against USC since Oregon State's 60 in 2003. USC had 499 yards of total offense on 76 plays with 24 first downs. Its 41:27 possession time was its most since getting 41:57 against Stanford in 1989. Game MVP Kessler outplayed Carr, his longtime friend from his Bakersfield hometown, as he hit 73.3% of his passes (22-of-30) for a career-best 345 yards. He was sacked just once by the nation's leading sack team. Lee had 7 receptions for 118 yards and Agholor added 5 grabs for 94 yards, while Allen ran for 86 yards on 27 carries and caught 4 passes for another 33 yards. CB Kevon Seymour, who led USC with 7 tackles, was named the Defensive Outperformer of the Game, while sixth-year senior walk-on C Abe Markowitz, making his first start of the season, was the Offensive Outperformer of the Game. USC opened up a 35-6 lead at halftime, including scoring the final 28 points of the half. USC drove 65 yards on the game's opening series, capped by a 10-yard Kessler TD pass from Lee. After USC's ensuing onside kick recovery was negated by a penalty, the Bulldogs took only 3 plays to get in the end zone on an 8-yard Carr pass to WR Isaiah Burse. Troy came right back on its next possession, as Kessler hit Agholor with a 40-yard TD pass. The Trojans scored on their first 3 series of the second quarter, first on a 17-yard Kessler-to-Agholor pass (after FSU didn't convert a fourth down run), then on a 24-yard Allen run (following a failed FSU fake punt deep in its territory) and finally on Kessler's 40-yard throw to Lee. At halftime, USC had rolled up 326 total yards and 15 first downs to FSU's 138 total yards with 8 first downs (and just 1-of-8 on third downs), and Kessler was 14-of-18 for 244 yards passing. The Bulldogs scored early in the third quarter after recovering a USC fumbled punt, with Carr hitting Allen for a 23-yard TD. But USC responded on the next series as PK Andre Heidari nailed a 39-yard field goal. FSU S Derron Smith returned an interception 41 yards for a score at the top of the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs went 3-and-out on their final 2 possessions. Allen's 1-yard scoring run late in the game finished the scoring.

2014 Holiday Bowl
USC 45, Nebraska 42

No. 24 USC—behind QB Cody Kessler's 3 touchdown passes, a pair of scores by both TB Javorius Allen and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, a pair of fourth quarter fourth-down defensive stops and a batted-down Hail Mary pass at the gun—held off No. 25 Nebraska, 45-42, in a wild shootout on a chilly evening in Troy's first appearance in the Holiday Bowl before a crowd of 55,789 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience. It was USC's 33rd bowl victory (not including a win vacated by NCAA penalty), including its eighth in the past 9 bowls. The win kept USC undefeated against Nebraska in 5 meetings (it was the first time the teams met in the post-season). It was USC's 13th straight win over a Big Ten team, including 8 in a row in a bowl. The teams combined for 1,040 total yards and 87 points, with 4 touchdowns measuring more than 40 yards. There were 27 points scored in the first quarter and 38 in the third. After USC built a 45-27 lead late in the third quarter on Kessler's 20-yard TD pass to TE Bryce Nelson, Nebraska countered with a 65-yard scoring pass from QB Tommy Armstrong Jr. to WR Jordan Westerkamp. Nebraska was stopped on fourth down on the USC 34 on its next possession, but Armstrong raced 15 yards for a score (and then hit WR Kenny Bell on the conversion) on the Cornhuskers' next drive with 6:52 to play to pull within 3 points. USC then went 3-and-out for its third straight possession and Nebraska drove to the Trojan 31, only to be stopped short again on fourth down with 2:31 remaining. Nebraska got the ball back with 17 seconds to play and drove to its 44, but Armstrong's Hail Mary pass with 1 second to go was knocked away by WR Nelson Agholor, who was inserted to defend the play. After Nebraska opened the game's scoring on PK Drew Brown's 34-yard field goal when it took over at midfield following a partially blocked punt, Jackson ran back the ensuing kickoff a Holiday Bowl-record 98 yards for a TD. Nebraska answered with a 18-yard Armstrong-to-Bell TD pass, then USC countered with a 42-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari to tie the game at 10-10 midway through the opening quarter. Armstrong hit WR De'Mornay Pierson-El with a 9-yard scoring pass late in the quarter, but USC responded again as Kessler found Agholor for a 17-yard TD early in the second quarter. The Trojans then took a 24-17 lead into halftime on Allen's 2-yard scoring run to cap an 80-yard drive. Nebraska benefitted from outstanding field position in the opening half, as the average start of its 9 first-half possession was its 45-yard line. USC extended its margin to 31-17 early in the second half when Kessler threw a short pass to Jackson, who raced 71 yards for a TD. The teams then traded TDs, with RB Ameer Abdullah getting a 20-yard TD run and Allen scoring on a 44-yard run. After Nebraska blocked another USC punt late in the third quarter and took over at the USC 16, Brown nailed a 24-yard field goal to pull the Cornhuskers within 38-27. USC won despite Nebraska having more total yards (525 to 515), passing yards (381 to 321), first downs (28 to 22), plays (94 to 73) and possession time (34:26 to 25:34). The Trojans were penalized 12 times for 97 yards and converted just 3-of-14 third downs (0-of-6 in the second half). Kessler, the game's Offensive MVP, completed 23-of-39 throws for 321 yards and 3 TDs with an interception, and he tied the USC season records for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7) and set season marks for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11). Allen ran for a game-best 152 yards on 26 carries and had a 16-yard reception, giving him at least 100 all-purpose yards in every game of 2014. Jackson, who became the first Trojan since R. Jay Soward in 1996 with 2 scoring kick runbacks in a season, had 203 all-purpose yards (3 receptions for 73 yards and 3 kick returns for 130 yards) along with 7 tackles. Agholor caught 7 passes for 90 yards, giving him 104 catches in 2014 (third best in USC history). DE Leonard Williams, the game's Defensive MVP, and CB Josh Shaw each had a team-high 9 tackles (Williams had a sack), while LB Hayes Pullard added 8 stops to become the first Trojan since Dennis Johnson in 1977-79 to lead USC in tackles for 3 seasons. For Nebraska, Armstrong hit 32-of-51 passes for 381 yards with 3 TDs and an interception and he ran for 41 yards on 12 tries, Abdullah had 269 all-purpose yards (88 on 27 carries, 61 on 6 receptions and 120 on 3 kickoff returns), Pierson-El had 8 catches for 102 yards and Bell had 7 grabs for 71 yards. The Cornhuskers were led by interim head coach Barney Cotton, filling in after head coach Bo Pellini was released after the regular season. It was just USC's seventh game in San Diego and the first since 1992.

2015 Holiday Bowl
Wisconsin 23, USC 21

PK Rafael Gaglianone kicked 3 field goals, including a 29-yarder with 2:27 to play, to give No. 23 Wisconsin a 23-21 victory over USC in the National Funding Holiday Bowl on a chilly evening before 48,329 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience. It was USC's first loss to Wisconsin in 7 meetings (the teams last played in 1966) and it snapped Troy's 13-game winning streak over Big Ten squads (including 8 straight in bowls). USC trailed the entire game before taking a 21-20 lead with 10:19 to play on a 7-yard touchdown pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Darreus Rogers. But later in the final quarter, the Badgers drove 42 yards into position for Gaglianone's game-winning 3-pointer. Overall, USC had only 286 total yards (just 65 rushing) and 16 first downs (all season lows) on 61 plays against a Wisconsin defense that came into the game ranked first nationally in scoring (13.1), third in total yards (267.1), fourth in rushing (97.9) and sixth in passing (169.2). Troy converted just 5-of-14 third downs. Wisconsin ended up with 394 total yards on 75 plays while posting 37:18 of possession time. After a scoreless first quarter, Wisconsin built a 10-0 lead on Gaglianone's 28-yard field goal early in the second quarter and then a 6-yard scoring run by RB Corey Clement on the Badgers' next possession. USC responded on its ensuing drive with a 1-yard TD run by TB Justin Davis, but Wisconsin answered right back by driving 71 yards on 12 plays to set up Gaglianone's 33-yard field goal with 26 seconds to play in the half to give the Badgers a 13-7 edge. Wisconsin had 238 yards on 39 plays in the first half to USC's 114 yards on 24 plays (Troy had the ball just 9:49). Wisconsin scored on its first series of the second half as QB Joel Stave hit TE Austin Traylor with a 4-yard TD toss. But the Trojans got a 4-yard Davis TD run on the next series to pull within 20-14 late in the third quarter. Kessler was 18-of-32 for 221 yards, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 4 catches for 65 yards, TB Ronald Jones ran for 47 yards on 8 carries and DT Delvon Simmons had a game-best and career-high 11 tackles (2 for losses). For Wisconsin, Stave was 18-of-27 for 217 yards to earn Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors, while WR Alex Erickson had 5 receptions for 54 yards and Clement ran for a game-best 66 yards on 19 tries. OLB Jack Cichy, the game's Defensive MVP, led Wisconsin with 9 tackles, including 3 consecutive sacks on a third quarter series right after USC had closed to 20-14 (he also hit Kessler's arm to force an interception with 1:44 to play).

USC 52, Penn State 49

After QB Sam Darnold threw a Rose Bowl-record 5 touchdowns, PK Matt Boermeester rebounded from a pair of earlier missed field goal attempts to nail a 46-yarder at the gun to help No. 9 USC overcome a 14-point fourth quarter deficit and propel the Trojans to a wild and legend-making 52-49 victory over No. 5 Penn State in the 103rd Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 95,128 fans on a chilly Jan. 2 afternoon and an ESPN national audience. It was the highest scoring Rose Bowl in history (by 18 points), as well as the largest fourth quarter deficit a team has overcome to win a Rose Bowl (USC also was down by 15 points in the third quarter, marking the largest victorious comeback from any point in a Rose Bowl). The victory not only snapped Penn State's 9-game winning streak, it extended USC's winning string to 9 games and gave the Trojans their 26th 10-win season. It also upped Troy's Rose Bowl record to 25-8 (not including 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty). Darnold, the game's Offensive MVP, was 33-of-53 passing for 453 yards (all were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl) and he set a Rose Bowl total offense record of 473 yards. He was 10-of-10 for 135 yards in the fourth quarter while leading USC on 2 long scoring drives in the final 9 minutes to tie the score and set the stage for Boermeester's game winner. WR Deontay Burnett caught 13 passes for 164 yards, with a Rose Bowl record-tying 3 TDs (all career bests). His 13 receptions were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl. Boermeester, who hit a pair of first quarter field goals but also missed 51- and 44-yarders in the first half, tied a Rose Bowl record with his trio of 3-pointers. It was only the fourth time ever that USC won a game on a field goal at 0:00. Boermeester's game winner was set up by a 32-yard third down interception return by S Leon McQuay III with 27 seconds to play, just one snap after McQuay dropped a potential pick on a similar long pass. The teams, which together put up 1,040 yards of total offense, set Rose Bowl game records for total touchdowns (13), passing TDs (9) and passing first downs (35). USC set Rose Bowl records for first downs (33) and passing first downs (23), its 453 passing yards was just 3 shy of the Rose Bowl mark and Troy finished in the Top 5 on the Rose Bowl charts for pass attempts (54), completions (33), plays (88), total yards (575), touchdowns (6), field goals (3) and points (52). USC held the ball for 33:21 and converted 8-of-15 third downs, but was penalized 10 times. Penn State rolled up 465 total yards, including 211 rushing, and 23 first downs on 62 plays, but converted just 4-of-10 third downs and turned the ball over 3 times. At one point, PSU scored on 7 consecutive drives, including on 4 straight offensive plays. Its 49 points were the most by a Rose Bowl losing team, while its 28 third quarter points were the most ever in any Rose Bowl quarter. The Nittany Lions were held scoreless in the first and fourth quarters (managing just 52 yards), including only 14 yards in the final quarter when it failed to convert on all 4 third downs tries. PSU RB Saquon Barkley ran for 194 yards on 25 carries along with 5 catches for 55 yards and 2 kick returns for 57 yards for 306 all-purpose yards, QB Trace McSorley was 18-of-29 for 254 yards and 4 TDs but threw 3 picks and WR Chris Godwin had 9 catches for 187 yards. CB Iman Marshall and then CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson picked off McSorley's first 2 passes of the game and USC converted the second one into a touchdown on a 26-yard Darnold aerial to Burnett, the first of 5 scores on consecutive first-half drives for the Trojans. Boermeester then hit 22- and 44-yard field goals late in the first quarter to get Troy off to a 13-0 start. But Penn State responded as Barkley had a 24-yard scoring run early in the second quarter, the first of its 7 consecutive TD drives. USC countered with a 3-yard TD toss from Darnold to Burnett, only to have Penn State answer back on McSorley's 30-yard scoring pass to Godwin. USC built the margin back to 13 points on Darnold's 3-yard TD pass to WR Darreus Rogers, but PSU pulled within 27-21 at halftime on McSorley's 11-yard TD throw to TE Mike Gesicki with 54 seconds left, the first of 4 TDs the Nittany Lions would score on consecutive offensive plays. After a USC drive stalled to open the second half, Barkley jetted 79 yards for a score on PSU's first play (the longest run surrendered by USC in 2016). On the first play of Penn State's next possession, Godwin hauled in a 72-yard McSorley bomb for a touchdown (the longest pass allowed by USC in 2016) and, after Darnold was intercepted deep in Trojan territory on USC's next drive, McSorley raced 3 yards on the following play to put the Nittany Lions up 42-27 just 10:26 into the third quarter. USC ended PSU's 28-point scoring run on its ensuring drive by getting a 13-yard Darnold scoring toss to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (Troy added a 2-point conversion on a Darnold pass to TE Taylor McNamara), but the Nittany Lions responded with an 82-yard scoring march late in the third quarter, capped by McSorley's 7-yard TD pass to Barkley to give PSU a 49-35 lead. After failed possessions by both teams, USC closed the gap after a 3-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones II with 8:15 to play to finish an 83-yard drive. USC forced Nittany Lion punts on their next 2 series, with Troy getting the ball back on its own 20 with 1:59 to go and taking just 3 plays to tie the game at 49 all on Darnold's 27-yard TD strike to Burnett, who broke off his flat route and instead ran to the post. The Trojans forced Penn State into third-and-9 on its next drive, setting up McQuay to make his dramatic interception. Smith-Schuster had 7 grabs for 133 yards in the game and Jones, who wore jersey #4 in honor of late USC TB Joe McKnight (the entire team wore a JM4 helmet sticker), ran for 55 yards on 20 carries. DT Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who was the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, led USC with 8 tackles, while McQuay had 7. The attendance was the Rose Bowl's largest since 1998 and the most for a USC game since 106,033 at Ohio State in 2009. The 55-degree temperature at kickoff was the coolest since the 1974 Rose Bowl (also 55). The game lasted 4 hours and 12 minutes (USC's longest since the 2012 Syracuse game, 4:24). The ESPN College GameDay pre-game show emanated from the stadium's field.

2004 win and 2005 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty*

There have been 50 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (23 times during the regular season, twice in a conference playoff and 25 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 28 times, the No. 2 team has won 20 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 3-3 in such matchups, winning 3 of the 4 times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

Defeating No. 1

This is a list of USC games in which a No. 1-ranked team was defeated or tied. From AP rankings. Asterisk (*) is home team. (N) is neutral site. In parentheses following winning or tying team is its rank in the previous week's poll (NR is not ranked), its won-loss record entering game, and its score. Next is the defeated or tied No. 1 team, its score, and its rank in the poll the following week.

WHEN USC BEAT A NO. 1 TEAM:

12-2-38	*USC (8, 7-2) 13, Notre Dame 0 (5)
10-20-51	USC (11, 4-1) 21, *California 14 (9)

FBR--College Football Researchers Association (1982-92, 2009-current). Founded by Anthony Cusher and Robert Kirlin, it determined its champion by a Top 10 vote of membership on a point system. Predated national champions from 1919-81, conducted on a poll by Harry Carson Frye.

FWA--Football Writers Association of America (1954-2013). Chosen by five-man committee representing membership. Award called the Grantland Rice Trophy.

Har--Harris Interactive (2005-2013). Chosen by a panel of media and former players, coaches and administrators.

Helms--First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1883-1982). Originally called Helms Athletic Foundation, then changed to Citizen Savings Athletic Foundation before new name adopted in 1982.

HF--National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-2013). Chosen by a committee representing membership. Award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Merged with UPI in 1991 and with USA Today in 1993.

Lit--Litkenhous System (1934-84). A rating method developed by Frank and Edward (a professor of chemical engineering at Vanderbilt) Litkenhous.

Mas--Massey College Football Ratings (1995-current). A mathematical rating system developed by Kenneth Massey, which takes into account homefield advantage.

NYT--New York Times (1979-2004). A mathematical rating system introduced by this major newspaper.

Pol--Poling System (1935-84). A mathematical rating system developed by Richard Poling, a former football player at Ohio Wesleyan. Ratings were published annually in the Football Review Supplement and various newspapers. Predeated national champions from 1924-34.

Sag--Sagarin Ratings (1919-current). A mathematical rating system developed by Jeff Sagarin, a 1970 MIT mathematics graduate. It runs annually in USA Today.

Thes--The Football Thesaurus (1927-58). A system devised by Deke Houlgate and syndicated in newspapers, plus published in Illustrated Football and the Football Thesaurus (1946-58).

UPI--United Press International (1950-1995). Originally a poll of college coaches, in 1991 voters comprised of college football enthusiasts. In 1992, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame co-sponsored poll, with voters consisting of 100 NFF members (athletic administrators, journalists, ex-players, and ex-coaches) and award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Beginning in 1993, voters were 16 bowl representatives.

USA--USA Today/Cable News Network and ESPN (1982-current). A weekly poll of sportswriters introduced in 1982 in USA Today and on CNN. Took over the coaches' poll in 1991. USA Today also formed a coalition with the National Football Foundation in 1993 to name the McArthur Bowl national champion. Combined with ESPN in 1997 through 2004.

Wol--Wolfe (1992-current). A mathematically based power rating matrix developed by Peter Wolfe and Ross Baker.

(NOTE: The national champion was selected before bowl games as follows: AP, 1936-64 and 1966-67; UPI, 1950-73; FWA, 1954; HF, 1959-70. In all other latter-day polls, champions were selected after bowl games.)

USC in AP Rankings

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 1,119 times. USC has been ranked in the poll 748 times (66.8% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams (according to CollegePollArchive.com):

1.	Ohio State	870
2.	Michigan	823
3.	Oklahoma	778
4.	Notre Dame	770
5.	Alabama	759
6.	USC	748
7.	Nebraska	728
8.	Texas	706
9.	Penn State	599
10.	LSU	588

In those 1,119 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 91 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Ohio State	105
2.	Oklahoma	101
3.	Notre Dame	98
4.	USC	91
5.	Alabama	89
6.	Florida St.	72
7.	Nebraska	70
8.	Miami (Fla.)	68
9.	Texas	45
10.	Florida	41

USC has the longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with a national record 33 (from Dec. 8, 2003 to Dec. 4, 2005). The Trojans also had an earlier streak of 18 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	USC	33
2.	Miami, Fla.	21
3.	USC	18
4.	Florida State	17
5.	Alabama	16
6.	Army	15
	Nebraska	15
	Oklahoma	15
	Nebraska	15
	Ohio State	15
	Alabama	15

In 2004, USC became only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams--Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972--were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

USC's back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004 marked the 10th time that a team won consecutive AP national titles. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95). Since then, Alabama did it in 2011-12.

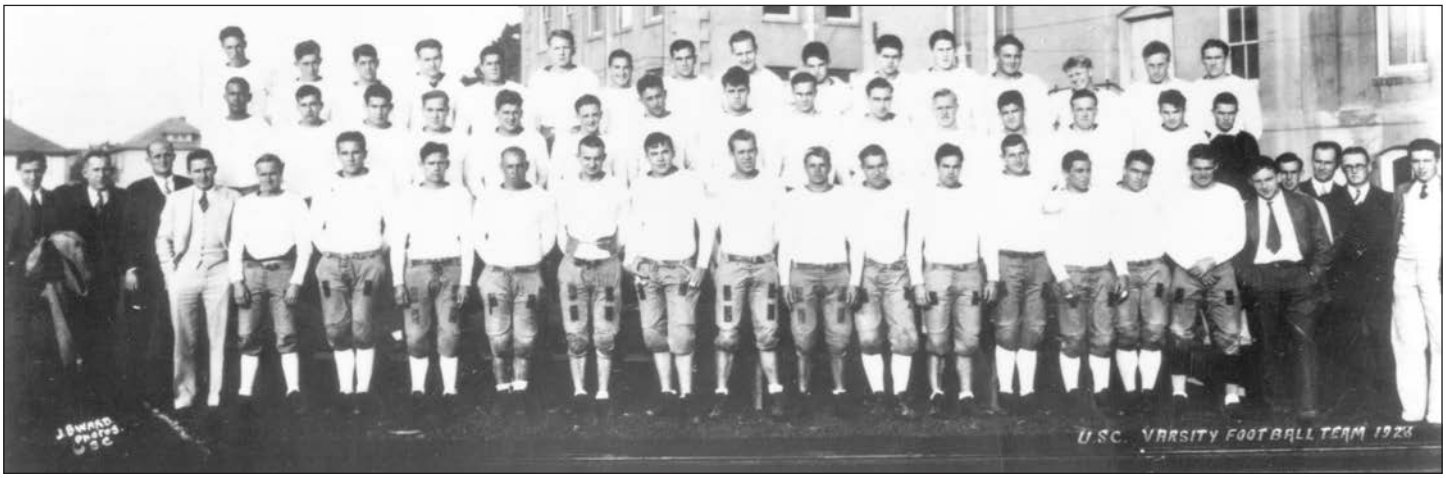
1928 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



They whip the ends, they buck the guards, the line begins to yield
And the "greatest team in history" backs slowly down the field
And finally comes the whistle as a seal to Stanford's fate,
And the "greatest team in history" goes staggering through the gate
--Excerpt from a 1928 poem about the USC-Stanford clash.

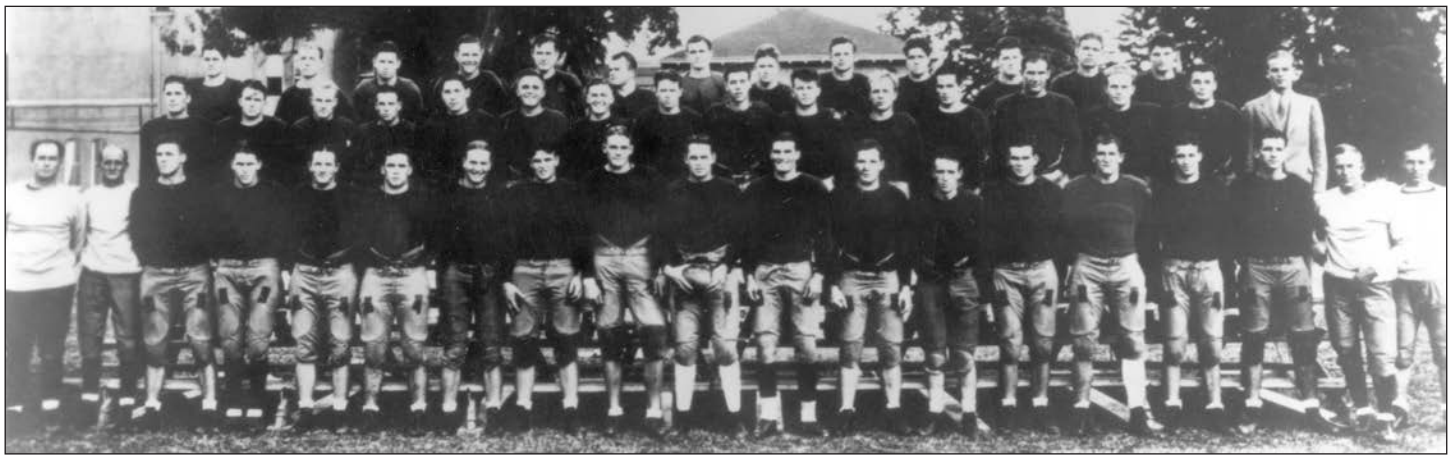
The "Thundering Herd," under Hall of Fame coach Howard Jones, galloped to the Trojans' first national championship in 1928. A swarming defense, led by tackle Jesse Hibbs and end Garrett Arbelide, gave up only 59 points all season, while an offensive backfield of Harry Edelson, Russ Saunders, Don Williams and Marshall Duffield rolled over, under, and through their opponents.

USC finished the season with nine wins and no losses, with the only blemish being a 0-0 tie with Cal as the Golden Bears continued to be a nemesis for Troy in the 1920s.

The Trojans beat Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians, 10-0, forcing five fumbles in the process. Warner had never lost to Jones and he considered his 1928 team to be his best. But USC used a special strategy called the "quick mix" to disrupt Stanford's offense and help offset the Indians' 10-pound-per-man weight advantage. The strategy worked in what was a landmark game for the Trojans, who established themselves as the preeminent football power on the West Coast. Warner never beat Jones again.

The 1928 season also saw USC beat Notre Dame and Knute Rockne for the first time, 27-14. Williams passed for 111 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 93 more as the Trojans clinched the national title.

1931 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"I've waited for two years for this day – but, boy, what revenge!"
– USC's Erny Pinckert after beating the Irish.

The 1931 edition of Howard Jones' "Thundering Herd" was the team that captured the imagination of college football fans everywhere, and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 welcomed the Trojans home from a thrilling 16-14 victory over Notre Dame in South Bend—a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes, and three BIG points."

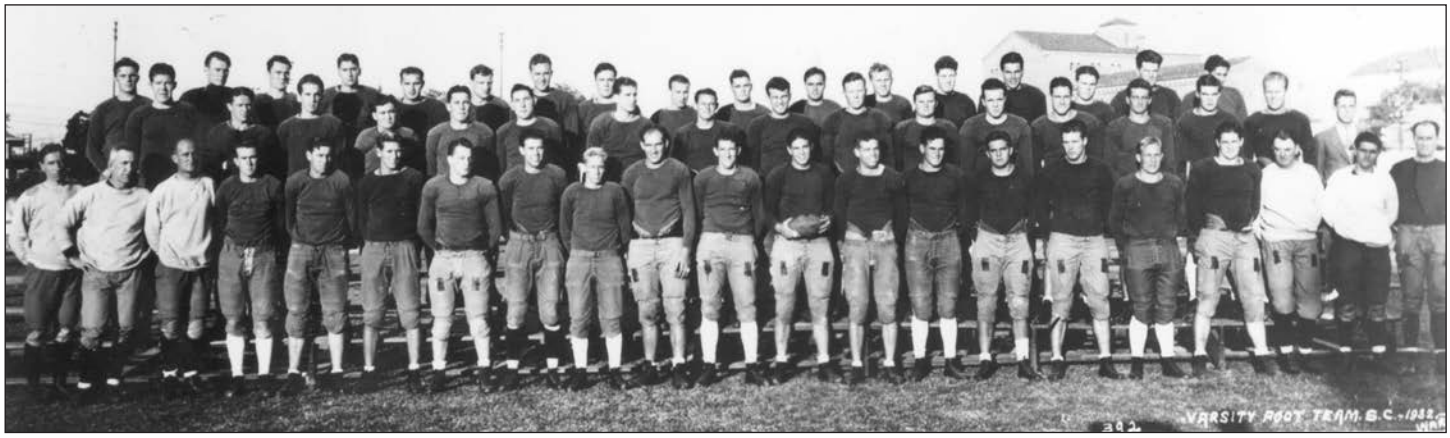
USC trailed the Irish14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was the Trojans' first victory in South Bend.

The season started inauspiciously enough with a 13-7 loss to St. Mary's. "I have no alibis to offer," said Jones afterward. But Troy then proceeded to roll over its next 10 opponents by a combined score of 356 to 39. There were six shutouts.

"(USC is) the greatest team I have ever seen," said Georgia coach Harry Mehre, after his Bulldogs were blanked, 60-0. The usually taciturn Jones agreed, calling his team "the greatest offensive machine I have ever coached."

USC capped the season with a 21-12 victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl. Four Trojans garnered All-American acclaim: Baker, Shaver, Erny Pinckert and team captain Stan Williamson.

1932 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



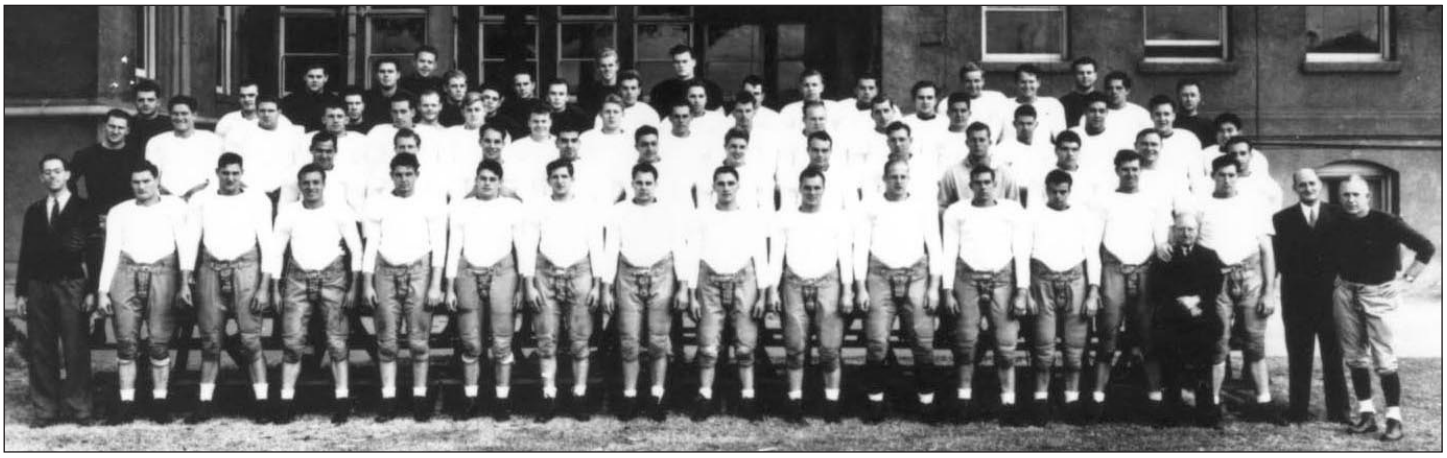
"Fortunately, I have a strong line to start with. I have Mohler, and if anything happens to him, I have Griffith and Warburton."
– Howard Jones to famed sportswriter Grantland Rice before the 1932 season.

The Trojans breezed to their second consecutive national championship in 1932 as the Howard Jones era reached its pinnacle. But at the start of the season, future greatness was not apparent for this team. Seven regulars had graduated from the 1931 squad, including three All-Americans. By the end of the season, however, it was hailed as perhaps Jones' finest squad. In fact, some still regard this as USC's best team.

The line, one of the greatest in Trojan history, included All-Americans Tay Brown, Aaron Rosenberg and Ernie Smith. The offense, directed by Homer Griffith and featuring back Cotton Warburton and ends Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, was potent despite losing star Orv Mohler to injury. Meanwhile, the defense shut out its first five opponents, before finally being scored upon in the fourth quarter of game six. Jones' squad allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 201. USC defeated Notre Dame 13-0 and smashed Pittsburgh 35-0 in the Rose Bowl.

The masterful 1932 season firmly placed Jones in the upper echelon of collegiate coaches. He even appeared on the cover of TIME magazine, where he was compared to the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg and Glenn "Pop" Warner. In 1999, Athlon magazine rated the 1932 team among the greatest of the 20th century.

1939 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We weren't off form, stale or crippled. We were just outclassed."
– Tennessee coach Bob Neyland after his undefeated, unscored-upon Vols lost, 14-0, to USC in the 1940 Rose Bowl.

The year 1939 witnessed Howard Jones' Thundering Herd capture its fourth national championship. The head man remarked at the team banquet that this team-his next to last at Troy-was his finest (at least in terms of depth) in his 16 years at USC.

As tanks rolled in Europe, Jones' team rolled to an 8-0-2 record, shutting out six teams and allowing just 7 points to three others. Only 33 points were scored upon Troy that year-a mark no Trojan defense has topped since.

The season had its share of huge games. There was a 19-7 win over No. 11 Oregon State in Portland and a 20-12 win over No. 7 Notre Dame at South Bend (USC wouldn't win again at Notre Dame Stadium until 1967). The regular season finale was an epic 0-0 tie with No. 9 UCLA in front of 103,303, the second-largest crowd in Coliseum history. The capper was a 14-0 win over No. 2 Tennessee in the Rose Bowl against a Volunteer team that hadn't been scored upon in 16 games and hadn't lost in 24 games.

Lineman Harry Smith was a unanimous All-American, while quarterback Grenny Lansdell-who led the team with 742 rushing yards and 54 points-was also named to some teams.

At season's end, the Trojans were given the Knute Rockne Trophy, awarded each year to the No. 1 team in the country by Professor Frank G. Dickinson, a respected analyst who declared, "The Trojans were the best team in the best section...and the nation's other top teams did not play as strong a schedule as USC."

1962 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Our intention was to win today....and what does the scoreboard say?"
– John McKay after the 1963 Rose Bowl.

In 1962, John McKay led USC to its first national championship in 23 years and inaugurated one of the greatest dynasties in college football history. From 1962 to 1981, the Trojans won five national titles, played in 11 Rose Bowls, collected four Heisman Trophies and contributed dozens of All-Americans to what was already a remarkable football heritage

McKay's third team featured the talented quarterback tandem of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelsen, who combined to pass for 18 touchdowns while tossing only three interceptions. A then-school-record 11 of those touchdowns went to consensus All-American end Hal Bedsole, who also set the standard for passes caught (33) and yards receiving (827). The ground attack was run from the I-formation, led by the versatile Willie Brown at tailback and co-captain Ben Wilson at fullback. Brown led the team in rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns, and was the second leading receiver.

The Trojan defense allowed only 92 points all season. All-American linebacker Damon Bame led a unit that had three shutouts (including a 25-0 blanking of Notre Dame) and allowed more than 10 points only twice during the regular-season.

Troy capped the year by outlasting Wisconsin, 42-37, in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. McKay was named Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America.

1967 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Well, gentlemen, I guess I wasn't so stupid today."
–John McKay after beating UCLA, 21-20.

The 1967 Trojans relied on the running of tailback O.J. Simpson, the blocking of Outland Trophy-winning tackle Ron Yary, and a stifling defense to win USC's sixth national championship.

Simpson's weaving 64-yard touchdown run, perhaps the most famous run in college football history, was the difference in a 21-20 victory over UCLA. The showdown between the top-ranked Bruins and the No. 4-ranked Trojans remains one of the greatest games in the history of the crosstown series.

USC's only blemish on the season was a 3-0 loss in the rain and mud to Oregon State in Corvallis. The Trojans would not be shut out again for 26 years and did not lose again to the Beavers until 2000. The other key victory for Troy, a 24-7 win over Notre Dame, was USC's first win at South Bend since 1939. Linebacker Adrian Young's four interceptions (a USC record) helped to repel the Irish. The Trojans celebrated New Year's Day 1968 with a 14-3 victory over Indiana in the Rose Bowl.

The incomparable Simpson, the Heisman runner-up that year, ran for a then-NCAA-record 1,543 regular-season yards (1,709 overall) to go with 13 touchdowns. Mike Battle, Tim Rossovich, and Young led a defense which allowed only 87 points. A record five Trojans were selected in the first round of the 1968 NFL draft, with Yary going first overall.

1972 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

-- Washington State coach Jim Sweeney.

The 1972 national champions averaged 39 points per game and never trailed in the second half. In going 12-0-0, the Trojans scored 467 points, second most in school history. The defense intercepted 28 passes, limited their opponents to 2.5 yards per rush, and never gave up a run longer than 29 yards.

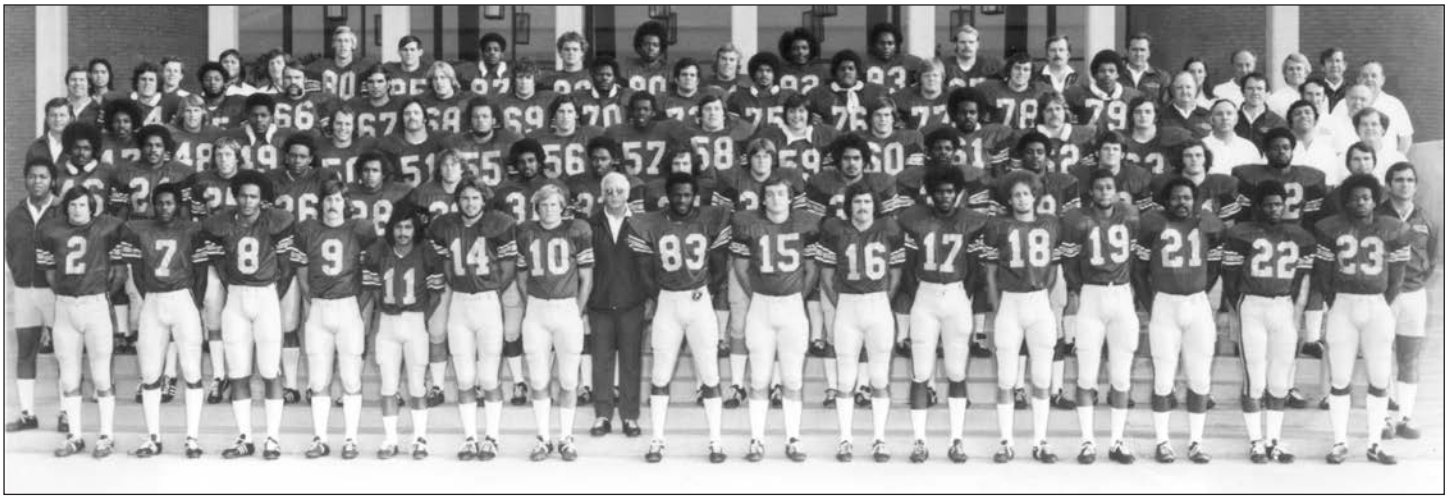
The roster was a perfect blend of talent, youth, and experience. Senior Mike Rae and sophomore Pat Haden handled the quarterback duties. Sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 1,191 yards despite not starting until the eighth game. All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham was an outstanding blocker and a tremendous leaper, especially in goal-line situations. Tight end Charles Young was equally adept blocking and receiving, while split ends Lynn Swann, Edesel Garrison and J.K. McKay were excellent pass catchers.

The defense was fast and strong. Sophomore linebacker Richard Wood burst onto the scene with 18 tackles in the season-opener on his way to garnering All-American honors. John Grant and Jeff Winans anchored the defensive line, while Artimus Parker, Charles Phillips and Charles Hinton led the secondary.

USC's smallest margin of victory was nine points (versus Stanford). The Trojans beat No. 4-ranked Arkansas 31-10, No. 18 Washington 34-7, No. 14 UCLA 24-7, No.10 Notre Dame 45-23 and No. 3 Ohio State 42-17. USC was unanimously chosen No. 1 in the final AP and UPI polls, the first team to be so honored.

The 1972 team is considered to be John McKay's finest at USC and one of the greatest college teams of all time.

1974 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We turned into madmen."
-- Anthony Davis, after USC came back to beat Notre Dame.

The 1974 team earned John McKay his fourth national title behind the big-play heroics of All-American tailback Anthony Davis, the steady leadership of quarterback Pat Haden and the clutch play of a defense that forced the second-highest interception total in USC history.

Davis, the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, rushed for 1,421 yards and 13 touchdowns. His three-year yardage total of 3,724 yards and 52 touchdowns was a Pac-8 record. He set an NCAA record for most kickoffs returned for TDs in a season (3) and career (6). He scored four touchdowns to lead the Trojans to an amazing 55-24 comeback win over Notre Dame in the regular season finale. In his career, Davis scored 11 touchdowns against the Fighting Irish.

Pat Haden threw 13 touchdown passes, but his biggest completions came with the Trojans trailing Ohio State 17-10 in the 1975 Rose Bowl. His 38-yard TD strike to J.K McKay with two minutes to play and his subsequent 2-point conversion to Shelton Diggs gave USC an 18-17 victory and the writers' share of the national championship.

Senior linebacker Richard Wood, Troy's only three-time All-American, led the defense. Defensive back Charles Phillips set NCAA records for most interception return yardage in a season (302), most interception return yardage in a game (181), highest average gain per interception for one game (90.5), and most touchdowns on interception returns in a season (3).

The win over Notre Dame, dubbed "The Comeback," was sparked by Davis' 102-yard kickoff return to start the second half. Trailing 24-0 late in the second quarter, the Trojans scored 55 unanswered points in just under 17 minutes to win going away.

USC had five players selected to the All-American team for the third consecutive year. A school-record 12 Trojans were selected to the All-Conference squad (since equalled by the 1989 Trojans). Fourteen players from the 1974 team were taken in the NFL draft—an all-time record also shared by the 1976 Trojan team.

1978 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I don't remember ever playing against a tailback who can run like White."
—Paul 'Bear' Bryant, after witnessing Charles White rush for 199 yards against his Alabama team.

The 1978 national champions, coached by John Robinson, were a USC team stocked with great college players and several future NFL stars.

The Trojans finished 12-1, including a solid 24-14 road victory over co-national champion Alabama, a nail-biting 27-25 win over Notre Dame, and a 17-10 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

All-American tailback Charles White rushed for 1,859 yards to become the Pac-10 career rushing leader as a junior. Freshman tailback Marcus Allen provided depth. Quarterback Paul McDonald led the conference in passing and tied a USC record with 19 touchdown passes. Fullback Lynn Cain rushed for 977 yards, the most ever by a Trojan fullback. Flanker Kevin Williams had 17 receptions, 10 of them for touchdowns. The offensive line included All-American guard Pat Howell, All-Pac-10 tackle Anthony Munoz (considered by many to be the game's greatest tackle ever) and All-Pac-10 guard Brad Budde (a four-year starter and the 1979 Lombardi Award winner). The back-ups on the line included future All-Pros Roy Foster and Keith Van Horne.

The defense featured the talented safety duo of Dennis Smith and Ronnie Lott. Linebackers Dennis Johnson (the team's tackle leader) and Riki Gray manned the middle, while Larry McGrew and Chip Banks roamed the outside. Rich Dimler, Myron Lapka and Dennis Edwards keyed the defensive line.

The Trojans' only loss was at Arizona State, 20-7. They would remain unbeaten for the next 28 games. USC took the top spot in the coaches poll, but finished second in the writer's poll to Alabama despite beating the Crimson Tide earlier in the season.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"If you stay with me, I'll take you places you've never been."
—Pete Carroll, at a team meeting to open 2003 fall practice.

After a 25-year hiatus, USC returned to the top of the college football world when it won the 2003 AP national championship.

Head coach Pete Carroll, in just his third year at Troy, guided his Trojans to a 12-1 record and their second consecutive Pac-10 title. USC closed the season by winning its last 9 games, including a dominating victory over No. 4 Michigan in the Rose Bowl. USC scored at least 30 points in 11 consecutive games, including 40 points in 7 in a row (both Pac-10 records), en route to tallying 534 total points (another Pac-10 mark). For just the second time in history, USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years.

Not many predicted the 2003 team's success. After all, these Trojans had to replace a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and an All-American safety (Troy Polamalu), among others. But Trojans fans got an inkling of the team's potential when USC opened its season at No. 6 Auburn with a 23-0 whitewash. The only loss came in triple overtime at California.

Five players won All-American first team honors: quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Mike Williams, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers and punter Tom Malone. Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting. And Carroll was recognized as the National Coach of the Year.

Leinart, who had never thrown a pass in his USC career before the 2003 campaign, was the Pac-10's Offensive Player of the Year (Stanford's John Elway was the only other sophomore so honored) and set a Pac-10 record with 38 TD passes. Williams, another sophomore, caught 95 passes with a school-record 16 TDs. Udeze tied for the national lead in sacks with 16.5, while soph Malone shattered the USC season punting average record (49.0). Other key contributors were wide receiver Keary Colbert, who became USC's career receptions leader, the rotating tailback threesome of Hershel Dennis, LenDale White (the first true freshman to top Troy in rushing) and Reggie Bush, cornerback Will Poole, center Norm Katnik, defensive tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, placekicker Ryan Killeen and linebacker Lofa Tatupu.

The Trojan defense topped the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forcing 42 turnovers and scoring 8 TDs.

"USC Leaves No Doubt"
—Los Angeles Daily News headline after USC's Orange Bowl win.

From the start of training camp, the motto for the 2004 USC football team was "Leave No Doubt." The Trojans did just that, winning their second consecutive national championship. And, unlike 2003, this title was undisputed, as USC demolished Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl, 55-19. Troy went 11-0 overall (not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 13-0, a school record for victories) and became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from pre-season through the entire campaign. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. At 7-0, USC won its third consecutive Pac-10 title(not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 8-0). The Trojans swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for an unprecedented third year in a row (UCLA win vacated due to NCAA penalty).

USC concluded the season riding a 20-game winning streak, as well as 21 straight home games, a Pac-10 record 15 consecutive league home games, 14 straight Pac-10 games and 8 road games in a row (not including 2 overall wins, 1 Pac-10 win and 1 road win vacated due to NCAA penalty: original record: 22-game winning streak, 15 Pac-10 games, 9 road games) .

Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance.

A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, Heisman finalist tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. Leinart and Bush were named the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Year, while Cody was the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

USC'S "HISTORY-SHAPING" GAMES

(When USC football reached a milestone in its illustrious history on Oct. 2, 1999, by playing its 1,000th game, former Trojan assistant sports information director Chris Huston wrote the following since-updated story in Troy's game program that day on USC's "most important" games...not necessarily the best games or most dramatic, but those that made USC football what it is today.)

Looking back, who would have thought that a tiny school founded by the Methodist Church would emerge to become one of the top football powers in the country?

There have been so many accomplishments in these 1,000-plus games: 11 national titles, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 33 Rose Bowls and 160 All-Americans. Trojan football history is packed with heroic moments and legendary names.

The names are etched clearly in our memories: Gloomy Gus. The Thundering Herd. John McKay. Iron Mike. And the famous games still resonate: the twin comebacks versus Notre Dame, the recurring nail-biters against UCLA, the triumphant Rose Bowls.

But what about the "most important" games out of the past 1,000-plus -- the games that helped make USC what it is today? Which games started trends, broke streaks or changed history? Some you'll remember, some you won't. Here are a few of the contests that shaped USC's football history:

1888 - USC 16, Alliance Athletic Club 0 The first game. Who could have imagined how the future would unfold? In those days a touchdown scored four points, while the conversion was worth two points, a field goal five points and a safety scored two. Frank Suffel and Henry Goddard were the playing coaches for this first team.

1905 - Stanford 16, USC 0 This was USC's first game ever against major college competition. Prior to this, USC had played Southland colleges, high schools, academies and athletic clubs and had rivalry games with Pomona and Occidental. Stanford, however, was big-time on the gridiron long before USC was. The Stanford-Cal game annually made bigger headlines, even in Los Angeles, than any USC game. USC fans looked forward to this game all year and the Trojans managed to hold their own on a dreary day in Palo Alto, but the result was a shutout loss. Significantly, USC did not play another major opponent in college football for nine years after this Stanford loss.

1924 - California 7, USC 0 Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson's undefeated Trojans met Andy Smith's undefeated Bears before 60,000 in USC's first appearance at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley. Jim Dixon scored the game's only touchdown on a 12-yard run around left end in the second quarter. USC's loss pushed its record against Cal to 1-8-1. The pressure from the alumni for Henderson's ouster grew intense, and after an upset loss to St. Mary's the next week, the decision was made to buy out Gloomy Gus' contract at the end of the year. The way was thus cleared for the arrival of Howard Jones, arguably Troy's greatest head coach.

1925 - Nebraska 17, Notre Dame 0 The greatest intersectional college football rivalry--USC versus Notre Dame--might never have commenced but for this game. USC was looking for a national rival and dispatched graduate manager Gwynn Wilson (akin to the modern day athletic director) and his wife to Lincoln, where Notre Dame was playing Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Knute Rockne was cool to the idea of a home-and-home series with USC because of the travel involved, but Mrs. Wilson was able to persuade Mrs. Rockne that a trip every two years to sunny Southern California was better than one to snowy, hostile Nebraska. Mrs. Rockne spoke to her husband and shortly thereafter Notre Dame became an annual fixture on USC's schedule.

1928 - USC 10, Stanford 0 Howard Jones had not beaten Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians in three tries until his Thundering Herd did it before 80,000 at the Coliseum this year. The legendary Warner considered this Stanford team to be his best, but they lost five turnovers to USC that day. Stanford's 10-pound per-man weight advantage was offset by the Trojans' "quick-mix" defense and a speedy backfield comprised of Don Williams, Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield. This was a landmark game as it signaled Troy's emergence as the preeminent power on the West Coast. USC went on to win its first national title that season and Jones never lost to Warner again.

1931 - USC 16, Notre Dame 14 This game captured the imagination of football fans everywhere--and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 fans welcomed the Trojans home from this thrilling victory in South Bend--a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes and three BIG points." USC trailed 14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten string and was the Trojans' first win in South Bend. Called "...the biggest upset since Mrs. O'Leary's cow knocked over that lantern" by El Rodeo, Troy's student yearbook, it clinched USC's second national title and firmly established the Trojans as a national power.

1944 - USC 38, Washington 7 This was USC's first home night game in the Coliseum. The game program reported: "This may well be the one and only Coliseum night game in Trojan varsity football history." That year, Washington was under wartime travel restrictions and was forced to schedule two California games in seven days. A schedule conflict resulted and an exception had to be made to USC's longstanding policy of playing Saturday afternoons. The game was a success. The attendance of 62,865 was USC's largest for a home game that year. As a result, home night games became a regular part of the USC schedule.

1956 - USC 44, Texas 20 In 1925, guard Brice Taylor, an African-American, was named USC's first All-American. It would be about 30 years before another black man made his mark on Trojan football. Fullback C.R. Roberts was that man. He rumbled for 251 yards versus Texas, setting the USC single-game rushing record in the process. The record stood for 20 years. It was sweet redemption for Roberts and his teammates. The game was played in Austin and the hotel the Trojans had booked was segregated. Head Coach Jess Hill moved his team to a lodging that was integrated and the Trojans seemed to take it out on the Longhorns on game day.

1959 - Notre Dame 16, USC 6 This was the last game played between the two teams in South Bend in November. The freezing cold affected the Trojans so much that Athletic Director Jess Hill proposed moving USC's games at Notre Dame Stadium to October, while continuing to play the Coliseum games in late November. Notre Dame agreed and it has been that way ever since.

1961 - Iowa 35, USC 34 The Hawkeyes came into this game ranked No. 1 in the country. The Trojans, in their first season using John McKay's I-formation, were struggling. The critics in the press box said the "I" stood for "incompetent," "intolerable" and "ineffective." But on this day, after falling behind 21-0, USC exploded for 34 points and lost only in the last minute, 35-34. The Trojans totaled 220 yards on the ground and 156 in the air. For the first time, the I-formation proved its worth. Soon, USC and John McKay became synonymous with this tailback-led rushing attack.

1967 - USC 24, Notre Dame 7 The 1967 USC-UCLA game is the game everyone remembers from this season, but it never would have had the same importance if the Trojans hadn't first defeated defending national champion and No. 5 Notre Dame on a sunny October day in South Bend. The previous year, the Irish handed the Trojans their worst defeat ever, 51-0, and despite USC's No.1 rank in the 1967 polls, Notre Dame was a heavy favorite. Weighing heavy on the oddsmakers' minds was the fact that USC had not won in South Bend since 1939 (it didn't matter much to them that McKay, after the '66 debacle, vowed never to lose to the Irish again). It was on this day that most of the country first heard of a tailback named O.J. Simpson. The junior from San Francisco rushed for 160 yards on 38 carries and tacked on all three USC touchdowns. A tenacious Trojan defense intercepted seven passes (four by a true Irishman, Adrian Young) and recovered two fumbles. USC trailed at the half, 7-0, but roared back in the second half to win the game. The victory solidified Troy's place at the top of the final rankings.

1970 - USC 42, Alabama 21 It's a rare feat when a football game helps to change societal attitudes. The 1970 USC win over Alabama may have done just that. The Trojans traveled to Birmingham where they faced an all-white Crimson Tide team coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant. Thanks to dominating performances for USC by a trio of African-Americans (Sam Cunningham, Clarence Davis and Jimmy Jones), Bryant was convinced that he needed to recruit black players for his program. The rest of the Southeastern Conference soon followed suit and opportunities for black athletes in the South began to improve tremendously. Bryant was so impressed by Cunningham (who had 135 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries) that he invited the sophomore fullback into the 'Bama locker room after the game. He brought his players to Cunningham one-by-one and introduced him, saying: "This is what a football player looks like."

1996 - USC 27, Notre Dame 20 At long last, after 13 years of futility, the Trojans defeated the Irish. In what seemed the unlikeliest of streaks, USC had found every possible way to not defeat Notre Dame. And in what seemed like the unlikeliest of days for it to happen, Troy finally ended that streak. USC was struggling at 5-6 after a wild double-overtime loss to UCLA the previous week while Notre Dame was standing tall with an 8-2 record and a New Year's Day bowl bid in the works. The Trojans somehow managed to stay in the game despite playing without starting quarterback Brad Otton for large chunks of regulation, as he was bothered by an injury. When Notre Dame scored a touchdown to go ahead 20-12 (with the PAT pending) in the fourth quarter, things looked bleak for USC. But Irish kicker Jim Sanson shanked the extra point and the margin stayed at eight. The Trojans responded with an eight-play, 67-yard drive culminating in Delon Washington's 15-yard touchdown scamper. Washington also ran in the two-point conversion and the score was knotted at 20. Neither team could score before the end of regulation and overtime ensued. On USC's first drive, Otton hit Rodney Sermons with a five-yard touchdown pass and the Trojans went ahead for the first time, 27-20. Jubilation erupted in the Coliseum when Mark Cusano then batted down Ron Powlus' fourth-down pass and the streak ended.

2001 - USC 27, UCLA 0 This game was the regular season finale of the 2001 season, but it exemplified the attitude and style that first-year head coach Pete Carroll brought to Trojan football. The message sent that day was clear: Nothing beats a great defense. Furthermore, the game signalled a sea-change in the L.A. sports scene as USC under Carroll was increasingly viewed as the healthiest program in town. There was nothing complicated about the contest. The Trojan offense hit on a couple big plays—namely, a 66-yard catch-and-run by tight end Kori Dickerson off a Carson Palmer aerial and a 34-yard touchdown run by tailback Chris Howard. But USC managed just 276 yards of total offense and 12 first downs. However, the Trojan defense was spectacular, holding UCLA to a paltry 114 yards and 10 first downs. USC picked off three UCLA passes, including an amazing between-the-legs snatch by cornerback Antuan Simmons which he returned 36 yards for a touchdown. It was USC's first shutout of UCLA since 1947. While the Trojans would later stumble in the Las Vegas Bowl, it was clear that something special was starting to go on at Troy.

USC'S HISTORY-SHAPING GAMES

2002 - USC 44, Notre Dame 13 While the 2001 UCLA game was about re-establishing USC in Los Angeles, the 2002 Notre Dame game was about re-establishing USC on a national level. The Trojans had not played in such a high-stakes game since the 1988 No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown against the Irish—a bitter 27-10 loss. On this day, three important things happened for USC. First, the Trojans clinched their first-ever BCS bowl berth. Second, they completed their first season sweep of UCLA and Notre Dame since 1981 and, probably most important of all, Trojan quarterback Carson Palmer showed the nation why he deserved to be named USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner. Through it all, Troy put another feather in the cap of what would become its most magical and successful season since 1979. A capacity crowd and a near-national television audience saw first-hand the magnificent "Carson Show," as USC's senior quarterback threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns—both Notre Dame opponent records. What's more, he led the Trojan offense to 610 total yards—again, the most yards ever against the Irish. While there were a couple nail-biting moments for USC fans in the second quarter as Notre Dame briefly took a 13-10 lead, Palmer allayed those fears by leading a masterful 75-yard drive that took just over a minute and culminated in a pass that sailed over the outstretched hands of two Irish defenders and into the waiting arms of Mike Williams for a 19-yard touchdown. Hence, the Trojans sprinted into the locker room with a 17-13 lead and never looked back in the second half on their way to scoring the most points against the Irish by a USC team since 1974's legendary 55-24 onslaught. The jubilant looks on the faces of the Trojan coaches, players and fans afterwards—as well as the sight of the future Heisman winner holding aloft the Shillelagh—said it all: USC was back.

Other "important" games in Trojan history

1939 Rose Bowl - USC 7, Duke 3 (Duke was unbeaten, unscored upon until this game)

1951 - Notre Dame 19, USC 12 (USC's first appearance on national television)

1953 Rose Bowl - USC 7, Wisconsin 0 (breaks Big Ten Rose Bowl win streak)

1964 - USC 20, Notre Dame 17 (Fertig to Sherman shocks the No. 1 Irish)

1974 - USC 55, Notre Dame 24 (The Comeback--enough said)

1975 Rose Bowl - USC 18, Ohio State 17 (Haden to McKay and then Diggs for the national title)

1978 - USC 24, Alabama 14 (key game in the national title season)

1983 - Washington 24, USC 0 (first shutout of USC in 187 games, a then-NCAA record)

2004 Rose Bowl - USC 28, Michigan 14 (despite being snubbed from the BCS Championship Game in the Sugar Bowl, USC dominates Michigan to win its first national championship in 25 years)

2005 Orange Bowl - USC 55, Oklahoma 19 (USC puts on an overwhelming display of power in its first-ever appearance in the BCS Championship Game, although the win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty)

2011 - USC 23, Utah 14 (not only was this the first game in Pac-12 history, but the final score was updated 2 hours after the game by Pac-12 clarification to include a USC touchdown that occurred during a penalty on the contest's final play)

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are numerous teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been 30 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

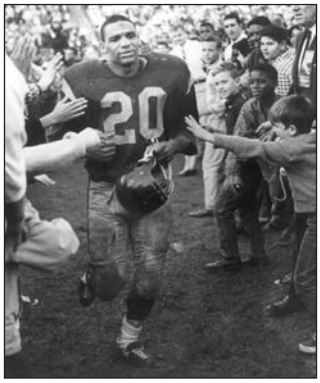
USC HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT – 1965



Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first – and only the West Coast's second – Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O.J. SIMPSON – 1968

O.J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing – 1,709 – in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All-American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

A December 1998 SPORT magazine ranking listed him among the Top 10 college football players of the 20th century.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11-year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher.

CHARLES WHITE – 1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all-purpose running.

MARCUS ALLEN – 1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

CARSON PALMER – 2002

After a 21-year drought, Carson Palmer became USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner (and the first from the West Coast since 1981), as well as Troy's first quarterback winner ever.

Palmer--a 4-year starter--set or tied 33 Pac-10 and USC total offense and passing records, including becoming the league's career leader in total offense and passing yards.

In 2002, he completed 309-of-489 passes (63.2%) for 3,942 yards and 33 TDs, all USC records. He threw for 300-plus yards in a USC-record 7 games that season, including 3 in a row. He completed at least 60.0% of his passes 9 times.

MATT LEINART – 2004

Matt Leinart became USC's first junior to win the Heisman Trophy when he did so in 2004 while leading the Trojans to their second consecutive national championship.

He completed 65.3% of his passes for 3,322 yards and 33 TDs with just 6 interceptions in 2004.

The 3-time All-American was 37-2 as a starter. He ranks third on USC's career completions, passing yardage and total offense charts and his 99 career touchdown passes set a Pac-10 record. He set 16 school records in his career.

TROJAN HONOREES

OUTLAND TROPHY

RON YARY — 1967

Ron Yary is the only USC player to win the Outland Trophy, which goes to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and is selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Yary was a two-time All-American offensive tackle for the Trojans and was a unanimous All-American pick in 1967 when he won the Outland. That season he led the way for O.J. Simpson. The first player picked in the 1968 draft, he was a perennial All-Pro tackle with the Minnesota Vikings and also played for the Los Angeles Rams.

LOMBARDI AWARD

BRAD BUDDE — 1979

In 1979, offensive guard Brad Budde became USC's first recipient of the coveted Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top college lineman who also "best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi."

Budde was a unanimous All-American as a senior and was also runnerup in the Outland Trophy voting. A four-year starter at Troy, he was the first freshman to start a USC season opener since World War II.

The son of ex-Kansas City Chiefs' All-Pro Ed Budde, Brad followed his father there as the Chiefs' first-round draft pick in 1980.

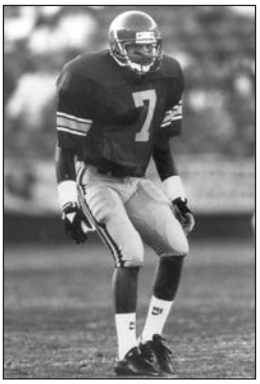
TROJAN HONOREES

THORPE AWARD
MARK CARRIER – 1989



As just a junior in 1989, free safety Mark Carrier became USC's first-ever winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's best defensive back.

A 2-time first team All-American, Carrier had 7 interceptions in 1989 (tied for 10th in the nation), plus 107 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 10 pass deflections.

THORPE AWARD
ADOREE' JACKSON – 2016

Adoree' Jackson, USC's second Thorpe winner when he won it in 2016, not only starred at cornerback but was a threat at wide receiver and returner.

He had 5 interceptions, 11 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and 55 tackles as a junior in 2016 when he also was a consensus All-American, won the Jet Award, was a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy and was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year.

A 2-time All-Pac-12 first teamer and 3-year starter, he scored 15 touchdowns in 4 different ways in his career: via reception (6), punt return (4), kickoff return (4) and interception (1). He set USC career records for kickoff return yards (2,141) and returns (79) and punt return TDs (4), and he tied NCAA marks for most career TDs on kick returns (8) and all runbacks (9).

Playboy Pre-Season All-Americans

USC landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957 through its last official team in 2012, there were a national-best 77 Trojan players selected, as well as 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete. Next with 52 selections was Texas, followed by Michigan with 49, Oklahoma with 47 (plus 3 Coaches of the Year), Notre Dame with 42 (plus 1 Coach of the Year) and Nebraska with 40 (plus 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 8 different occasions (1970-76-79-80-2004-05-08-12), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC's Tony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, was the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school. (NOTE: An unofficial team was selected from 2013 to 2015.)

Here is a list of USC's Playboy pre-season All-Americans:

ALL-TIME USC LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letterwinners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen. There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

The list is confined to lettermen who actually played on USC's varsity teams of American Rules Football, and does not include individuals who lettered only in rugby.

Positions, heights, and weights are generally those listed in USC publications and other sources in the player's final letterwinning year. Positions are primarily listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterwinner played. "Hometowns" by longstanding custom are usually the places from which players came to USC, and are located in California unless noted. Parenthetical notations contain a letterwinner's high school, and junior or senior college, attended before USC, where known, and are in the state of the letterman's hometown, unless noted. This list was expanded by Michael J. Glenn (with input from Gary Wright). USC appreciates their invaluable efforts.

A Note on USC's Records

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service). Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn, as well as Benny Artiaga, Nick Schenck, Gabriel Alvarez, Meghan McElroy, Michelle Laug and Robbie Ellison.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1925, 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

* - USC Record  - USC and Pac-10 Record

# - Excludes first 3 games + - Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record.

In all, USC has played before at least 61,160,316 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

Jim Farrell of Long Beach, Calif., became the 50 millionth fan to see a USC football game, home and away, when he came through the Coliseum gates at the 2004 USC-Arizona State home game.

In 1988, USC not only set a since-broken school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

TROJANS IN THE NFL

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC players have made quite a mark in the pros.

At the start of training camp this summer, there were 54 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 14 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 30 of the NFL's 32 teams. Most of the Trojans were offensive linemen (11), defensive linemen (8), defensive backs (8), linebackers (7), wide receivers (7), quarterbacks (5), running backs (4) and tight ends (4).

In 2016, there were 36 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, tied with Florida State for second most from any school behind LSU's 42 (since records were available, USC has been No. 1 in 19 of the last 41 years). The Trojans tied Michigan State for most quarterbacks (4) on opening day rosters in 2016 and tied Penn State for most linebackers (8).

USC has produced more NFL draft picks (501) than any school (Notre Dame is next at 494), along with 28 picks by the AFL before it merged with the NFL. USC was the first school with 500 NFL draft picks. USC and Michigan are the only schools with an NFL draftee every year since 1939. There have been 494 USC players who since 1920 played in the NFL (or its sister leagues, the AFL or All-America Football Conference).

USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (80) than any school (Ohio State is next with 77). USC is tied with Notre Dame and Auburn for most players (5) selected as the top pick of the NFL draft (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977, Keyshawn Johnson in 1996 and Carson Palmer in 2003). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years (Yary and Simpson). USC has had three of the most highly-drafted classes in history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had more players selected in the 2011 (9), 2009 (11), 2008 (10), 2006 (11) and 1990 (10) drafts than any school. According to a 2015 NFL.com report, USC had more players drafted in the previous 10 drafts (2005-14) than any school, with 69 (6 more than runnerup LSU). USC had more players drafted than any school in the 10-year period from 2002-11 and 5-year period from 2007-11. USC's 12 first round picks in the 1990s tied for third in the nation with Tennessee; 8 of those Trojan first rounders were selected in the Top 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft was an NFL record that lasted 36 years.

A Trojan has appeared in all but 6 of the 51 Super Bowls (there have been 110 USC representatives overall). Three Trojans (Lynn Swann in 1976, Marcus Allen in 1984 and Malcolm Smith in 2014) have been the Super Bowl MVP. In 1977, 9 USC alums played in the Super Bowl. Trojans have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl 232 times.

Twelve former USC players (tied with Notre Dame for most of any other school) and 3 ex-assistant coaches are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 2016, Lynn Swann and Ronnie Lott were named to the Super Bowl 50 Golden Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors.

A 2010 ESPN.com survey ranked USC as "the most fertile NFL draft pipeline" from 1979 to 2009. In 2010, Lindy's Sports listed USC as the "football factory" for quarterbacks, running backs and offensive linemen.

In 2009, ESPN NFL draft analyst and former NFL head coach Herm Edwards said: "If you want to play pro football and you're a young high school athlete, you know going to USC is going to give you the best opportunity system-wise and competitive-wise on the field. That's what USC brings to the table. That's why historically, year after year, you see all these players coming into the league." Fellow ESPN NFL draft analyst and ex-NFL quarterback Ron Jaworski added: "It's fierce competition every day you go out on the USC practice field. Not only on Saturday when they play the game. Every day they're competing at the highest level."

Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott were selected on the NFL's All-Time Team in August 2000, as chosen by the 36 Pro Football Hall of Fame voters.

A December 1999 story in The Sporting News listed 4 Trojans among the 100 Greatest Pro Football Players: Anthony Munoz (17th), Ronnie Lott (23rd), O.J. Simpson (26th) and Marcus Allen (72nd). Anthony Munoz was picked among the NFL's Top 10 players of the 20th century by SPORT in 1999.

In December 1999, the Dick Butkus Football Network named a pair of ex-Trojans on its NFL All-Century First Team: Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

A January 1999 article in ESPN Magazine said that "one of the best ways to win a Super Bowl is to (have a USC player on the team). The alma mater most often represented on winning teams is USC."

A Dec. 13, 1999 article in the San Diego Union-Tribune, which examined Pro Bowl selections since 1950 to determine the schools that have supplied the most pro players at various positions, found that USC had the most Pro Bowl selections and produced more Pro Bowl running backs and safeties than anyone.

A May 1999 SPORT magazine article pointed out that USC sent more players to the Pro Bowl in the 1990s (14) than any other school. "The most measurable sign of a player's success--and thus his pedigree--comes in the form of the NFL's highest annual honor: the Pro Bowl. It's not enough to make it to the league, you've gotta make it in the league." In the article, then-New York Jets Pro Bowl wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, the former USC All-American, said: "USC is a football factory. Every kid in L.A. grows up wanting to play there, and the coaches know how to translate that into elite athletes."

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-2016 (which followed the 1935-2015 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available for the 1960 AFL draft or the 1965 and 1966 AFL Redshirt drafts, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (also, no round-by-round records were available for the 1960 AFL draft). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

Round	Player	Pos.	Team	Overall Draft Selection
1937--1
10	Gil Kuhn	T	Brooklyn Dodgers	93

14	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins	128
18	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins	168
19	Amerigo (Tony) Tonelli	B	Lions	177
	(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES – USC is 36-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 13 contests they played after a tie, dating to 1968.

ARTIFICIAL TURF – USC is 40-23-1 in its last 64 games on artificial turf (not including 3 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 43-23-1).

AUGUST RECORD – USC has a 8-2 (.800) all-time record while playing in the month of August.

BIG TEN COMPETITION – USC has won 35 of its last 44 games (and 42 of its last 52) against Big Ten opponents. USC has twice played 3 consecutive games against Big Ten teams: Northwestern in the 1996 Rose Bowl, then Penn State and Illinois in 1996, and Indiana in the 1968 Rose Bowl, then Minnesota and Northwestern in 1968. There have been 5 times (1962-68-72-76-89) when USC has faced 3 Big Ten teams during a single season, but not consecutively.

BCS BOWLS – USC made 5 BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose)(not including 2 appearances--2005 Orange and 2006 Rose--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips tied for seventh most, behind Ohio State's 9, Oklahoma's 9, Florida State's 8, Florida's 7, Virginia Tech's 6 and Alabama's 6 (not including 2 appearances vacated by NCAA penalty; orginal record: 7 appearances, tied for fourth most; also, 1 Ohio State appearance vacated by NCAA penalty). USC's 5 BCS bowl victories tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 6 victories, tied with Ohio State for most; also, 1 Ohio State win vacated by NCAA penalty).

BOUNCE BACK – USC has had back-to-back non-winning seasons just 13 times in its 124-year history, most recently in 2000 and 2001.

CHRISTMAS – USC has played 6 games on Christmas Day, going 3-3: in 1897 (18-0 loss at San Diego YMCA), 1907 (16-6 loss to Los Angeles High School), 1918 (10-0 win over Redlands), 1924 (20-7 post-season win over Missouri in the Christmas Festival), 1934 (33-7 win at Kamehameha High School Alumni) and 2001 (10-6 loss to Utah in the Las Vegas Bowl).

COACHING DEBUTS--USC is 17-10-1 when playing its first game under a new head coach (this includes each of the 2 coaching stints of both Dean Cromwell and John Robinson, as well as the debut by interim head coach Ed Orgeron and the pair of interim debuts and the fulltime debut by Clay Helton). Six consecutive head coaches--Paul Hackett (1998), Pete Carroll (2001), Lane Kiffin (2010), Orgeron (2013), Helton (2013) and Steve Sarkisian (2014)--each won their coaching debuts. USC's last 8 head coaches have won their Coliseum debuts (Larry Smith, John Robinson redux, Hackett, Carroll, Kiffin, Orgeron interim, Sarkisian, Helton interim).

COLD – USC is 12-11-1 in "cold weather" games (defined as where the cold temperature had such an impact on the game that it was mentioned in the media's game recaps). The last time USC played a "cold weather" game was the 2016 Utah road game (a 31-27 loss when it was 45 degrees at kickoff). The coldest game in USC history: 20 degrees in the snow at Notre Dame in 1957 (a 40-12 loss). The second coldest USC games were 29 degrees at the 1949, 1952 and 1959 Notre Dame games in South Bend and the 2013 Colorado road game.

DAY HOME GAMES – USC had only 1 home day game in 5 different seasons (1894, 1889, 1906, 2006 and 2010). There were also 2 neutral site day games in Los Angeles in 1906. In 1901, USC didn't play any home games. Since USC played its first night game at the Coliseum in 1944, there have been only 5 seasons that the Trojans started their season with 2 consecutive home day games (1947-49-51-2001-11, with 1949 starting with 3 in a row).

DECEMBER GAMES – USC has a 41-27-7 (.593) all-time record while playing in the month of December (not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 43-27-7, .597).

DIAMONDS – USC has a 33-18-2 record since 1935 in stadiums in years that they also served as baseball fields. USC's most recent football games in such a stadium were the 2003 and 2005 Orange Bowls in Pro Player Stadium in Miami (beating Iowa and Oklahoma, respectively), 2005, 2010 and 2013 wins over Hawaii in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium (the Trojans also beat Hawaii there in 1978 and 1999 and lost to Auburn in the 1985 Aloha Bowl), a win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl in AT&T Park (when both teams were on the same sideline because of the field configuration) and over California in 2011 in AT&T Park (the Bears played there that season while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley was being renovated), although the infield skin was covered with some form of grass for those games. (Note: The 2005 Orange Bowl and 2005 Hawaii wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.) During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in stadiums with a baseball field: Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego (tying San Diego State), then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl (loss to Fresno State), 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic (loss to North Carolina) and 1993 Freedom Bowl (win over Utah). USC played 3 times in domed stadiums that doubled as baseball venues: beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996. From 1958 to 1961, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (Troy's home stadium) also was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers (USC was 13-11-1 there in that span). USC played 5 games in Portland's Multnomah Stadium after it was reconfigured to accommodate baseball in 1956, facing Oregon (losses in 1956 and 1958) and Oregon State (wins in 1959and 1966 and a loss in 1957). USC also beat Army in New York City's Yankee Stadium in 1951 and lost to Navy in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium in 1950. USC posted a pair of 1935 wins in Honolulu Stadium (over Kamehameha High Alumni and Hawaii). In its early days, USC played a number of games on campus at Bovard Field, where the Trojans also played baseball (USC went 45-6-3 there from 1904 to 1923). USC also played several games at venues in Los Angeles that were primarily used for baseball: at Athletic Park (going 0-3-1 from 1895 to 1898), the first Washington Park/Chutes Park (0-1-1 in 1900), the second Washington Park (0-2 in 1915 and 0-1 in 1917) and Prager Park (4-2 in 1903).

DOMES – USC is 3-1 inside domed stadiums, beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996, but losing to Alabama in 2016 in AT&T Stadium.

EARLY BIRDS – USC's Aug. 25 opener in 1996 was the earliest its season has opened in the modern era. (The earliest USC's season has ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

EARLY KICKOFF--The 2016 USC home game against Utah State kicked off at 11 a.m., the earliest for a Trojan home game since at least the early 1950s. The 1998 USC home game against Purdue kicked off at 11:30 a.m. A home contest against Loyola in 1891 began at 9:30 a.m.

ESPN GAMEDAY – ESPN's popular College GameDay pre-game show has made 10 visits to USC (the Coliseum for the 2004 California and Notre Dame, 2005 UCLA, 2006 Nebraska and Notre Dame, 2008 Ohio State, 2010 Oregon, 2011 Stanford, 2012 Notre Dame games and McCarthy Quad on campus for the 2013 Stanford game). USC is 7-3 in those home games, including 1 win later vacated by NCAA penalty (the losses were to Oregon in 2010, Stanford in 2011 and Notre Dame in 2012). GameDay also has been at 14 USC road/neutral site games (1995 Notre Dame, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl, 2005 Arizona State and Notre Dame, 2006 Rose Bowl, 2007 Rose Bowl, 2007 Nebraska, 2008 Rose Bowl, 2009 Rose Bowl, 2009 Ohio State and Oregon, 2016 Wasington and 2017 Rose Bowl). USC is 11-3 in those road/neutral site games, including 2 wins and 1 loss later vacated by NCAA penalty (the losses were to Notre Dame in 1995, Texas in 2006 Rose Bowl and Oregon in 2009). Overall, USC has won 75.0% of the time that GameDay has been on site (18-6, including 3 wins and 1 loss later vacated by NCAA penalty).

5-POINT LOSSES – The 2001 season was the first time that USC lost 5 games all by 5 points or less.

4-POINT GAMES – The 2010 season was the first season that USC had 6 games decided by 4 points or less.

14-GAME SEASON--2013 was USC's first season playing 14 games (it happened again in 2015). USC has played 13 games in a season 17 times.

FRIDAY GAMES--USC has played just 6 Friday games since 1990: versus Syracuse in the 1990 Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J., versus Louisiana Tech in 1999 in the Coliseum, at Colorado in 2011, at Oregon State in 2013, at Colorado in 2015 and at Utah in 2016 (all wins except the 2016 Utah contest).

FRIDAY THE 13TH – USC played its first-ever game on a Friday the 13th when it won at Colorado, 27-24, on Nov. 13, 2015.

GOLDEN GRIDDERS – Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES – USC is 96-46-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 57-17-1 following byes (6 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA). (Not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original records: 98-46-4 overall, 59-17-1 since 1955.) USC had 3 regular-season byes in 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2005, the first time that had happened since 1935.

GRID/HOOPS – USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS – Among the USC footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (a tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 played Tarzan), Marlin and Mike McKeever (the 1959 All-American twins were in several movies), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end was in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner starred in TV and motion pictures), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in movies), Patrick Muldoon (a walk-on tight end in the mid-1980s starred in soaps, including "Melrose Place," and films, including "Starship Trooper"), Brian Turk (a lineman in the late 1980s appeared in various TV sitcoms and commercials), Mazio Royster (the 1990-91 tailback was in TV commercials and shows), Shane Foley (the quarterback who lettered in 1989-90 was in TV commericals), Matt Willig (a 1988-91 lineman has been in TV, movies and commercials), Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne – All-American") and John Walker (a 2002-05 cornerback appeared on such TV shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" as a child). Also, Irvine "Cotton" Warburton (an All-American back in 1933) won an Oscar for film editing on "Mary Poppins," Aaron Rosenberg (a 2-time All-American guard in 1932-33) was a well-known TV and movie producer, Jess Hibbs (a 2-time All-American tackle in 1927-28) was a prominent film and TV director, Nate Barragar (1929 All-American lineman) and Russ Saunders (1927-28-29 fullback) were assistant directors, Mickey McCardle (a halfback in the 1940s) was a distinguished TV and movie director, and Ken Del Conte (a halfback in the early 1960s) was a producer. Allan Graf (an offensive guard in the early 1970s) is a stunt man and second unit director. Producers Hilton Green (a team manager) and Barney Rosenzweig (a Yell Leader) were associated with Trojan football.

HOMECOMING – USC has a 62-26-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924 (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 63-26-4).

HOME JERSEYS – USC wore its home cardinal jerseys for the 2000 Kickoff Classic against Penn State (even though Troy was the visiting team) and for its 1999 game at Hawaii (at the request of the Rainbows). Before that, the last time USC wore cardinal in an opponent's stadium was against UCLA in the Rose Bowl in 1982. By the way, the last time USC wore its road white jerseys at the Coliseum was the 1960 Georgia game, because the Bulldogs only had red jerseys then (USC also wore white jerseys at home on a regular basis during the 1930s).

HOME JERSEYS VS. UCLA – For the first time since 1982, both USC and UCLA wore their home jerseys in the 2008 crosstown rivalry game (it was UCLA's home game in the Rose Bowl). Per an NCAA football-playing rule, because the Trojans were not in their white road jerseys, they were charged with a timeout at the opening kickoff. UCLA responded by calling a timeout immediately after to even things up. The teams again both wore home jerseys in 2009 (that rule was repealed, so there was no consequence). The tradition of USC in its cardinal jerseys and UCLA in its blue jerseys, regardless of whose home game it was, went on from 1949 to 1951 and then 1957 through 1982 before an NCAA football rules change required the visiting team to wear white. That rule was no longer in effect beginning in 2009, so USC again wore its home jersey in the 2010, 2012, 2014 and 2016 UCLA games in the Rose Bowl.

IMPROVEMENT – USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA – USC lost its first 4 games in Florida before beating Iowa in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami.

IRISH REBOUNDS – USC is 8-11-1 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were 1950-55-70-80-82-96-98-2014, the losses were 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92-2012, and the tie was 1994.

JANUARY RECORD – USC has a 33-11 (.750) all-time record while playing in the month of January, including 27-10 in January bowls (not including 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 34-12, .739 overall and 28-11 in bowls).

JERSEY NAMES – USC is the only FBS school never to have surnames on the back of its jerseys.

LABOR DAY – USC is 1-4 on Labor Day, with the win coming in its most recent Labor Day contest (2002 versus Auburn).

LAST SECOND LOSSES – The 2001 season was the first time that USC lost 2 games in the final 12 seconds (it happened again in 2014, this time in the final 8 seconds). The 2010 season was the first time that USC lost 2 games (to Washington and Stanford back to back, no less) on the final play of regulation.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL – USC is 18-12 in games on Monday, including 3-2 in Monday games at night. Troy is just 4-8 in regular season Monday games. USC's last Monday game was a 52-49 win over Penn State in the 2017 Rose Bowl and its last regular season Monday game was a 24-17 win over Auburn at home in 2002 (it was a night game).

NO COACHES – USC is 5-3 in games versus a Notre Dame coach in the final regular-season game of his Irish career, with the Trojan wins coming in the past 5 such occasions (2004 with Tyrone Willingham, 1996 with Lou Holtz, 1980 with Dan Devine, 1974 with Ara Parseghian and 1962 with Joe Kuharich).

NEUTRAL SITE GAMES – USC once had 4 consecutive neutral site games, all in 1898, as well as 3 in a row in 1922 and 2015-16.

NEW LEAGUES – USC is 4-1 the first time it has played a league game as a member of a new conference. The Trojans lost their first Pacific Coast Conference outing (12-0 to Cal in 1922 in the first football game played in the Rose Bowl stadium), then won their first time out as a member of the Athletic Association of Western Universities (22-15 at Washington in 1959), Pacific-8 Conference (27-24 at Stanford in 1968), Pacific-10 Conference (37-10 at Oregon in 1978) and Pac-12 Conference (23-14 versus Utah in 2011 at home).

NICKNAMES – Some notable Trojan nicknames: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Amblin' Amby (Ambrose Schindler), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell), Bear (Byron Darby), Betto (Norberto Garrido), Biggie (Iman Marshall), BKU (Kenchi Udeze, as in Big Kenechi Udeze), Blackjack (Harry Smith), Bobble (Chris McFoy), Boodah (Olajuwon Tucker), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Boomer (Nick Vanderboom, Peter Roepke), Buck (William Buchanon, Javorius Allen), Bug (Kevin Williams, 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Champ (Melvin Simmons), Comet (Curtis Conway), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), Deuce (Taitusi Lutui), D. Hale (his first name is Donald), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Forrest Mozart (his real name), Frostee (Frostee Rucker, his real first name), Gazoo or Gnat (Ken Grace), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Izzy (Israel Ifeanyi), Jack Jack (Jack Jones), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. (John Jackson), Juice (O.J. Simpson), JuJu (John Smith-Schuster), Jupiter Ehrlich (his real name), Lojack (Lawrence Jackson), Lone Ranger (David Webb, who put a bar of grease paint across his eyes when playing), Loni (Hebron Fangupo), Mad Dog (Tim Lavin), Moody (Curtis McNeal), Mystic (Jim Powers), The Noblest Trojan of Them All (Morley Drury), Patch (Hershel Dennis), Peanut (Travon Patterson), Pie (Keyshawn Young, given the acronym for "Perfect In Everything" by his grandmother), Pinball Wizard (Ricky Ervins), President (Reggie Bush), Prince Hal (Hal Bedsole), Racehorse (Russ Saunders), Razor (Mike Battle), Red (Morris Badgro), Rojo (Ronald Johnson, Ronald Jones II), Rolls (Mazio Royster), Sam Bam (Sam Cunningham), Scissors (Windrell Hayes), Shakes (Jonathan Mosley, who has Tourette's syndrome), Slam (Sam Anno), Slinky (Marvin Pollard), Speedy (Alcee Hart), Squeeze (John Kamana), Sugarbear (Charles Hinton), Sunny (Sunny Byrd, his real name), Sweet (Jim Musick), Sweet Peete (Rodney Peete), Tay (Raymond Brown), Tee (Artimus Parker), Tex (Michael Williams), The Thundering Herd (Coach Howard Jones' teams), Thunder and Lightning (LenDale White and Reggie Bush), Tiny (6-4, 330-pound Alatini Malu), Trapper (Travis Claridge), Tree (Charles Young), Turd (Pete Adams' dog, the unofficial mascot of the 1972 team), Turk (Derrell Marshall), Wild Bunch (1969 defensive line of Al Cowlings, Jimmy Gunn, Willard Scott, Tody Smith, Tony Terry, Charlie Weaver), Wild Bunch II (2003 defensive line of Kenechi Udeze, Shaun Cody, Mike Patterson, Omar Nazel), Woody (Robert Woods).

NIGHT TIME – USC's first night game (after 5 p.m.) was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington. USC's 10 night games in 2010 are a school record. USC opened a season with 6 consecutive night games for the first time in 2015. USC owns a 164-56-4 (.741) record at night, including 96-27-4 in the Coliseum, 54-23 on the road and 14-6 at neutral sites. (Does not include 5 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 169-57-4, .743 overall, 99-27-4 in the Coliseum, 16-7 at neutral sites, USC had a school-record 32-game win streak at home at night from 1997 to 2010.)

NO. 1 – USC has a 54-5-2 (.900) record in games when ranked No. 1 by AP, including 4-0 in bowls (does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 68-6-2, .908 and 5-1 in bowls). USC has been ranked first in a weekly AP poll 91 times.

NOS. 35 AND 55 – In recent years, the No. 35 jersey was handed down to a "stereotypical" inside linebacker. The chain of succession: Riki Gray (Ellison), Rex Moore, Scott Ross, Jeff Kopp, Taso Papadakis (Taso's brother, tailback Petros Papadakis, wore it from 1997 to 2000), Lee Webb (he also played fullback), Uona Kaveinga, Hayes Pullard and now Cameron Smith (fullback Jody Adewale wore it 2005 to 2007, while punters Kris Albarado and Kyle Negrete shared it in 2011-12 and Albarado was in it in 2013 and 2014). The No. 55 went to the prototype outside or inside linebacker (Junior Seau, Willie McGinest, Israel Ifeanyi, Chris Claiborne, Markus Steele, Keith Rivers and Lamar Dawson).

NO FCS FOES – USC is among 3 NCAA FBS (Division I-A) schools that never played a FCS (non-Division 1-A) opponent (since the divisions were formed in 1978). The others are USC's traditional foes: Notre Dame and UCLA.

NOVEMBER RECORD – USC has a 256-130-20 (.655) all-time record while playing in the month of November (not including 3 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 259-130-20, .658).

OCTOBER RECORD – USC has a 305-118-19 (.712) all-time record while playing in the month of October (not including 5 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 310-118-19, .715).

O-LINE – There have been 36 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 22 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

OLYMPIC RECORD – USC is 199-62-10 (.753) in seasons that the Summer Olympics have been held. The Trojans won 4 national titles (1928, 1932, 1972, 2004) and played in 11 bowls (winning 8) during those Olympic seasons. (Does not include 2 wins--including 1 bowl apperance and 1 bowl win--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: 201-62-10, .755.)

OLYMPIC STADIUMS – USC has played football in 3 stadiums that hosted Olympics' opening/closing ceremonies: Los Angeles Coliseum (1932 and 1984 Summer Games), Tokyo Olympic Stadium (1964 Summer Games) and Rice-Eccles Stadium in Salt Lake City (2002 Winter Games).

ONE GAME TURNAROUND – USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS – USC's record in all season openers is 91-24-8 (.772), with 36 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 63-16-7 (.773), while their record in season openers on the road is 28-8-1 (.770). (Does not include 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 92-24-8, .774 overall and 29-8-1 on the road, .776.)

In conference openers, USC is 67-22-5 (.739) and Troy has won 29 of its last 46 (and 42 of its last 60). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 39-9-3 (.794). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 28-13-2 (.674), having won 23 of their last 35. (Does not include 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 68-22-5, .742 overall, 30 of 46, 43 of 60, and 29-13-2, .682 on the road, 24 of 35.)

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 3, 1994 against Washington.

USC's record for home openers is 95-19-7 (.814). In road openers, USC is 81-29-8 (.720). (Does not include 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 96-19-7, .816 at home, 82-29-8, .723 on the road.)

In games immediately following USC's 31 non-winning season openers, Troy is 21-7-4, including wins 14 of the past 15 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-12 WINS – In 1988, USC became the first Pac-12 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS – Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Martin Coleman, Su'a Cravens, Juliano Falaniko, Josh Falo, Hebron Fangupo, Salo Faraimo, Josh Fatu, Paul Green, Harold Han, Stanley Havili, Arthur Hemingway, Jordan Iosefa, John Kamana, Kolomona Kapanui, Tayler Katoa, Uona Kaveinga, Gaylord Kuamoo, Chris Limahelu, Toa Lobendahn, Karl Lorch, Taitusi Lutui, Malaefou MacKenzie, Faaesea Mailo, Kaluka Maiava, Vavae Malepeai, Alatini Malu, Abe Markowitz, Osa Masina, Fred Matua, Rey Maualuga, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Brandon Pili, Kennedy Pola, Isaiah Pola-Mao, Troy Polamalu, Junior Pomee, Junior Seau, JuJu Smith-Schuster, Viane Talamaivao, Lofa Tatupu, Mosi Tatupu, J.R. Tavai, Travis Tofi, Jay Tufele, Titus Tuiasosopo, Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, Marlon Tuipulotu, Brian Tuliau, Christian Tupou, Junior Utu, Soma Vainuku, Lenny Vandermade and Simione Vehikite.

POPULAR DAYS – Oct. 24 and Nov. 7 are the most popular days in USC's regular season history, as the Trojans have played 18 games on both of those days (next most with 17 games each are Oct. 4, Oct. 10, Oct. 16, Oct. 30, Nov. 10 and Nov. 13). Jan. 1 is the all-time leader, with 33 USC games on that day.

PRESIDENTIAL PRECEDENT – Since 1929, USC has played in the Rose Bowl during the term of every U.S. President (beginning with Herbert Hoover).

PRESIDENTIAL RECORD – USC is 216-69-14 (.745) during presidential election years. The Trojans are 127-29-5 (.804) in years when Republicans won the White House and 89-40-9 (.678) when Democrats won. (Does not include 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 217-69-14, .747 overall and 128-29-5, .806 with Republicans.) USC has won 4 national championships (1928-32-72-2004) during presidential election years.

PRO BASEBALL/FOOTBALL – Two Trojans have played both major league baseball and professional football. Morris "Red" Badgro played baseball with the Browns (1929-30) and football with the New York Yankess (1927), New York Giants (1930-35) and Brooklyn (1936). Rex Johnston was with Pittsburgh's baseball Pirates (1964) and football Steelers (1960).

RADIO – Live Los Angeles-area radio broadcasts of USC home football games apparently began in 1926, with the Stanford and Notre Dame games. Regular broadcasts of nearly all home games started in 1927 (with Bill Henry announcing on KHJ, Glen Rice on KNX, Bert Heller on KPLA and Carl Haverlin on KFI). Reports that USC's 1923 Rose Bowl game against Penn State was broadcast in L.A. (on KHJ) indicate the broadcast was a re-creation, not live.

TROJAN TRIVIA

RAIN – USC has a 23-23-2 record in games in which it rained during a major portion of the contest. USC's last rain game was versus Notre Dame at home in 2016 (USC won, 45-27).

RAIN OUT – The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by the officials when a heavy thunder and lightning rainstorm hit.

SAN FRANCISCO – Although USC regularly plays in Palo Alto and Berkeley in the Bay Area, the Trojans have only played 4 games in San Francisco. The Trojans twice played in the city's Kezar Stadium (a 14-6 loss to Stanford in 1942 and a 34-0 win over USF in 1943) and twice in AT&T Park (a 24-13 win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl and a 30-9 win over Cal in 2011 as the Bears played there that season while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley was being renovated).

SAME OPPONENT – USC has played the same opponent consecutively 8 times. On 3 occasions, it happened back-to-back in the same year: 1888 (Alliance AC), 1899 (Occidental) and 1902 (Santa Ana). The other 5 times occurred on a season finale and then the following season opener: 1893-94 (Cal Tech), 1900-01 (Pomona), 1907-08 (Los Angeles HS), 1916-17 (Arizona) and 2013-14 (Fresno State). Also, USC has played the same team twice in the same year, but not consecutively, on 11 occasions: 1898 (Los Angeles HS), 1907 (Los Angeles HS), 1921 (Sub Base), 1943 (both UCLA and California), 1944 (both UCLA and California), 1945 (both UCLA and California), 1987 (Michigan State) and Stanford (2015).

SAME STADIUM – USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawai'i in the same Honolulu location. In 1922, the Trojans played 3 straight games (versus Idaho and Washington and then Penn State in the 1923 Rose Bowl) in what was then called Tournament of Roses Stadium. USC also played consecutive games in the Rose Bowl stadium in 2006 (versus UCLA and the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan) and 2008 (versus UCLA and the 2009 Rose Bowl versus Penn State).

SEASON ENDERS – USC is 69-42-11 (.611) in all season finales (does not include 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 70-43-11, .609).

SELLOUT – USC's last home sellout was the 2013 Stanford game. In 2006, USC's 6 home sellouts, 10 regular-season sellouts and 11 season (including bowls) are all school records. USC's 10 consecutive home sellouts in 2005-06 (last 4 home games of 2005 and all 6 in 2006) is a school record.

SEPTEMBER RECORD – USC has a 177-48-8 (.777) all-time record while playing in the month of September (does not include 3 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 180-48-8, .780).

7 ON ROAD – 2010 was the first season that USC played 7 games on the road in the opponents' home stadium. USC also played 7 regular-season games away from home 3 other times (1990-93-96), but 1 game in each of those seasons was at a neutral site.

SNOW – The last time USC played in snow was Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). It was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, 28-7).

STATE – 1998 was the first time that USC faced 4 consecutive "State" opponents (San Diego State, Oregon State, Florida State and Arizona State) in a season. Over a 2-year span, Troy also once played 4 "State" schools in a row, closing 1990 against Michigan State in the Hancock Bowl and then opening 1991 against Memphis State, Penn State and Arizona State. The 2011 season was the first since 1980 that USC played only 1 school with "State" in its name (Arizona State), and it occurred again in 2012 (Arizona State).

STREAK BUSTERS – USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 34-game winning streak was stopped by Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl (14 wins and the loss during that streak were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

SUNDAY – USC has played only 4 games on a Sunday, going 2-2: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic (USC lost, 31-9), the 1996 opener against Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC lost, 24-7), the 1998 opener versus Purdue in the Pigskin Classic (USC won, 27-17) and the 2000 opener versus Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC won 29-5).

SUPER FAN – The late Giles Pellerin viewed in person 797 consecutive USC football games, home and away, from 1926 to 1998. His late brothers Oliver (637 games) and Max (300-plus) also had impressive streaks.

3 FOR THE ROAD – 1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games (in 1918 Troy began with 1 at a neutral site and then 2 on the road, while in 1900 USC opened with 1 road game and then 2 at a neutral site).

3-POINT GAMES – The 2010 season was the first season that USC had 5 games decided by 3 points or less.

10-POINT LOSSES – The 1999 season was the first time that USC lost 6 games all by 10 points or less.

10-WIN SEASONS – USC has had 10 wins in a season 26 times, most recently in 2014.

THANKSGIVING – USC has played 20 times on Thanksgiving, the first 19 during the first 50 years of its football existence (1889-91-97-98-99-1900-06-14-15-16-17-19-20-22-26-30-32-36-38-2007). Only 3 times have the Trojans played a Thanksgiving game away from the Southern California area (in 1914 against Oregon State in Tacoma, Wash., in 1932 at Washington and in 2007 at Arizona State). USC has an 11-6-3 record on Thanksgiving.

1,000-YARD RUNNERS – USC has the fifth most 1,000-yard season runners (29), behind Central Michigan (36), Nebraska (35), Oklahoma (34) and Ohio State (32). Troy's last rusher to hit 1,000 yards was tailback Ronald Jones II (1,082) in 2016. USC's 58 1,000-yard career runners is third behind Oklahoma (72) and Nebraska (65).

THURSDAYS – USC has a 27-11-3 (.695) record on Thursday, including 11-6-3 on Thanksgiving. Ten of the Thursday games have been bowls (1924 Christmas Festival, 1948-53-70-2004-09 Rose, 1987 Citrus, 1993 Freedom, 1998 Sun, 2003 Orange), with Troy going 7-3. The 11 non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday games were wins against Oregon State (in Portland) in 1926, at Boston College in 1988, at Hawaii in 2010, at California (in AT&T Park) in 2011, at Utah in 2012, at Hawaii and home versus Arizona in 2013, home versus California in 2014 and home versus California in 2016, and losses at Oregon State in 2008 and home to Washington in 2015. The 2013 Arizona game was USC's first non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday game in the Coliseum. USC has opened its season 4 times (1891, 1988, 2010, 2013) on a Thursday.

TRAVELOGUE – USC has played football in 34 states, plus Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawai'i, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Nevada, Kansas and Virginia.

TRICK OR TREAT – USC is 7-6 in games played on Halloween.

TROJANS MIKESIDE – Numerous Trojan footballers have parlayed their playing days into a sports announcing career. Some of those who have been on national broadcasts: Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Pat Haden, Marcus Allen, Ronnie Lott, Sean Salisbury, O.J. Simpson, Tim Ryan, Tony Boselli. Those who have been on the local airwaves: Paul McDonald, Petros Papadakis, John Jackson, Mike Garrett, Anthony Munoz, Mike Lamb, Mark Carrier, Jeff Kopp, Jeremy Hogue, Brandon Hancock, Darrell Rideaux, David Newbury, Curtis Conway, Keyshawn Johnson, Shaun Cody.

TROY – USC has had just 6 lettermen with the appropriate first name of Troy (Troy Garner, Troy Polamalu, Troy Richardson, Troy Van Blarcom, Troy West and Troy Winslow). Polamalu was the only to win All-American first team acclaim.

TURNAROUNDS – In 124 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 41 times. Following 9 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84-16).

TV OUTLETS – USC has appeared live on 34 different television broadcasting outlets. The Trojans have won on the air of all but 3 of those outlets (KTLA, Innovative and a local Memphis station).

21-14 – USC has played 1,228 football games in history and only twice--in 1951 when Troy went to Berkeley and snapped No. 1-ranked California's 38-game regular season unbeaten streak and in 2012 in an upset loss at Stanford --has the final score been a very football-like 21-14 (win or lose).

UCLA-ND – USC is 20-20-2 (.500) against UCLA in seasons when Troy's next game is against Notre Dame. Troy is 18-20-4 (.476) against Notre Dame in games immediately following the Bruin game, including 10-8-2 when the Trojans are coming off a win over UCLA, 8-11-1 when coming off a loss to the Bruins and 0-1-1 coming off a tie. Conversely, although USC has faced its two traditional rivals in the same season 79 times, it has played the Irish and then the Bruins back-to-back in that order only 5 times (1937, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010).

UCLA-ND SWEEP – USC has defeated both UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season 20 times, with 10 of those occasions occuring in back-to-back Bruin/Irish games (1938-56-62-64-72-74-76-78-2002-16), twice on consecutive Irish/Bruin games (2004-08) and the other 8 times (1967-79-81-2003-05-07-09-11) coming when the Irish game was in October and the Bruin contest in November/December (2 of those UCLA wins--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). In years that USC swept UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl, the Trojans are 14-2 in bowls (wins in the 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03-07-08-09-16 seasons and the losses in 1981-2005; does not include 1 win--2004--vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised record: 15-2). USC has swept UCLA and Notre Dame in 4 consecutive seasons once (2002-05; wins over UCLA in 2 of those years--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

UNDER 100 – Since 1946, there have been 8 seasons when USC did not allow any runner to rush for 100 yards (1951-56-59-61-63-72-82-2002).

UNRANKED AT 3-0/5-1 – Since the AP poll was first established in 1936, USC has started off its season with a 3-0 record 33 times. Troy was ranked by AP the week after each of those 3-0 starts (except 1936 and 1948 when AP polls were not issued those weeks). But only 4 times has a 3-0 USC team not been ranked in the AP Top 10: 1951 (14th), 1998 (18th), 2010 (20th) and 2011 (23rd). USC has started off with a 5-1 mark 18 times, but only once (2011) has it not been ranked by AP.

USC-UCLA BAY AREA – 2006 was the first time that USC (at Stanford) and UCLA (at California) played in the Bay Area on the same day (Nov. 4). It happened again on Oct. 3, 2009 (USC at Cal, UCLA at Stanford) and Oct. 9, 2010 (USC at Stanford, UCLA at California).

VERSUS NO. 1 – USC is 7-13 all-time versus AP No. 1-ranked teams.

VERSUS RANKED TEAMS – The most AP-ranked teams USC has faced in a season is 9, in 2002. USC has 3 times faced 4 AP-ranked teams in a row in the same season, in 1952, 2002 and 2015 (once USC faced 5 straight ranked foes and on 2 other occasions Troy faced 4 consecutive ranked foes, but those were over a 2-season span: 2015-16, 1973-74 and 1988-89, respectively).

VERSUS UNRANKED TEAMS – Since the AP poll began in 1936, 1956 was the only time that USC went an entire season without playing a ranked team. Conversely, USC has gone through an entire season without earning an AP ranking only 5 times (1941, 1948, 1958, 1961 and 2001).

WILD BUNCH – Known as "The Wild Bunch," USC's stellar 1969 defensive line--coached by legendary assistant Marv Goux--consisted of ends Jimmy Gunn and Charles Weaver, tackles Al Cowlings and Tody Smith and middle guards Willard 'Bubba' Scott and Tony Terry (he had a hamstring injury for much of the season and was not able to appear in the famed gunslinger photo). Cowlings dubbed the unit "The Wild Bunch"--after director Sam Peckinpah's hit 1969 Western movie of that name--for their reckless abandon and hard-nosed play. "The Wild Bunch" helped USC go 10-0-1, including a Rose Bowl win over Michigan. In the UCLA game, they sacked Dennis Dummit 10 times for losses of 75 yards. Playing in an era of powerful running games, "The Wild Bunch" allowed just 2.3 yards per carry. Gunn, Weaver and Cowlings each were All-American first teamers in their careers. Then, 34 years later, assistant coach Ed Orgeron's dominant 2003 defensive line--tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson and ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel--was dubbed by the media as "The Wild Bunch II." They were instrumental in helping USC to its first national championship since 1978. They led a defense that finished first in the nation in rushing yards allowed per game (60.2) and per carry (1.84), both school records, as well as sacks (38.5) and tackles for loss (67). Only one runner gained 100 yards that season. Udeze, the national sack co-leader (16.5), was a consensus All-American first teamer.

WORLD CUP – USC has a 159-67-8 (.697) record in the 20 seasons when the World Cup was played. In those years, the Trojans went to 12 bowl games (including 7 Rose Bowls) and won 7 of them, plus they captured 7 conference titles and were named national champion 3 times.

FACILITIES

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest and largest stadiums in America. In 2005, Sporting News named it among the nation's 40 best stadiums to experience college football. In 2014, StadiumJourney.com ranked USC football at the Coliseum as the nation's No. 3 stadium experience.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. The Trojans played in the first varsity football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923). That game was preceded that day by the USC freshman team's 30-0 win over Santa Ana High.

Construction took less than 2 years, with ground breaking on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. It has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams, Dons, Raiders, Express and Xtreme football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball (the Rams returned temporarily in 2016 for 3 seasons). The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

There have been 25 seasons--1923 to 1927, 1995 to 2000, 2002 to 2015–that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant.

USC took control of the management of the Coliseum in the summer of 2013, becoming responsible for the operation, maintenance and upgrading of the facility. USC is required to spend $70 million over a 10-year period for enhancements and improvements to the Coliseum's infrastructure.

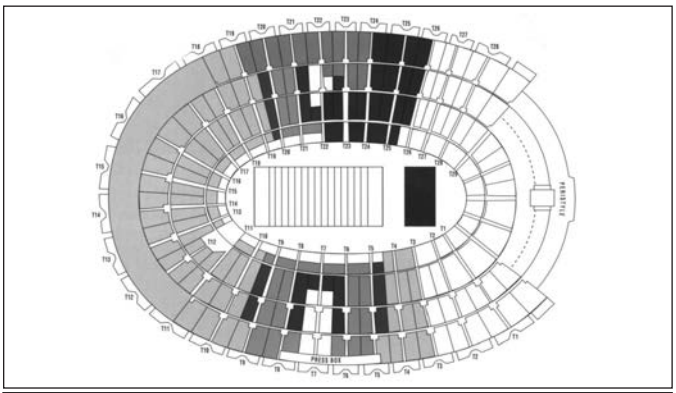
In October 2015, USC unveiled plans to renovate and restore the Coliseum, including building a new structure on the south side (with suites, loge boxes, club seats, a new concourse and new press box), replacing every seat with wider ones, increasing leg room, adding aisles, restoring the iconic peristyle, upgrading Wi-Fi, improving audio and video with two new large screens, adding concession stands and installing new lighting (the peristyle, video boards and lighting work are completed). Work will begin after the 2017 season and be completed for the 2019 home opener. The renovation will be privately funded by USC and will preserve the Coliseum's historic nature. Improvements will reduce 2019 seating capacity to 77,500.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are no more than 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). The lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's January 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring $93 million of repairs. In the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present capacity of 92,348 chairback seats, including approximately 25,000 seats between the goal lines on both the north and south sides.

The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and soccer's under-construction Banc of California Stadium.



USC'S ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the USC campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has produced 451 Olympians, won 127 national team championships and had 53 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built for $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It was expanded three times--in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room), in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center) and in 1998 (a 3,000-square foot addition to the Jess Hill Weight Room)--before a $35-million year-long renovation of the facility finished in early 2014. As part of that renovation, Heritage Hall's two-story Heisman Lobby was transformed into a state-of-the-art museum space featuring interactive displays. There also is a sports performance center, a broadcast studio, a lounge for Women of Troy student-athletes, a rowing ergometer room and an indoor golf driving area, plus new locker rooms, meeting rooms and equipment room and event space.

Directly west of Heritage Hall is the John McKay Center, a $70 million, 110,000-square foot facility that opened in the summer of 2012. It houses meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as the Stevens Academic Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes), a weight room, an athletic training room and a digital media production facility for all sports.

USC's swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby Uytengsu Aquatics Center (formerly the McDonald's Swim Stadium, site of the 1984 Olympic swimming and diving events), which underwent a $16-million renovation before re-opening in early 2014. It now includes a new stadium entrance, diving and dryland training areas, locker rooms, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, scoreboard, permanent seating and diving tower and pool deck (surrounding the Peter Daland pool).

The baseball staff has offices at Dedeaux Field (the baseball stadium),the track and field staff has offices in the 3,000-seat Loker Stadium (which houses Cromwell Track and Field) and the men's and women's basketball and volleyball staffs have offices in the Galen Center.

The USC football team practices at nearby Howard Jones Field, which was expanded in the fall of 1998 to include Brian Kennedy Field. In early 1999, Goux's Gate--named after the late popular long-time former assistant coach Marv Goux--was erected at the entrance to the practice field.

The 10,258-seat, $147-million on-campus Galen Center (and adjoining practice facility), completed in August of 2006, is the luxurious home to the Trojan basketball and volleyball teams, as well as various cultural events.

USC's other on-campus athletic facilities include Marks Tennis Stadium (renovated in 2016, highlighted by the Buntmann Family Tennis Center), McAlister Field (for soccer and lacrosse), Merle Norman Stadium (for beach volleyball), the 1,500-seat Lyon Center (a campus student recreation center that has hosted some Trojan intercollegiate events) and the Physical Education Building (housing the 1,000-seat North Gym).

TROJAN SPIRIT

Traveler, USC's Mascot

Traveler first made an appearance at USC football games in 1961 (in the home opener versus Georgia Tech). Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events, and Eddie Tannenbaum, then a junior at USC, had spotted Richard Saukko riding his white horse, Traveler I, in the 1961 Rose Parade. They persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Because of poor health, Saukko stopped riding after the 1988 season (he passed away in March of 1992). His successors have been Cass Dabbs, Rick Oas, Tom Nolan, Ardeshir Radpour, Chuck O'Donnell (Saukko's stepson) and current rider Hector Aguilar. Patricia Saukko DeBernardi (Saukko's widow) was Traveler's owner and trainer until she retired following the 2002 season. She asked Joanne Asman to take over with her own Traveler in 2003 (she also trains and houses the horse for USC). She is president of Asman & Associates, an entertainment and event planning company in Burbank, Calif., and she has spent more than 30 years training and managing equestrian performers.

The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IX. Even though the breed of horse may have changed over the years – ranging from an Arabian/Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Arabian to a Spanish Andalusian – Traveler's color has always remained pure white.

In the fall of 2004, the late USC alumnus Bill Tilley ('61) and his wife, Nadine, donated $2 million to provide a permanent endowment to support Traveler. Bill was the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Jacmar Companies, a multifaceted international restaurant and food service enterprise and majority owner of the highly successful B.J.'s Restaurant and Brewery. Nadine is an avid breeder of champion Andalusian horses. She hopes that a future Traveler will be bred at Tilley's Andalusians at Fieldstone Farm in Hidden Valley near Thousand Oaks, now known as "The Home of Traveler."

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus (that outfit is on display in Heritage Hall). But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games (and even at some away games, including the 1995 Cotton Bowl in Dallas and the 2005 Orange Bowl in Miami, the farthest Traveler has traveled), but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade and high schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 47 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Asia Music Awards," "Road To El Dorado," "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), in commercials, in print (Vogue magazine) and at personal appearances with many celebrities (including Janet Jackson, Jamie Foxx, LeeAnne Rimes, Fabio and Fred Roggin).

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, before kickoff of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group (subbing for another rider who backed out at the last moment), shakily rode a rented gray/white horse while donning a costume once worn by actor Jeff Chandler. A more accomplished rider, USC alum Bob Caswell, and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in 1959.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years (1950-52), then George III for 1 year (1953) and finally George IV for 1 year (1957).

TRAVELER FUND

The Traveler Fund is used to make sure USC's mascot continues to be a prominent part of football games and other events. Whether it's $5 or $500, donations help to secure this special USC tradition for future generations of Trojans.

Donations should be made out to the "Traveler Fund" and sent to: Justine Gilman, USC Recreational Sports, LRC 101, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-2500, (213) 740-8120.

Tommy Trojan

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

"Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

TROJAN TRADITIONS

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools – USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer – signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 41 times while in USC's possession and blue 31 times while in UCLA's hold (there were 4 ties). (Does not include 2 USC wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 43.)

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

Crosstown Cup

To highlight the year-long all-sports competition between crosstown rivals USC and UCLA, the Crosstown Cup (formerly Gauntlet Trophy) has been awarded annually since 2001-02 to the school with the most successful athletic year against the other. Points are awarded to the winner of each Trojan-Bruin head-to-head contest and the Crosstown Cup is awarded to the school with the most points at year's end. USC has won the Crosstown Cup 10 times in the competition's 16 years, including a span of 5 consecutive years: 2001-02, 2003-04, 2005-06, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2013-14 and 2015-16.

Shillelagh

SHILLELAGH I

SHILLELAGH II

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a Gaelic war club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The foot-long shillelagh has ruby-adorned Trojan heads with the year and game score representing USC victories, while emerald-studded shamrocks stand for Notre Dame wins. For tie games, a combined Trojan head/shamrock medallion is used. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle." The victor of the Trojan-Irish game gains year-long possession of the trophy.

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

The original shillelagh was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was devised by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it. Although the shillelagh was introduced in 1952, the medallions go back to the start of the series in 1926.

When the original shillelagh ran out of space for the Trojan heads and shamrocks after the 1989 game, it was retired and is permanently displayed at Notre Dame.

A new shillelagh – slightly longer than the original – was commissioned by Jim Gillis, a former baseball player at both USC and Notre Dame and a one-time president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and handcrafted in 1997 in County Leitrim, Ireland. It contains medallions beginning with the 1990 game.

There are now 46 shamrocks, 36 Trojan heads and 5 combined medallions on the shillelaghs. (Does not include 1 USC win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 37 Trojan heads.)

Origin of USC's Nickname – Trojans

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

Colors: Cardinal & Gold

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band — known as "The Spirit of Troy" — is the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of USC's most visible public relations tools and provides tireless support of USC athletic teams.

The band, established in 1880 and regarded as "Hollywood's Band," has played for 7 Presidents and appeared in numerous movies (including "Forrest Gump" and "The Naked Gun"), TV shows (including 3 times at the Academy Awards and with OutKast's Andre 3000 at the 2004 Grammy Awards and Radiohead at the 2008 Grammys, plus on "Glee," "American Idol," "Dancing With The Stars," "Scrubs," "How I Met Your Mother," "Las Vegas," "L.A. Law," "Hollywood Squares," "Good Morning America," MTV's "Rock and Jock" and the "Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien"), commercials and magazines (including in Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit issue). It recorded a song for the animated movie, "The Croods." The band earned 2 platinum albums recording the title track of Fleetwood Mac's 1979 album, "Tusk," and was on the group's live 1997 reunion album, "The Dance." It played at the 2010 Coachella music festival with Coheed and Cambria. It has produced numerous albums of its own music (featuring the well-known "Tribute To Troy," "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the musicians who played in the band as students was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (in the cornet section). Appearing with the band as guest artists have been John Phillip Souza (in 1924), Henry Mancini, John Williams, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, Kenny Rogers, Tower of Power, George Clinton, KC & The Sunshine Band, System of a Down, WAR, Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon), Slash and The Offspring's Dexter Holland.

The band performs a new halftime show with precision drills, specially arranged music and dance routines at each home game. A typical football halftime show takes more than 100 hours to prepare. The band marches about 90 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting every USC team. In fact, it hasn't missed a Trojan football game, at home or away, since 1987 (its full band trips to the Bay Area and Notre Dame are much anticipated). The band appears at more than 350 engagements each year, including at pro sporting events and major corporate and special events throughout Southern California.

Approximately 20 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance. Now 300-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1970. A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (with 125 USC bandsmen) at the Games' opening and closing ceremonies. It was the second time the band was involved with the Olympics, as it formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The band has also performed at 4 Super Bowls, the 1988 World Series, the 1994 World Cup and the 2002 NHL All Star Weekend. Bartner has made 16 appearances with the Trojan Marching Band at the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directed the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. During its summer vacations, the band travels the world as goodwill ambassadors of USC. In 1986, Bartner and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88 (one of five World Expositions it has appeared, along with Spain in 1992, Portugal in 1998, Japan in 2005 and Shanghai in 2010). The band also performed at the 50th anniversary of D-Day in France, toured Germany in 1990 to celebrate the fall of the Berlin Wall, played at the walls of the Roman Colosseum in 2006, on the Great Wall of China in 2004 and on Rio de Janeiro's Ipanema Beach in 2008 and in 2003 was the first American marching band to perform at Hong Kong's International Chinese New Year's Parade (it returned there in 2004). It performs each summer at the Hollywood Bowl.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags) and twirlers, plus the world-famous USC Song Girls, who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated, and the Spirit Leaders.

In 2009, ESPN.com named the band and Song Girls as the nation's best: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojan Marching Band. The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojan games ones of the sport's most indelible sights." In 2014, USAToday.com named the band as the "Best Band in College Football."

Tommy Walker

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

School Songs

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

This song is usually played after first downs and touchdowns. The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On," was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director. He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

Another famous USC song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman. It is usually played after every USC score and victory. This stirring battle cry, from Newman's score to the 1947 motion picture classic "Captain from Castile," has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1954 during a basketball game against Oregon State. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

Other Songs

"Tribute To Troy," the incessant stanza of pounding drums and blaring horns, is played after every defensive stop. "Fanfare" is the introduction to "Tribute To Troy" and is played when the band takes the field. "All Right Now" is played after USC gets a turnover. "Another One Bites the Dust" is played after USC gets a sack. The "William Tell Overture" is played at the start of the fourth quarter. "The Emperor's Theme" from Star Wars is played when USC is flagged for a major penalty.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage – and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." Consider:

• Trojan teams have won more national championships, 127 (97 men's, including a national-best 84 NCAA titles, and 30 women's), than all but 2 schools.

• The Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85).

• USC won the 2015-16 Women's Capital One Cup as the nation's top women's athletic program, based on its finishes in NCAA Championships. The Trojan men won the Knoxville Journal/USA Today's National College All-Sports Championship 6 times from 1971 to 1984.

• USC won the Crosstown Cup (formerly Gauntlet Trophy), a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA, in 10 of the competition's 16 years.

• Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (319) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 73 individual NCAA crowns).

• Troy also has a long tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes. USC has more Olympians, medalists and gold medalists than any school. Since 1904, 451 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games, taking home 144 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 92 silver and 71 bronze.

• Four Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959), swimmer John Naber (1977) and swimmer Janet Evans (1989).

• Two Women of Troy athletes have won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02). And Trojan women have won 16 Honda Awards, as the top female athlete in their sport.

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 53 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, in the Top 10 among all schools. In addition, USC has had 35 first team Academic All-Americans and 4 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's an overview of USC's 21 current intercollegiate sports:

FOOTBALL – Since starting football in 1888, USC has an impressive all-time won-loss record of 823-336-54 (.701). In 2009, ESPN.com ranked USC the No. 2 program in college football history. (Does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 837-337-54, .704.)

USC's record against Pac-12 opponents is a stellar 454-187-29 (.699). The Trojans have won 39 conference championships. (Does not include 9 wins and 2 titles vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 463-187-29, .702, 38 titles.)

USC has the nation's fourth best bowl winning percentage (.667) among the 91 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 33 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 34-17 (second for most wins nationally), including 25-8 in the Pasadena classic (does not include 1 Rose Bowl win and loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 35-18 overall, 25-9 Rose Bowl). The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Five Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981) and Reggie Bush (2005, later vacated). Carson Palmer in 2002 and Matt Leinart in 2004 became the first USC quarterbacks to win the Heisman.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the 1967 Outland Trophy, offensive guard Brad Budde won the 1979 Lombardi Award, safety Mark Carrier won the 1989 Thorpe Award, linebacker Chris Claiborne won the 1998 Butkus Award, tight end Fred Davis won the 2007 Mackey Award, linebacker Rey Maualuga won the 2008 Bednarik Award, wide receiver Marqise Lee won the 2012 Biletnikoff Award and cornerback Adoree' Jackson won the 2017 Thorpe Award. USC players have been named first team All-American 166 times, with 54 consensus selections and 27 unanimous choices. There are 43 inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame with USC ties, including 32 players.

Many of those players have led USC to 11 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 4 of those titles (1928-31-32-39). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to 3 more bowl wins. Pete Carroll (2001-09) led Troy to its most recent national crowns in 2003 and 2004, and had 5 Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips and 11-win seasons and 7 AP Top 4 finishes (does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 7 consecutive Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips, 11-win seasons and AP Top 4 finishes). Former assistant Clay Helton was named permanent head coach at the end of the 2015 regular season and he led USC to a win in the 2017 Rose Bowl.

Scores of Trojans have starred in the NFL (a nation-high 501 have been drafted, including a national-best 80 first rounders and a record 5 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott, Junior Seau, Keyshawn Johnson, Bruce Matthews, Willie McGinest and Troy Polamalu. A national-best 12 ex-Trojan players are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BASEBALL – No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 12 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 6).

Since starting baseball in 1889, the Trojans have a record of 2,618-1,497-17 (.636) against college opponents, and captured 38 conference titles.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to 11 of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 43 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison, Bill Bordley and Gabe Alvarez being 2-time selections. Mark McGwire (1984), Seth Etherton (1998) and Mark Prior (2001) were national Players of the Year.

USC boasts many successful major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson, Bret and Aaron Boone, Jeff Cirillo, Barry Zito, Geoff Jenkins and Mark Prior. In all, Trojans have been drafted 330 times, with a national-best 111 Trojans having played in the major leagues.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year collegiate record of 1,332-571-11 (.699), making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1998 squad won the College World Series while finishing as the CWS runnerup in 1995 and also advancing to Omaha in 2000 and 2001. Gillespie retired after the 2006 season. Former Trojan pitcher Dan Hubbs became the head coach in 2013 (his 2015 team made the NCAA regional).

MEN'S BASKETBALL – Since starting basketball in 1907, USC has compiled a record of 1,584-1,179 (.573), winning 14 league championships.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams, Harold Miner and Sam Clancy are a few of USC's 22 All-American selections. Six USC men, Sharman, Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum, Tex Winter and coaches Sam Barry and George Raveling, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has USC's winningest record, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over in 1987 and led Troy into the post-season 4 times. Henry Bibby (1996-2005) got the Trojans into the NCAA tourney 3 times (including the Elite Eight in 2001). Tim Floyd (2006-09) posted 20-win seasons and NCAA berths a USC-record 3 straight seasons. Andy Enfield became head coach in 2014 and led Troy to the 2016 and 2017 NCAAs (setting a school record for wins in 2017 with 26).

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL – USC is among the elite college women's basketball programs, winning 2 national crowns and playing in 4 Final Fours.

Under coach Linda Sharp, Troy reached the Final Four in 1981. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Cynthia Cooper and twins Pam and Paula McGee to lead the Women of Troy to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the nation's outstanding player. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff trips. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995 and Cooper (twice an Olympian and WNBA MVP) was inducted in 2010. Cooper became USC's coach in 2014, leading her team to the NCAA tourney that year.

Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994 (she was the MVP of the first WNBA All-Star Game and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015). Tina Thompson was the No. 1 pick in the 1997 WNBA draft.

USC was in the NCAA tourney in 2005 and 2006 under coach Mark Trakh. Former Laker great and Sparks coach Michael Cooper took over in 2010. After Cynthia Cooper's tenure, Trakh returned to Troy for the 2018 season.

MEN'S GOLF – USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 4 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, Ron Commans in 1981 and Jamie Lovemark in 2007), 22 Pac-12 individual champs, 24 All-American first teamers and numerous players who have had successful professional careers, including $1 million-plus winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-12, winning 19 conference championships.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) had a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 league crowns. He also guided Troy to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC won the league title in 1986. U.S. Amateur champion Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the Masters in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American 3 straight years and was named college golf's 1986 Player of the Year. Kurt Schuette became coach in 1995 and guided USC to back-to-back Pac-10 titles in 2001-02. Kevin Stadler, Craig's son, was the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year (USC's first honoree since 1986).

Ex-Trojan Chris Zambri became head coach in 2007 and led USC Pac-10 titles that year and in 2011. He guided USC to third at the 2008 NCAAs, when he was National Coach of the Year, and took Troy to a program-best second at the 2015 NCAAs. The Trojans tied for third in 2016 and tied for fifth in 2017, part of a national co-leading 11 straight NCAA trips.

WOMEN'S GOLF – The USC women's golf team is arguably the top program in the country, as witnessed by NCAA titles in 2003, 2008 and 2013 and its current nation-leading 12 straight NCAA Top 5 finishes. USC also has 20 Top 10 NCAA finishes in the past 30 trips (including second 5 times, third 4 times, fourth 3 times and fifth 3 times). The Women of Troy won the Pac-12 tourney 6 times and the NCAA Regional a record 11 times (including 2010-16).

Cathy Bright led USC to 5 Top 10 NCAA finishes in 12 years as head coach (1982-93). Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second at the NCAAs that year.

Andrea Gaston, entering her 22nd season as head coach, is already a WGCA Hall of Famer. She took over in 1997 and has guided USC to 17 NCAA Top 10 finishes, including all 3 NCAA titles, and produced 22 All-Americans.

Jennifer Rosales won the 1998 NCAA individual title as a freshman, Mikaela Parmlid won in 2003, Dewi-Claire Schreefel won in 2006, Annie Park won as a first-semester freshman in 2013 and Doris Chen won in 2014. Other top golfers are Marta Figueras-Dotti, Jill McGill (1993 U.S. Amateur champion), Heidi Voorhees (1993 U.S. Amateur medalist), Jennifer Biehn (1994 Pac-10 champ), Candie Kung (2000 Pac-10 champ), Becky Lucidi (2002 U.S. Amateur and 2003 Mexican Amateur champion), Irene Cho, Paola Moreno, Belen Mozo, Jennifer Song (2009 National Freshman of the Year and NCAA individual runnerup) and 4-time All-Americans Lizette Salas, Sophia Popov and Belen Mozo.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE– USC began competing in women's lacrosse in the spring of 2013, coached by U.S. national team star Lindsey Munday. The Women of Troy advanced to the MPSF Tournament in each of their first 5 seasons and earned their first NCAA tourney berth in 2015. In 2016, USC went 20-1 and won the MPSF title, suffering its only loss in overtime in the NCAA quarterfinals (it got to the quarters again in 2017). Courtney Tarleton and Michaela Michael became the program's first All-American first teamers.

WOMEN'S ROWING – The women's rowing team has been active since the early 1970s, but scholarships were first awarded in 1998 and USC has emerged as one of the nation's top programs. George Jenkins guided USC to national prominence during his 9 years as head coach (1994-2002). Kelly Babraj took over as head coach in 2003, with husband Zenon Babraj serving as director of rowing and then sole head coach from 2008 through 2017.

At the 1998 NCAA meet, the Women of Troy won their first national championship race (varsity fours). In 2005, USC made its first NCAA Championship appearance as a team, placing 11th. USC has 6 NCAA Top 10 finishes, including, a program-best fourth in 2013. USC was ranked No. 1 nationally for parts of the 2007, 2012 and 2013 seasons.

WOMEN'S SOCCER – The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Jim Millinder (1996-2006) guided 7 of his squads into the NCAA tourney (USC won the 1998 Pac-10 title). Ali Khosroshahin made his USC coaching debut in 2007 and was the National Coach of the Year as he led his inaugural team to the NCAA title behind the play of goalkeeper Kristin Olsen. Keidane McAlpine was named head coach in 2014. He got his team into the NCAA tourney that year and again in 2015 before winning the 2016 NCAA crown.

Isabelle Harvey, the 1998 Pac-10 Player of the Year, was USC's first All-American first teamer (in 2000). Amy Rodriguez was a 2008 and 2012 U.S. Olympian.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING – USC has long dominated men's collegiate swimming.

Over the years, USC men's swimmers have made Olympic teams 142 times, winning 43 gold, 24 silver and 21 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included Lenny Krayzelburg, John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose. In the 1976 Games, Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country in swimming except the United States.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 120 NCAA meet individual and relay titles and have earned All-American honors an amazing 599 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland (he also served as the head coach of the Women of Troy). His men's teams placed in the Top 10 at the NCAAs 12 times in his 14 years at USC. Dave Salo took over for Schubert in both roles in 2007, guiding USC to 7 Top 10 NCAA finishes.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING – USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 34 of the last 41 years – including winning the NCAA title in 1997 – and have produced 312 All-Americans in that span. They have won 5 conference championships, including in 2016.

Among USC's top women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (9 NCAA titles), Lindsay Benko (5 NCAA titles), Kaitlin Sandeno (2 NCAA titles), diver Blythe Hartley (5 NCAA titles), Rebecca Soni (6 NCAA titles) and Katinka Hosszu (5 NCAA titles).

MEN'S TENNIS – USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 21 team champions (most in the country), 15 singles champions (second in the country) and 21 doubles champs (more than any school). Steve Johnson won the 2011 and 2012 NCAA singles crowns, while Kaes Van't Hof and Robert Farah won the 2008 NCAA doubles title.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojans for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. He won 4 NCAA crowns and 8 of his other teams finished fourth or better. His successor, Peter Smith, guided USC to the 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014 NCAA titles.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 156 times, with many also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS – The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team, with 7.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was 300-43 (.875).

Trojans have won 5 national singles titles, along with 2 doubles champs (including Sabrina Santamaria and Kaitlyn Christian in 2013) and 94 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars include Barbara Hallquist, Diane Desfor, Lea Antonopolis, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman, Trisha Laux, Jewel Peterson, Lindsey Nelson and Maria Sanchez.

Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, was head coach from 1996 to 2017. He got to the NCAA semifinals in 2006 and 2012. Alison Swain, who led Williams to 8 NCAA titles, took over for the 2018 season.

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD – The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 96-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 35 conference crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 43 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 414-123-4 (.769).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who became USC's head coach in 1991, saw his 1992 Trojans finish third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995. He led the men to 14 Top 10 NCAA finishes (including third twice) and 5 conference crowns. Allice retired after the 2013 season and was replaced as Director of Track by Caryl Smith Gilbert for the 2014 season, who led Troy to Top 5 NCAA finishes in her first 2 years.

Sixty-five USC tracksters have won 97 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 29 individual Olympic titles and shared in 10 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and hurdler Felix Sanchez.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 121 NCAA outdoor individual or relay winners from Troy--including high jumper Randall Cunningham in 2016.

The Trojans also have a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD, CROSS COUNTRY – The women's track program at USC is one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAAs 18 times, including winning the program's first-ever NCAA team title in 2001 (USC also was second twice and third 4 times).

The women's track and field heritage begins with former coach Sherry Calvert. A 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC and 2-time Olympian, Calvert started the program and coached through 1983. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men's and women's coach. Caryl Smith Gilbert succeeded him as Director of Track for the 2014 season.

The Women of Troy have had many successful track and field athletes, including such NCAA champions as Patty Van Wolvelaere, Wendy Brown, Yvette Bates, Ashley Selman, Angela Williams (the first athlete, male or female, at any level to win 4 consecutive NCAA 100-meter dashes), Natasha Danvers, Brigita Langerholc, Inga Stasiulionyte, Natasha Mayers, Virginia Powell, Eva Orban and Nia Ali (2011 NCAA high hurdles).

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL – The USC men's volleyball team has made 14 NCAA Final Four appearances since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 8 other occasions.

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty-seven Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans 34 times. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers helped lead the U.S. to its first gold medal in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson, former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who coached Troy to an NCAA title in 1988), Donald Suxho, Brook Billings, Murphy Troy, Tony Ciarelli and Micah Christenson also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage.

Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 as head coach and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Bill Ferguson, named coach in 2007, led USC to the NCAA Final Four in 2009 (for the first time since 1991), 2011 and 2012. His assistant, Olympian Jeff Nygaard, succeeded him in 2016.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL, BEACH VOLLEYBALL – USC has won 6 national crowns in women's volleyball, the first 4 under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). His 1977 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love took over for Erbe in 1989 and guided USC into the NCAAs in 9 of her 10 years before retiring after the 1998 season. Jerritt Elliott served as interim head coach in 1999 and 2000, guiding the 2000 club to the NCAA Final Four. Mick Haley, head coach of the 2000 U.S. women's Olympic team, took over in 2001. In 2002 and 2003, his teams won the NCAA crown, with the 2003 club going 35-0. USC also got to the NCAA Final Four in 2004, 2007, 2010 and 2011.

Debbie Green (1978), April Ross (2004), Alex Jupiter (2011) and Samantha Bricio (2015) won the prestigious Honda Award in volleyball. Trojans have been named first team All-American 47 times and earned spots on Olympic rosters 24 times (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Nicole Davis).

In 2012, USC began fielding a women's beach volleyball team, with Anna Collier as the head coach. The Women of Troy finished third nationally in 2013 and 2014 before winning the AVCA national championship in 2015 (going 28-0), then winning the first-ever NCAA beach event in 2016 and repeating in 2017. The duo of Kirby Burnham-Stevi Robinson won the national pairs title in 2013, then Burnham joined freshman Sara Hughes for the 2014 crown and Hughes and Kelly Claes claimed it in 2015. Former Trojan indoor players April Ross-Jennifer Kessy were silver medalists in beach volleyball at the 2012 Olympics.

MEN'S WATER POLO – Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 1,263-524-7 (.706) record, winning 21 conference championships.

John Williams led Troy to national prominence during his tenure from 1973 to 1998. Nineteen of his last 22 teams finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1998 NCAA championship team (5 others placed second). Jovan Vavic, who joined as co-head coach in 1995, took over as head coach in 1999. His 2003, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2010 , 2011, 2012 and 2013 teams won the NCAA championship (7 of his other squads were runners-up), with his 2008 and 2012 Trojans both going 29-0.

Twenty-four USC poloists have participated in the Olympics and Trojans have made All-American teams 195 times. Some of the prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Charles Bittick, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic, Marko Zagar, Simun Cimerman, Marko Pintaric, George Csaszar, Pedraj Damjanov, Bozidar Damjanovic, Juraj Zatovic (who in 2005 was USC's first male winner of the Peter J. Cutino Award as the National Player of the Year), Juan Delgadillo, J.W. Krumpholz (2008 Olympian and 2-time National Player of the Year) and Joel Dennerley (the 2011 Cutino Award winner), Peter Kurzeka, Nikola Vavic, Kostas Genidounias (the 2015 Cutino winner) and McQuin Baron (2017 Cutino winner).

WOMEN'S WATER POLO – USC's women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. Five years later, the 1999 team--led by National Player of the Year and 2000 U.S. Olympic goalie Bernice Orwig--won the national championship in a 5-overtime victory over Stanford. Then in 2004, USC--behind National Player of the Year Moriah Van Norman--turned in the sport's first undefeated season (29-0) in winning the NCAA title. USC also won the 2010, 2013 and 2016 (26-0) NCAA crowns (it has finished as national runnerup 5 times).

Eight Trojans participated in the 2008 Olympics and 7 in 2012. Besides Orwig and Van Norman, other top players include Aniko Pelle (the 2000 National Player of the Year), Nina Wengst, Olympian Sofia Konoukh, Katrin Dierolf, Kelly Graff, Lauren Wenger (the 2006 National Player of the Year), Brittany Hayes, Erika Figge, Kami Craig (the 2009 and 2010 National Player of the Year), Kristen Dronberger, Monica Vavic and Stephania Haralabidis (2016 National Player of the Year).

USC NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." USC men and women have combined for 125 national team titles.

Trojan men's teams top the nation in NCAA championships with 84 – more than any university. Overall, USC's men have won 97 national titles.

USC's women also are a force, with 30 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, at least one USC team won a national championship (including 5 crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77) in each of those 26 years.

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are third in the nation in the number of national team championships (97 by the men and 30 by the women), but rank in the Top 10 in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (53, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 4 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh, trackster James O'Toole and basketballer Reed Doucette), 35 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, in the Top 10 in the nation and second among Pac-12 schools), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top 10 scholar award, 13 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 13 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award (second most in the nation, behind Yale's 14), 3 CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Famers (Haden, footballer Dick Nunis and swimmer John Naber), 2 NCAA Inspiration Award winners (swimmer Mike Nyeholt and runner Louis Zamperini), an NCAA Walter Byers Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Amy Massey), an NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), 2 NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholars (footballers Dong Koo and Travis Watkins), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps) and a USC salutatorian (track/cross country's Kate Neeper). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue, Matt Keneley and Mike Van Raaphorst were 1996, 1997 and 2000 NACDA Foundation Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997). In 1997, Keith Van Horne was named to the Academic All-American All-Time Football Team. Footballer Lee Webb won a Wilma Rudolph Student Athlete Achievement Award fromthe National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics in 2005. Naber was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame in 2012 and Dick Nunis in 2014.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR LYNN SWANN

Lynn Swann, a legendary Hall of Fame wide receiver with USC and the Pittsburgh Steelers who then made a mark in the worlds of broadcasting, politics, corporate governance, civic engagement and philanthropy, was named USC's eighth athletic director on April 13, 2016, effective July 1.

He succeeded Pat Haden, who retired as athletic director on June 30.

"To his new role, Lynn Swann will bring the heart and soul of a Trojan," said USC president C.L. Max Nikias upon Swann's hiring. "He shares our profound dedication to combining academic excellence with athletic excellence."

"I am excited about coming back to USC," said Swann. "As athletic director, my goals for the student-athletes will be to graduate, to win and to experience."

In 2016-17 his first year on the job, he saw the football team win the Rose Bowl (while also defeating traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame), the women's soccer and beach volleyball teams win NCAA championships (and 11 other teams finish in the NCAA Top10), the men's basketball team defeat highly-ranked crosstown foe UCLA and Trojan athletes win 21 medals (9 golds) at the Rio Olympics.

Well known both within the Trojan Family and globally, the 65-year-old Swann drew on his football success to distinguish himself as an acclaimed leader in both the civic and corporate spheres. He also is a charismatic motivational speaker who has addressed a wide range of audiences across the country, offering an inspiring voice on the importance of assuming responsibility, strong leadership, and maximizing opportunities. As a respected philanthropist, Swann has raised money for a variety of charitable and community organizations, including to provide scholarships for the Pittsburgh Ballet.

Swann served 2 years (1993-95) as chairman of the national board of Big Brothers Big Sisters of America, an organization with which he was active for more than 30 years. As chairman, he managed more than 400 agencies across the United States and helped establish the organization as the premier mentoring group in the nation.

President George W. Bush appointed Swann as the Chairman of the President's Council on Fitness, Sports and Nutrition, where he served from 2002 to 2005.

In 2006, Swann was the Republican nominee for Pennsylvania governor, running a campaign that drew significant praise for its organization and focus as he attempted to become the first African-American governor in that state's history. He captured 40 percent of the vote against Democratic incumbent Ed Rendell.

He further sharpened his governance experience in the boardroom as a director of such international companies as The H. J. Heinz Company, Wyndham Hotels and Resorts, and Hershey Entertainment and Resorts. Effective July 1, he will only serve on the Fluor Corporation Board and, until his term ends in November 2016, on the board of the non-profit PGA of America. He was named to Savoy magazine's 2016 list of the 300 Most Influential Black Corporate Directors.

He was part of the ownership group of the Pittsburgh Power of the Arena Football League from 2011 to 2014. The Power went 15-3 in 2014 and earned its first playoff berth.

Swann worked for ABC from 1976 to 2006, serving as a host, reporter, and analyst for a wide range of events, including college football (he covered a number of USC games), Monday Night Football and the USFL. He also worked on the 1976 and 1984 Summer Olympics, the 1976, 1980, 1984 and 1988 Winter Olympics, the Triple Crown (Kentucky Derby, Preakness Stakes, Belmont Stakes), the Irish Derby, the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race, the International Diving Championships, Wide World of Sports and The American Sportsman. In 2008, he was the sideline reporter for CBS' Clash of Championship bowling telecast (he was inducted into the International Bowling Hall of Fame in 2009).

He also hosted TV game show To Tell The Truth in 1990 and 1991, made a cameo appearance on Mister Rogers' Neighborhood and appeared in the movie The Waterboy.

As a wide receiver, Swann was known for his extraordinary coordination, quickness, fluidity, leaping ability, physical precision, gracefulness and balance. He credits those attributes to his involvement with dance dating to the fourth grade when his mother enrolled him in a dance class.

He was the Steelers' first round selection in the 1974 NFL Draft and spent his entire 9-year (1974-82) NFL career in Pittsburgh. He played in Super Bowls IX, X, XIII and XIV (the Steelers won all of them). He was MVP of Super Bowl X (the first wide receiver so honored), catching 4 passes for a Super Bowl-record 161 yards (his 64-yard TD grab late in the fourth quarter provided the game's decisive points).

Appearing in 116 regular season games in his NFL career (with 96 starts), he had 336 receptions for 5,462 yards (16.3 average) and 51 TDs, along with 61 punt returns for 739 yards (12.1 average) and a TD. In 16 career playoff games, he added another 48 grabs for 907 yards (18.9 average) with 9 TDs and 12 punt returns for 92 yards (7.7 average). He led the NFL in receiving touchdowns in 1975 (11) and in punt return yardage as a rookie in 1974 (577). He made All-Pro first team and the Pro Bowl 3 times (1975, 1977 and 1978).

He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He was the NFL's 1981 Walter Payton Man of the Year. He was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame All-1970's first team and in 2016 he was named to the Super Bowl 50 Golden Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors.

A 3-year (1971-73) letterman at USC, he was a 1973 consensus All-American first teamer and was a member of the Trojans' 1972 undefeated national championship team. He played in the 1973 and 1974 Rose Bowls, catching a touchdown in the 1973 game. In 1973, he was USC's MVP and team co-captain while earning All-Pac-8 first team honors and the Pop Warner Award (as the Pacific Coast's most valuable senior). After his senior campaign, he was selected to play in the 1974 Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl, College All-Star Game and Coaches All-America Game.

He had 95 catches in his USC career for 1,562 yards (16.4 average) with 11 TDs. He also returned 49 punts for 599 yards (12.2 average) with 2 scores (the yardage ranks fourth on the USC career chart) and he rushed for 200 yards on 26 carries (7.7 average). He led the Trojans in receiving in 1971 (27 catches) and 1973 (a Pac-8 best 42 receptions) and was USC's leading punt returner all 3 of his seasons (157 yards in 1971, a Pac-8 high 253 yards in 1972 and 189 yards in 1973).

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993, the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005 and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2013. He received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1999.

He received the Walter Camp Football Foundation Man of the Year Award in 1997, then in 2000 he was presented with the Pop Warner Little Scholars Tomlin Award and the Pittsburgh YMCA Man of the Year Award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in public relations from USC in 1974. He later returned to USC to take graduate-level courses in broadcast production along with outside instruction in writing, speech and acting.

Swann was born on March 7, 1952, in Alcoa, Tenn., but moved when he was 2 to San Mateo, Calif.

He starred in football and track at San Mateo's Junipero Serra High. He earned prep All-American honors in football and won the 1970 CIF California state long jump title, defeating future Olympic gold medalist (and fellow Trojan) Randy Williams. In 2002, he was inducted into the Bay Area Hall of Fame.

Swann and his wife, Dr. Charena Swann, have 2 sons, Braxton (a sophomore at USC in the Marshall School of Business) and Shafer (a cadet at West Point).

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE – The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, senior associate Paul Goldberg, associates Darcy Couch and David Tuttle and assistants Jeremy Wu, Rachel Caton and Katie Ryan) is located in the south wing of the first floor of Heritage Hall. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. There is a work area for media, with complimentary wireless internet access. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance. SID Tim Tessalone can be contacted via: USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601, 213-740-8480, tessalon@usc.edu.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS – Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance. Except for those with prior approval, all coach and player interviews are to be conducted on the football practice field immediately after practice. In season, offensive players/coaches will be available post-practice on Tuesdays and defensive/specialist players/coaches on Wednesdays. Coach Helton will be available post-practice on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Please do not interview coaches, players and athletic department officials in the lobby or on the patios of Heritage Hall, or at any other locations, unless approved by USC. While at Heritage Hall, media should not linger in the lobby or on the patios; there is a media workroom in the Sports Information Office. Per NCAA rules, current athletes cannot record promotional taglines for media outlets. Coach Helton will give an updated injury report at each media session, but he and his players will not address injury issues beyond that. Coach Helton also will be available on a conference call on Sunday evenings during the season. A broadcast quality video with a Coach Helton Q&A will be posted every Monday during the season on USCTrojans.com and on USC's YouTube channel (YouTube.com/USCAthletics).

USC PRACTICES – USC will practice in-season on Howard Jones Field/Brian Kennedy Field on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays beginning at 4 p.m. (generally lasting two hours). USC's entire Tuesday and Wednesday in-season practices will be open to local and national media who have been pre-approved via an online application (applications must be submitted by Mondays at 2 p.m. to attend that week's practice); all Thursday practices will be closed. Please call in advance to confirm the schedule. Media must remain on the east side of Howard Jones Field. Video and still photography is allowed for the first 20 minutes. In-practice live posting/reporting is not allowed from the field. Media may report on injuries viewed during practice, however we ask that game strategy, formations and plays not be reported.

GAME CREDENTIALS – Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team and national college football media) will be considered for credentials to Trojan home games. Media credentials for USC home games will be available on game days at the Coliseum media gate (located at Gate 14 on the west side of the Coliseum) 3 hours before kickoff. Credentials are issued on a game-by-game basis. Parking passes can be mailed in advance. Credentials must be requested online and requests must be received by noon two days prior to each game. The online credential request form also covers NCAA compliance, personal comportment and inherent on-field safety risks. Credentials are non-transferrable. A valid ID that matches the submitted name must be shown and credentials must be picked up in person. Four types of credentials are issued: Media Press Box (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), plus Media Field, Broadcast and Photo (all 3 provide field access if wearing USC-provided wristband and/or vest, plus limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game interview room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the team bench area.

PRESS BOX – Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevators near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the working media, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the middle row of the upper level (seats 219-223) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES – A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, flip cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Helton and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box. A detailed play-by-play and Coach Helton's post-game press conference are broadcast over the press box P.A. system. USC provides complimentary wireless internet access in the press box and field photo work area. To order wireless or phone service, contact a Coliseum IT technician at (213) 765-6353. To call the press box on game day, dial (213) 741-1341.

MEDIA ON-FIELD GUIDELINES – Media with credentials who are permitted on the field during the game (generally TV camera operators and still photographers) must remain outside the dotted line that encircles the field. A special "photo alley" has been drawn between the end zones and 25-yard lines on both sides of the field and behind both end zones; photographers only are permitted inside this "alley" if they kneel. Photographers who choose not to kneel must stand behind the alley, along with all others on the field, including USC guests. Media should refrain from conducting post-game USC player/coach interviews on the field before the team enters the locker room, unless approved by a member of the USC Sports Information Office. No one under the age of 18 except team personnel is allowed on the field at any time.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS – The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the Coliseum's west end. USC's post-game lockerroom is closed, including to the media, in order to comply with NCAA rules that prohibit impermissible contact with recruits. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, Coach Helton and several players will go to the post-game interview room. Additional media interviews are available in the tunnel outside the entrance to USC's lockerroom as coaches and players exit. USC's sports information staff will work with the media to expedite this process.

The University of Southern California

·Founded in 1880, the University of Southern California is the oldest private research university in the western United States.

·There are more than 375,000 living alumni in the Trojan Family. USC alumni can be found in positions of leadership all over the world.

·An anchor institution in Los Angeles, USC has two main campuses: the University Park Campus, located near Exposition Park, a center of world-class museums and recreational parks; and the Health Sciences Campus, three miles northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

·USC also has programs and centers in Alhambra, Catalina Island, Marina Del Rey, Orange County, and other Southern California locations, as well as in New York, Sacramento, San Francisco, and Washington, D.C. USC also has international offices in Beijing, Hong Kong, Mexico City, Mumbai, São Paulo, Seoul, Shanghai, and Taipei.

·The university's 2016-17 fall enrollment was 44,000, including 19,000 undergraduates and 25,000 graduate and professional students.

·Diversity is a hallmark of the USC student community. USC students come from all 50 states, five territories, and 115 countries.

·With more than 10,000 international students on its campuses, USC has enrolled more students from outside the U.S. than nearly any other university or college in the country.

·The university provides more than $320 million in financial aid to support students – the largest pool of university-funded financial aid of any private university in the country. Nearly three-quarters of the undergraduate student population attend college on some form of need-based financial aid.

·Since 1969, USC has been a member of the Association of American Universities, the elective body that unites 62 leading public and private research universities in the United States and Canada.

·With nearly $700 million in annual research expenditures, USC is one of a small number of premier research institutions upon which the United States depends for a steady stream of new knowledge, art, and technology.

·USC has more than 4,000 full-time faculty members.

·Children's Hospital Los Angeles, one of the world's finest pediatric academic medical centers, has been associated with Keck Medicine of USC for more than 75 years, sharing a common mission to improve the health and well-being of children in our community.

·Among USC's distinguished alumni are astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; musicians Herb Alpert and Lee Ritenour; opera star Marilyn Horne; architects Frank Gehry, Jon Jerde, Thom Mayne, and Paul Revere Williams; sports-medicine pioneer Robert Kerlan; entertainment icons Will Ferrell, Ron Howard, George Lucas, John Wayne, and Forest Whitaker; four-star U.S. General H. Norman Schwarzkopf; Olympic medalists Louis Zamperini, Allyson Felix, and Rebecca Soni; former U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher; retired California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. Kennard; former U.S. Ambassador to Australia, South Africa, Liberia, and the United Nations Edward Perkins; former South Korean Prime Minister Kang Young-Hoon; rocket scientist Yvonne Brill; film composers Jerry Goldsmith and James Horner; producers Barney Rosenzweig and David L. Wolper; Indian novelist and journalist Raj Kamal Jha; AARP founder Ethel Percy Andrus; and business leaders Wanda Austin of Aerospace Corp., Dan Bane of Trader Joe's, Marc Benioff of Salesforce.com, Jerry Buss of the L.A. Lakers, Rick Caruso of Caruso Affiliated, Y. H. Cho of Korea Air, Cogent founder Ming Hsieh, B. Wayne Hughes of Public Storage, and Andrew Viterbi of Qualcomm.

Note: Wesson was USC's first fulltime director of the Athletic News Service (the name was changed to Sports Information in the mid-1970s). He originally was hired to direct the University News Bureau, but he found it difficult to cover both university affairs and athletic events so he suggested the formation of the Athletic News Service, with him as the director. He held that position until joining the U.S. Navy in 1942. Little known fact: as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band, Wesson wrote the words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," for the finale of a 1923 campus show.
